"Who of you will help the poor amongst us?"

St. Edward's parish is entering into a pilot program with Family Assistance Ministries (FAM), in San Clemente. FAM is a faith based, nonprofit organization that has a long record of successfully aiding the poor, feeding the hungry and sheltering the homeless in this area. Technology has provided instant access to a wide range of resources and has enhanced case managers' ability to provide long-term care and planning to aid those who seek a path out of poverty. FAM is linked to many databases throughout the Orange County and state that gives them the ability to seek long-term solutions. Their goal is to offer personalized supportive counseling to aid clients in bridging the gap from dependency to self-sufficiency.

This partnership will augment St. Edward's Christian Services and the Saint Vincent de Paul ministries. Their focus has been and will continue to offer emergency assistance. They have done a remarkable job of providing food, rental assistance, hotel rooms and many other services when desperate people had nowhere else to go. This new partnership with FAM will now add another level of assistance, which up to now, was not available.

We are seeking parish volunteers who are willing to serve twice a month for a 3-hour shift. It will be held at our San Felipe de Jesus chapel midday every Friday. Commencing in January, FAM will provide orientation to those who want to be a part of this exciting new ministry. Based on the response we receive, we hope to begin serving "the least among us" by February. If this is something you would like to be a part of or want more information, please call our program volunteer coordinator, Jane Galligani 949.276.7382 or leave your name at the church office.

Small Group Formation is happening NOW!

A small group consists of three or more people who gather at a chosen time in a home, workplace, other designated place, or online. A small group comes together to talk about God and faith and Some groups study Scripture or watch and discuss a video series. Other groups do service projects together. IT’S UP TO THE SMALL GROUP TO DECIDE what to do at each meeting. The main purpose is to form companionship on the spiritual journey so that no one feels alone.

Who Can Join a Small Group?

Any adults, any age – singles, married people (with children or without children), co-workers, neighbors, friends – can join a small group. You can choose a multi-generational group or a group specifically your age... Ready? Find a group that fits you or start one of your own.

Start A Small Group

We need people who are willing to start small groups and host them. This simply means that you are the designated organizer/facilitator. The best part of starting a small group is that you get to choose when you meet, the location, and what you would like the group to do. WE WILL TRAIN YOU TO BE A FACILITATOR. IT IS EASY AND NOT TIME-CONSUMING. The parish will match people to what your group does, when it meets, and where. OR you can invite people to join your group and form it yourself. Whatever works for you.

Do you think you want to start a small group or need more information? Go to:

<http://stedward.com/small-faith-sharing-groups-sign-up>

or email Liz Iorio in the Faith Formation Office: lorio@stedward.com.

Meditation before the Exposed Blessed Sacrament

Have you ever surveyed the stars at night and found one that just seems to shine the brightest? And were you perfectly content to sit still and watch this jewel twinkle in the dark of the night for a period of time? Did you notice how peaceful you felt within, unafraid of the darkness that surrounded you? That, my dear friends, is meditation upon His works of creation and redemption. "In bestowing this entire splendor on the visible universe God leaves some trace of Who He is, and this in turn should enkindle love in the faithful soul who gazes with seeking and receptive eyes. Yet, good as all this is, these created realities are among the lesser works of God." Let the Good Lord lead you to taste the divine. Come to Adoration and immerse yourself into the Beloved's Presence in the Exposed Blessed Sacrament and you will find a greater peace and a greater love that awaits you.....

24-Hour Adoration is held on the first and third Monday of each month at St. Edward.. Please contact Deana Progar - 525-7092 or dprogar@cox.net & come and pray for one hour each month..
