Eucharistic Adoration

Last Monday and Tuesday, we had the first all-night Eucharistic Adoration at St. Edward the Confessor since pre-covid times. As you recall, at first the church was closed; and after we could reopen, the church was closed during the day because of work on the narthex. We did our best by having Eucharistic Adoration during the day at San Felipe de Jesús, and we are very grateful to have the blessing of a beautiful chapel like San Felipe in our parish.

But last Monday it was like old times. After the 8:15 am Mass, the Eucharist was exposed on the altar; it remained there until just before the 8:15 am Mass on Tuesday. (Of course, Exposition was interrupted for half an hour during the 5:30 pm Mass on Monday.) It is so good to know that we have resumed this practice on the first and third Monday of every month. I am grateful to all who come to keep Our Lord company; I have no doubt that you benefit greatly from your time with Him. This is a source of grace for our entire parish.

Of course, it is necessary for us to have people in the church at all times when the Eucharist is exposed. This includes the late hours of night and the early hours of the morning. Deana Progar, a long time parishioner, helps us by scheduling adorers of the Eucharist throughout the time of exposition. If you are able to commit to a particular day and time, please contact her by email: dprogar@cox.net

Adoración Eucarística

El lunes y el martes pasado, tuvimos la primera Adoración Eucarística toda la noche en San Eduardo desde la pandemia. Como ustedes recordarán, al principio la iglesia estaba cerrada; y después de que pudimos reabrir, la iglesia estuvo cerrada durante el día debido a la construcción en el Nártex. Hicimos nuestro mejor esfuerzo al tener el Santísimo expuesto durante el día en San Felipe de Jesús, y estamos muy agradecidos y bendecidos de tener una hermosa capilla como San Felipe en nuestra parroquia.

El lunes pasado fue como en los viejos tiempos. Después de la Misa de 8:15 am, el Santísimo Sacramento fue expuesto en el altar; permaneció allí hasta justo antes de la misa de las 8:15 am del martes. (Por supuesto, la Exposición del Santísimo se interrumpió media hora durante la Misa de las 5:30 pm del lunes). Es bueno saber que hemos reanudado esta práctica el primer y tercer lunes de cada mes aquí en San Eduardo. Estoy agradecido con todos los que vienen a hacerle compañía a Nuestro Señor; No tengo ninguna duda de que usted se beneficia enormemente pasando tiempo con Él. Esta es una fuente de gracia para toda nuestra parroquia.

Por supuesto, es necesario que tengamos personas en la iglesia en todo momento cuando se expone el Santísimo. Esto incluye las últimas horas de la noche y las primeras horas de la mañana. Deana Progar, feligrés desde hace mucho tiempo, nos ayuda programando adoradores de la Eucaristía durante todo el tiempo de exposición. Si puede comprometerse a un día y hora en particular, comuníquese con ella por correo electrónico: dprogar@cox.net

Gratefully Yours/ Con Agradecimiento,

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church
Social Justice Ministry presents:

Faith and Racial Justice

Changing Systems and Structures

This 9 week workshop will inform and challenge your own thinking about racism, both its causes and its impact. It will also set a foundation for practical, faith-rooted steps to address it wherever it may be found.

This program is conducted via Zoom and begins Monday, February 21st.
