Pastoral Center and Narthex Project Update

The Project Committee, consisting of Father Philip, many parishioners, architects, and Parish staff and chaired by long-time parishioner, John Markel, continues to work on the Pastoral Center and Narthex project. The committee is waiting to review the cost estimates early next week

As we move forward, architectural designs will be formulated and shared with everyone at a Parish community meeting to be held in September 2019. Please watch for announcements in the bulletin, the Beacon, and on the Parish website.

As for pledge activity, we have $10.2 million in new pledges which will be added to $4 million in Church savings bringing the total pledges to $14.2 million. The projected costs are $16 million.

We appreciate your continued redemption of pledges - each month we move closer to the 75% cash in bank (about $12 million of the $16 million project costs) required by the Diocese to begin construction. Pledge redemptions average over $200 thousand each month. We have approximately $9.4 million total in the bank for this project, or 58% of the estimated total costs, well on our way to the 75% Diocesan requirement and our groundbreaking in June 2020. Construction is projected to be completed by the summer of 2021.

If you have not yet made a sacrificial pledge, now is the time to consider joining in these efforts. Please contact the Parish Business office at (949) 429-2874 for information about pledging to the project.

Martha and Mary

The gospels tell us several times that Martha and her sister Mary, along with their brother Lazarus, were good friends of Jesus. On one occasion, Jesus was visiting them and Martha was busy with the details of hospitality, while Mary sat at the feet of the Lord and listened to him speak. When Martha complained to Jesus that Mary was not helping with the work, Jesus responded by defending Mary, who (in his words) had “chosen the better part.”

Jesus did not tell Martha to stop working, but he did say something about the degree of priority work should have in comparison to prayer (which is how we sit at the Lord's feet). Their relative priority is implied in a statement of St. John Paul II: “A constant danger for apostolic workers is to become so much involved in their work for the Lord, as to forget the Lord of all work.” In prayer, we are mindful of the Lord of all work. We receive from him the strength and enlightenment we need in order for our work to be fruitful.

Whether we tend to be more like Martha or more like Mary, we are called to look at the proper relationship between these two tendencies in our lives. Let's continue to work for the Lord, while never forgetting the Lord of all work.

Gratefully yours,
Fr. Philip

Marta y María

Los evangelios nos dicen varias veces que Marta y su hermana María, junto con su hermano Lázaro, eran buenos amigos de Jesús. En una ocasión, Jesús los visitaba y Marta estaba ocupada con los detalles de la hospitalidad, mientras que María se sentaba a los pies del Señor y lo escuchaba hablar. Cuando Marta se quejó con Jesús de que María no estaba ayudando con el trabajo, Jesús respondió defendiendo a María, quien (en sus palabras) había "elegido la mejor parte".

Jesús no le dijo a Marta que dejara de trabajar, pero sí dijo algo sobre el grado de prioridad que debería tener el trabajo en comparación con la oración (que es como nos sentamos a los pies del Señor). Su prioridad relativa está implícita en una declaración de San Juan Pablo II: "Un peligro constante para los trabajadores apostólicos es involucrarse tanto en su trabajo para el Señor, y olvidarse del Señor de todo trabajo". En oración, estamos conscientes del Señor en toda obra. Recibimos de él la fortaleza y la iluminación que necesitamos para que nuestro trabajo sea fructífero.

Si tendemos a ser más como Marta o más como María, estamos llamados a ver la relación adecuada entre estas dos tendencias en nuestras vidas. Continuemos trabajando para el Señor, sin olvidar nunca al Señor de toda obra.

Con agradecimiento,
Padre Felipe

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at (949) 429-2874 or tleeman@stedward.com

2. Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

Another way to donate to the Capital Campaign!

Reminder that you can donate to the Pastoral Center Campaign by using WeShare, our online service. It is very flexible in terms of payment method, frequency and amount.
