The Journey of a Lifetime

This weekend we are blessing three containers of religious medals contributed by you for burial under the three main entrances to our new Pastoral Center and Knight Hall. These medals are being planted at those spots to sanctify all of our comings and goings at this fabulous new home for our parish activities.

Along with the medals are a number of rosaries; think of the countless prayers that have been said on those beads! We ask Christ Crucified, whose image is part of each rosary, to direct all of our steps toward him. There are medals of Saint Michael and Saint Benedict; we ask them to keep away anything that could impede our journey toward Christ. There are numerous medals of the Blessed Virgin Mary; we ask her to watch over us with a mother's love and care. There are medals of other saints, each of whom has special meaning in the Christian life; we ask their intercession, that we may one day join their company as saints in heaven.

When we enter our new Pastoral Center and Knight Hall—whether we are coming to arrange a Mass, a Funeral, a Marriage, or some other event; whether we are coming to a Bible Study, a ministry meeting, or a support group; whether we are coming to speak to one of the priests or deacons, or another member of the Parish staff, or a volunteer who is there to help us—in all these cases, our hope is that our step across the threshold of the Pastoral Center and Knight Hall will be a step towards heaven. And when we exit after any of the activities I've mentioned, we pray that this step will also lead us towards our heavenly goal. It's all part of that great Journey we call life. How wonderful it will be when the new building is finished and is part of our daily journey towards God!

El Gran Viaje de la Vida

Este fin de semana hemos bendecido las tres canastas de medallas religiosas que ustedes han donado y que serán enterradas en las tres entradas principales del nuevo Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall. Estas medallas se han colocado aquí para bendecir al salir y entrar de nuestro nuevo hogar al igual que santificar todas las actividades parroquiales.

Junto con las medallas hay varios rosarios; ¡Imagínense las innumerables oraciones que se han dicho en esas cuentas de rosario! Pedimos a Cristo Crucificado, cuya imagen forma parte de cada rosario, que dirija todos nuestros pasos hacia él. También hay medallas de San Miguel y San Benito; a quien por su intercesión les pedimos que mantengan alejado a todo aquello que pueda impedir nuestro camino hacia Cristo. Hay numerosas medallas de la Santísima Virgen María; le pedimos que nos cuide con su amor maternal. También hay medallas de otros santos, cada uno de ellos tiene un significado especial en la vida cristiana; pedimos su intercesión, para que algún día podamos unirnos con ellos como santos en el cielo.

Cuando ingresemos al nuevo Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall, ya sea que vengamos a pedir una Misa, un Funeral, un Matrimonio o algún otro evento; ya sea que asistamos a un estudio bíblico, una reunión ministerial o un grupo de apoyo; ya sea que vengamos a hablar con uno de los sacerdotes o diáconos, u otro miembro del personal de la Parroquia, o un voluntario que está allí para ayudarnos, cualquiera que sea el motivo, nuestra esperanza es, que cada paso por las instalaciones del Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall sea un paso hacia el cielo. Y cuando salgamos de cualquiera de las actividades que he mencionado, oremos para que este paso también nos lleve hacia nuestra meta celestial. Todo es parte de ese gran viaje que llamamos vida. ¡Qué maravilloso será cuando el nuevo edificio esté terminado y sea parte de nuestro camino diario hacia Dios!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,
