Important Message from Bishop Vann

Editor's Note: This letter is being sent to priests and staff on behalf of Most Rev. Kevin Vann, Bishop of Orange.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am writing to you today, in this season of the Resurrection of the Lord, and the new life which He offers to us, of the continuing efforts of our local Church, joined together with other Dioceses in our State, to effectively, compassionately and forthrightly meet the challenges of the consequences of child sexual abuse. These consequences have again come to the forefront this past year and certainly weigh upon us all.

Over the years, the Roman Catholic Diocese of Orange has taken important steps to strengthen and enhance its procedures to ensure that our children are protected and to comply with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' adoption of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in 2002.

Daily, I join clergy, religious and lay staff of the Diocese of Orange in striving to make every effort to ensure the safety of our children. We have worked zealously putting the procedures, training and processes in place to ensure such. And we have taken swift action when and where necessary. As testament to our ongoing commitment, we have communicated these actions publicly on our websites www.safercbo.org and openly communicated clergy removed from ministry at www.RCBO.org/resource/chartered-priests.

These measures have been effective, both to respond to victim-survivors with compassion and to prevent, as much as possible, incidents of abuse from occurring in the future. As a result, new cases of sexual misconduct by priests involving minors are rare today in our diocese, throughout the dioceses of California and throughout the United States. We will continue to be vigilant to make certain the failings of the past are not repeated.

In our continued efforts to bring healing and justice to those who were abused by priests in the past, we announce today as a proactive measure, that we are participating in a new Independent Compensation Program for Victim-Survivors of Sexual Abuse of Minors by Priests, known as the Independent Compensation Program (ICP).

We are one of six dioceses in the state participating, along with the archdiocese of Los Angeles and the dioceses of Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Diego and Fresno. Together, these dioceses comprise more than 10 million Catholics, or about 80 percent of the state's Catholic population. The new program is independently run and will be free from any influence of the dioceses.

Kenneth R. Feinberg and Camille S. Biros, nationally known mediators and private compensation program administrators, will run the program. In addition a blue ribbon panel of respected Californians, including former Gov. Gray Davis, and business leader and former U.S. Small Business Administration head, Maria Contreras-Sweet, will oversee the program.

This new program is voluntary. Victim-survivors can elect to enter this program as an alternative to pursuing their claims – which may be barred by the statute of limitations – against the Church in court. Mr. Feinberg and his firm will have complete independence and autonomy in deciding compensation for victims.

Our goal is to help victims receive compensation for their pain and suffering in an environment where they are treated with sensitivity and compassion and their privacy is respected. Victim-survivors do not need to have a lawyer to participate and there are no fees for participating. Settlements can be paid in a matter of weeks, typically within 90 days.

In our Diocese of Orange, funding will come from existing diocesan assets. No program resources will come from our Pastoral Services Appeal or donor-designated gifts, donations to parishes, ministries and schools.

This type of program has worked well in other dioceses in New York, Pennsylvania, Colorado and elsewhere. Join me in praying that this outreach in California helps bring peace and consolation to victim-survivors and their families who have experienced the horror of abuse. I pledge again today to continue to do everything in my power to ensure the safety of our young people, and to react with sympathy, understanding, and respect toward those who come forward with an allegation of abuse.

And again, I urge anyone who has an allegation of abuse of a minor to immediately report the abuse to law enforcement officials. If the allegation concerns a priest or any member of the diocese, I urge you to contact our toll-free reporting line at 1(800) 364-3064.

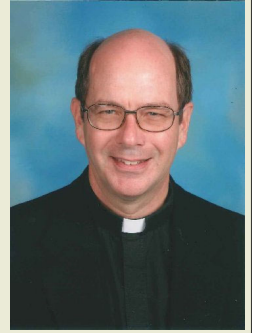

We have posted a website justice.rcbo.org where you can find more information including today's press release and Q and A. This site will host a link to Kenneth Feinberg's site and it will go "live" once the program is launched for the Diocese of Orange in September.

With gratitude for your support and continued prayers,

Most Rev. Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D.
Bishop of Orange

Advice from an Old Friend

When May 26 does not fall on a Sunday, it is observed as the memorial of my patron saint, St. Philip Neri. This delightful sixteenth century Italian priest has left behind a rich legacy of spiritual teaching, summarized in hundreds of sayings that were collected by his followers. Here is a small sample of those sayings:

Whoever does not know how to pray does not know God.

Men are generally the carpenters of their own crosses.

A man without prayer is an animal without reason.

Paradise was not made for slackers.

The wisdom of the Scriptures is learned rather by prayer than by study.

