The Original Novena

A novena is typically a nine-day period during which prayers are said each day for a particular intention. Where did the idea of praying for nine days come from? Well, in the Acts of the Apostles St. Luke tells us that the Risen Lord remained on earth for forty days (Acts 1:3); and we know that Pentecost was fifty days after Easter. This leaves an interval of nine days from the Ascension of Jesus until the vigil of Pentecost. And what did the disciples do during those nine days? They “devoted themselves with one accord to prayer.” (Acts 1:14) That was the first Christian novena.

I tell you this now so that you may imitate the disciples and prepare for the feast of Pentecost by praying a novena. If you start on May 26 (which is celebrated as Ascension Thursday in many places), you will finish the novena on June 4, the day before Pentecost. What a great way to prepare for the coming of the Holy Spirit! Certainly we can see the need for the Holy Spirit in our lives, in our community, and in our world. Praying a novena before the feast of his coming is a way to unite ourselves with Christians of all times and places, going all the way back to that first novena prayed in preparation for the first Pentecost.

What prayers should you say during your novena? There are numerous sites on the internet, and numerous apps that contain novena prayers for the coming of the Holy Spirit; or perhaps (like me) you have a prayer book that contains such novena prayers. However you choose to do it, let's all pray that the Holy Spirit may come with his seven gifts and all the graces we need to be truly united to Jesus Christ.

La Primera Novena

Una novena es típicamente un período de nueve días durante el cual se rezan cada día por una intención particular. ¿De dónde vino la idea de orar durante nueve días? Pues bien, en los Hechos de los Apóstoles San Lucas nos dice que el Señor Resucitado permaneció en la tierra cuarenta días (Hechos 1,3); y sabemos que Pentecostés fue cincuenta días después de Pascua. Esto deja un intervalo de nueve días desde la Ascensión de Jesús hasta la vigilia de Pentecostés. ¿Y qué hicieron los discípulos durante esos nueve días? Ellos “se dedicaron a la oración”. (Hechos 1:14) Esa fue la primera novena cristiana.

Les digo esto ahora para que imitemos a los discípulos y nos preparemos para la fiesta de Pentecostés rezando una novena. Si usted comienza el 26 de mayo (que en muchos lugares se celebra como el jueves de la Ascensión), terminará la novena el 4 de junio, el día antes de Pentecostés. ¡Qué buena manera de prepararse para la venida del Espíritu Santo! Ciertamente podemos ver la necesidad del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas, en nuestra comunidad y en nuestro mundo. Rezar una novena antes de la venida del Espíritu Santo es una buena forma de unirnos con los cristianos de todos los tiempos y lugares, remontándonos a esa primera novena rezada en preparación para el primer Pentecostés.

¿Qué oraciones puedes hacer durante la novena? Hay muchos sitios en Internet y numerosas aplicaciones que contienen diferentes novenas para la venida del Espíritu Santo; o tal vez (como yo) usted tiene algún libro que contiene tales oraciones. Independientemente de cómo elija hacerlo, oremos todos para que el Espíritu Santo venga con sus siete dones y todas las gracias que necesitamos para estar verdaderamente unidos a Jesucristo.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

