The Reception of Holy Communion

In February, we held a Liturgical Ministers Morning of Reflection and Training. At this gathering, some questions and concerns arose as to the correct posture for the reception of Holy Communion. As a result of this, I have compiled the following excerpts from Pope Francis and the USCCB which references the Code of Canon Law as well as the General Instruction of the Roman Missal. Please read the following excerpts and feel free to read the entire documents at the links provided. I have also included a YouTube link provided by Busted Halo Ministries that is very concise and informative. I hope this is educational and answers any questions you may have.

Guidelines for the Reception of Holy Communion

<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/order-of-mass/liturgy-of-the-eucharist/guidelines-for-the-reception-of-communion.cfm>

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

Excerpt from Pope Francis' General Audience on March 21, 2018

http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/audiences/2018/documents/papa-francesco_20180321_udienza-generale.html

According to ecclesiastical norms, the faithful normally approach the Eucharist in a processional manner, as we have said, and receive Communion standing with devotion, or on their knees as established by the Episcopal [Bishop's] Conference, receiving the Sacrament either on the tongue or in the hand, if allowed, as preferred (cf. GIRM 160-161).

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

<http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/the-mass/order-of-mass/liturgy-of-the-eucharist/the-reception-of-holy-communion-at-mass.cfm>

The General Instruction asks each country's Conference of Bishops to determine the posture to be used for the reception of Communion and the act of reverence to be made by each person as he or she receives Communion. In the United States, the body of Bishops determined that Communion should be received standing, and that a bow is the act of reverence made by those receiving. These norms may require some adjustment on the part of those who have been used to other practices, however the significance of unity in posture and gesture as a symbol of our unity as members of the one body of Christ should be the governing factor in our own actions.

Those who receive Communion may receive either in the hand or on the tongue, and the decision should be that of the individual receiving, not of the person distributing Communion. If Communion is received in the hand, the hands should first of all be clean. If one is right handed the left hand should rest upon the right. The host will then be laid in the palm of the left hand and then taken by the right hand to the mouth. If one is left-handed this is reversed. It is not appropriate to reach out with the fingers and take the host from the person distributing.

As we dream about making more room for our ministries in the new Pastoral Center, we invite you to make room for the JOY of the resurrection in your souls. Allow Scripture passages on joy fill each day. Follow our daily reflections on SEEKINGFAITH.STEDWARD.COM or have them arrive as text messages first thing in the morning by signing up for Flocknote. Text the word stedward to the number 84576, create a profile, and you will be ready to go. You can also find these on our parish Facebook page: Facebook.com/stedwardchurch

APRIL 15: LUKE 19:37

Now as he was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen.

APRIL 16: LUKE 24:41

While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?"

APRIL 17: LUKE 24:52

They did him homage and then returned to Jerusalem with great joy,

APRIL 18: JOHN 3:29

The one who has the bride is the bridegroom; the best man, who stands and listens to him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. So this joy of mine has been made complete.

APRIL 19: JOHN 15:11

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be complete.

APRIL 20: JOHN 16:20

Amen, amen, I say to you, you will weep and mourn, while the world rejoices; you will grieve, but your grief will become joy.

APRIL 21: JOHN 16:21

When a woman is in labor, she is in anguish because her hour has arrived; but when she has given birth to a child, she no longer remembers the pain because of her joy that a child has been born into the world.

CAMPAIGN CORNER

St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church is quickly approaching the final weeks of our Expanding to Love and Serve campaign effort. We need to receive as many gift commitments as possible by the end of April, so we can budget and plan for construction.

Thank you to the many volunteers and donors who have stepped up with extreme generosity and sacrifice. As of April 1, our campaign total sits at $6.7 million!

As our community winds down this important effort, we'd like to ramp up the level of participation. If you haven't had the chance to join your fellow parishioners in supporting our campaign, it's not too late. On April 21 & 22, during all Masses, we will celebrate Commitment Weekend. This event allows us to honor the many families who have helped our parish reach this point in the campaign, while offering everyone a final chance to invest in the future of St. Edward. Please prayerfully consider supporting this critical effort. In order to expand or capacity to love and serve, we need your help. No gift is too small! Join us for Commitment Weekend on April 21 & 22!

SCHOOL CORNER – NEW EARLY CHILDHOOD ART PROGRAM

“Every child is an artist” - Picasso

Thanks to the generous proceeds from our Monarch Main Event gala, The Parish School has added a new art program to its preschool, TYKE (Pre-K) and Kindergarten curriculum which introduces our youngest learners to various modern artists and styles. During the 12-week in-depth art study, they learn about sculpture, abstract art, and action painting, providing the learners multiple opportunities to explore a variety of activities which improve their gross and fine motor skills, and expand their imagination and creativity.

Students study such classical and modern artists as Wassily Kandinsky, Louise Nevelson, Holton Rower, Dale Chihuly, and Jackson Pollock and then work to create art in their likeness modeling similar techniques. For instance, they explore different mediums to create sculptures, and use recycled products like toilet paper rolls and bubble wrap, to create circle art. They also experiment with action painting – first using brooms and pipettes to move and drip water and later, once they have mastered the technique and studied the artist further, switch the water to paint.

The program culminates with a Student Art Show on May 16 from 6 – 7 PM where the young learners will showcase their art inspired by or made in the likeness of the featured artists. All in the Parish are welcome to join!

.. a lifeline for marriages™

Retrouvaille helps couples heal and renew their Marriages. The word Retrouvaille™ (pronounced re-tro-vi with a long i) is a French word meaning rediscovery.

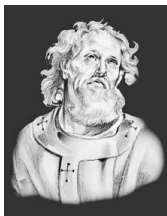

The program offers tools needed to rediscover a loving marriage relationship. Thousands of couples headed for cold, unloving relationships or divorce have successfully overcome their marriage problems by attending the program. Couples will have the opportunity to rediscover each other and examine their lives in a new and positive way.

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Barbara Belavic at the Parish Business Office for more information at 429-2874 or email: bblavic@stedward.com