We must always remember that God does everything well, although we may not see the reason for what he does.

He who runs away from one cross, will meet a bigger one on his road.

Each of these sayings could be the starting point of prayer and meditation; and a brief search online will reveal hundreds more like them. As we ponder the simple principles that guide our relationship with God, the clever, joyful and zealous spirit of St. Philip Neri offers us good example and prayerful support.

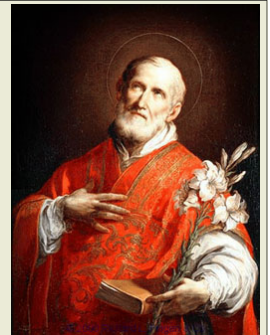

The longer you and I know each other, the more I will be sharing with you about my dear patron saint!

Gratefully yours,

Fr. Philip

Consejos de un viejo amigo

Cuando el 26 de mayo no cae en domingo, se observa como el memorial de mi santo patrón, San Felipe Neri. Este encantador sacerdote italiano del siglo XVI ha dejado un rico legado de enseñanza espiritual, resumido en cientos de dichos que fueron recopilados por sus seguidores. Aquí hay una pequeña muestra de esos dichos:

Quien no sabe orar no conoce a Dios.

Los hombres son generalmente los carpinteros de sus propias cruces.

Un hombre sin oración es un animal sin razón.

El paraíso no fue hecho para holgazanes.

La sabiduría de las Escrituras se aprende más por la oración que por el estudio.

Siempre debemos recordar que Dios hace todo bien, aunque no veamos la razón de lo que él hace.

El que huye de su cruz, se encontrará con una más grande en su camino.

Cada uno de estos dichos podría ser el punto de partida para la oración y la meditación; y si hace una breve búsqueda por internet, encontrara cientos más. Al reflexionar sobre los principios simples que guían nuestra relación con Dios, el espíritu inteligente, alegre y celoso de San Felipe Neri nos ofrece un buen ejemplo y un apoyo en oración.

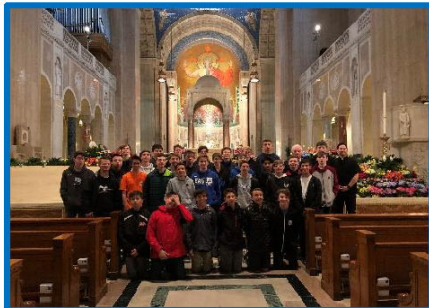

Cuanto más tiempo nos conozcamos, más compartiré con usted sobre mi querido santo patrón.

Con agradecimiento,

Padre Felipe

SCHOOL CORNER – EIGHTH GRADERS EXPLORE THE HISTORICAL EAST COAST

The Parish School's eighth graders recently returned from their annual historic East Coast trip to the nation's capital, New York City, Philadelphia, Williamsburg, Jamestown, and Gettysburg. They experienced first-hand our nation's rich history by touring the world's most powerful cities. From Capitol Hill to Ellis Island, students were introduced to the sacrifices and heritage of our great nation. Touring important national treasures such as Arlington National Cemetery, the Statue of Liberty, Gettysburg, and the Vietnam, Korean, and WWII Memorials further reinforced the themes of patriotism and sacrifice.

The class was also fortunate to have Fr. Tony join their trip. He celebrated Mass with them at St. Patrick Cathedral in DC as well as the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. The group also visited the National Shrine Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes in Emmitsburg, MD.

This Eastern Historical Field Trip not only provided our students with a deeper understanding of US history, but it also included cultural experiences including seeing "Wicked" on Broadway and a Yankees game and allowed them to partake in the cities' delicious food including Philly cheesesteaks, NY pizza and Eataly! It was an exciting (and exhausting!) week for our eighth graders who created lifelong memories before their graduation on May 29.

We are continuing to learn of attempts at emails and via text messaging fraud targeted at our community. Please be aware that priests and staff at St. Edward Church will NEVER request any wire transfer or purchase of gift cards from anyone via email.

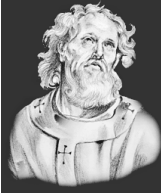

We have been in touch with law enforcement who has advised that the only way to stop this type of fraud is by education. Once the criminals realize that our community is no longer a soft target, the number of incidents will decrease and, hopefully, disappear.

Please be very careful and do not respond to these type of requests without verifying who is sending them, even if the email appears to be urgent and legitimate. Feel free to contact the Parish Office if you have questions.

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at (949) 429-2874 or tleeman@stedward.com

2. Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without Reminder that you can donate to the Pastoral Center Campaign by using WeShare, our online service. It is very flexible in terms of payment method, frequency and amount.