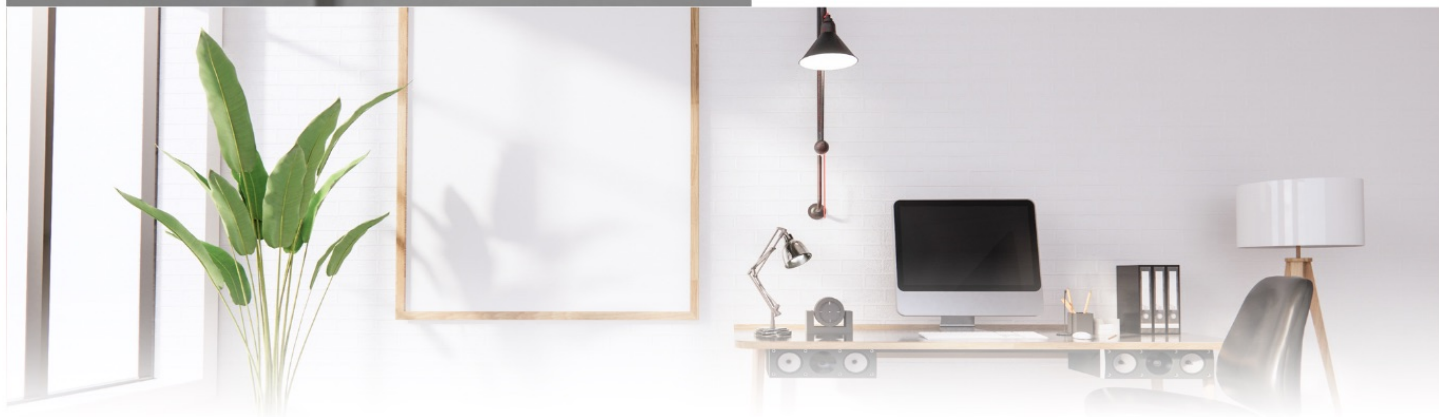

ALTAR GUILD

Contact: Karran Toffelmier
949-374-0579
Ktoffelmier@hotmail.com

The Altar Guild is made up of either teams or individuals who maintain the church's appearance, including organizing missalettes, removing and updating outdated material, and making sure the holy vessels are ready for use at the next Mass.

When needed, the Altar Guild works with the Environment Ministry to decorate the Church and outlying buildings for Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter.

Contact Karran Toffelmier for more information on joining this important ministry!

Parish Opportunities

St. Edward the Confessor is looking for an HR Specialist! This employment opportunity will work closely with the Parish staff in providing human resource support in carrying out the mission of the Church and School in regards to all human resource, safe environment, and risk management programs for the Parish, including, but not limited to, on- and off-boarding, benefits administration, and property/liability insurance programs.

We are looking for volunteer members in checking in our weekly collections. This role takes only a few hours each week, and is a great way to help our church community.

For more information on either opportunity, contact:

Tom Leeman, Senior Business Manager

With potential upcoming changes in legislation surrounding abortion, the United States Council of Catholic Bishops have reaffirmed their commitment to "redouble our efforts to accompany women and couples who are facing unexpected or difficult pregnancies, and during the early years of parenthood, offering them loving and compassionate care."

We ask you to join us in following their request to "intensify prayer and fasting that the final decision of the Court will bring about the reversal of Roe and Casey."

For information on what you can do to assist in the pro-life movement, please contact our Right to Life Ministry!

At St. Edward The Confessor, our goal in the mental health ministry is to provide spiritual support to those suffering with mental illness and to their family members. We seek to reduce stigma associated with mental illness by educating our parish and by providing mental health resources.

As May is Mental Health Awareness Month, please contact Jill Redderson for information on resources for assistance, education, or to join the ministry!

Our yearly "Mozart Mass" returns to St Edward the Confessor!

This year, our Director of Music Rick Dellefield will be leading Mozart's famous "Coronation Mass." This music setting, originally performed in Salzburg Cathedral in 1779 features distinct styles of mass parts, such as the Kyrie, Gloria, and Agnus Dei, creating a unique and powerful experience of the Mass. Featuring incredible soloists, a choir, and an orchestra, we hope to see you at this once in a lifetime experience of the Mass!

Please note that due to the nature of the settings the Mass will exceed an hour.

PASTORAL SERVICES APPEAL

Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Grant us the grace to live joyfully, to serve selflessly and to give generously as witnesses of Your love in the world.

Enliven our hearts to build up one community of faith and to proclaim with one voice the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Help us to grow closer to you each day, so that we can recognize your abundant gifts in our lives and joyfully share them with others.

Amen.
