Need Sacraments?

Come to RCIA!

Do you know any adult interested in becoming a Catholic? OR Do you know any adult Catholic who has not completed the Sacraments of Initiation?

Plan to join us this Fall for the Inquiry Phase of RCIA. Just contact Donna Couch, Director of Faith Formation, for a personal interview to begin the process. The first information session will be held on TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20th at 7:00 p.m. in Knight Hall. All are welcome!

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASS IS ALSO FORMING: if you were never confirmed, no need to feel guilty or upset about it anymore! We have a special process of preparation just for you. Contact us today! (949) 496-6011

What does it take for faith to grow in teens?

Souls who are willing to accompany them on the journey. This is what we're asking for, disciples who are willing to help other disciples come to know Jesus Christ. You don't need to have it all together or know everything about being Catholic. All it takes is a desire to serve and grow in love of God. We need people to help with Confirmation classes, hospitality ministry, music ministry, prayer teams and of course, youth group. This will be a life changing experience for anyone willing to be involved in leading teens closer to Christ. If you are feeling a tug on your heart to serve our young church, contact Laura Schuberg, the youth minister & Confirmation director.

Email: Lschuberg@stedward.com
Phone: 949-496-9719. Pray about it, you might be surprised by what God says!

A Visit from Vietnam Touches Home

Each summer, every parish in the Diocese of Orange hosts a missionary. This weekend, we welcome Rev. Vang Cong Trang who represents the Viet Toc Foundation which serves people in the tribal and highland regions of Vietnam. The Viet Toc Foundation provides clean water, education, emergency relief, health care, and hope to those living in extreme poverty.

St. Edward the Confessor has a special history with the Vietnamese. In 1973, a refugee camp was established for the Vietnamese at Camp Pendleton. Our founding Pastor, Fr. Knight, rallied the parish and the parish responded immediately by housing over a two dozen Vietnamese families in their own homes or in rental properties until more permanent housing was found.

During the initial wave of refugees which lasted about two years, parishioners worked together to find them employment and health services, taught them English, bought clothes and basic necessities, and provided love and hope to people who had suffered tremendously and fled for their lives. Later, a second and smaller wave of Vietnamese refugees arrived and again, parishioners embraced them. Eventually, some of them were moved into unfurnished apartments near Del Obispo that needed major cleaning. A parishioner spent time cleaning and another collected and delivered furniture donated by other parish members. Some of these refugees still attend St. Edward the Confessor, including a man who was adopted by a parishioner when he arrived as a boy.

St. Edward the Confessor was blessed to have Fr. Loc Tran serve the parish as a Parochial Vicar. Fr. Loc was one of the “boat people” who survived the war. The majority of priests who have been ordained in our diocese over the last several years are Vietnamese, and at least a third of our parishes have Masses in Vietnamese. In fact, more Vietnamese Americans live in Orange County than any other county in the United States.

St. Edward the Confessor is a very important place for the Vietnamese Catholic community for another reason. Throughout the week, Vietnamese Catholics come and visit the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe which stands outside of Knight Hall. Sometimes one person will arrive, pray in front of the statue and care for the plants and the memorial plaques that surround the statue. Other times, a whole bus full of people come and visit, often on Saturdays. If you have prayed there, you have probably noticed that there are over a dozen marble plaques with Vietnamese writing which lay in the garden in front of Our Lady. There is a strong belief among Vietnamese Catholics in and beyond our diocese that many prayers and miracles have been granted through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe. When a prayer or miracle has been granted, some of them return to give thanks by placing a plaque at the feet of Mary.

Please support Fr. Vang Cong Trang and the Viet Toc Foundation this weekend. Thank you to the parishioners who embodied Christ's love and our parish goal of being a House of the Poor by caring for the Vietnamese refugees. There are many refugees in the world, in the U.S., and in our parish that also need our help. Some fled from war and others from other forms of violence and extreme poverty hoping to find the Good Samaritan in us.

Consider venerating our Mother in front of the two images of Our Lady of Guadalupe that we have on our parish campus. One is a copy of the original miraculous image which hangs in the basilica in Mexico City and is located in Mary's Chapel which is in the corner room of the church. Light a candle and offer your prayer and petition to your heavenly mother. The second image of our Lady of Guadalupe is the statue outside of Knight Hall, facing the church.

-Fr. Brendan

When a foreigner resides among you in your land, do not mistreat them. The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt. (Leviticus 19:33-34)

He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the foreigner residing among you, giving them food and clothing. And you are to love those who are foreigners, for you yourselves were foreigners in Egypt. (Deuteronomy 10:18-19)

Missionary Opportunities

St. Edward the Confessor Parish has a heart of service, therefore, we've been putting our treasure where our heart is: the poor. While caring firstly for those in our own community, we've also raised $400,000 in the last five years to care for those beyond our borders, including Haiti, Mexico, Jamaica, Columbia, and Uganda. Whenever possible, it is also important – and often a life-changing experience - to serve others with our own hands and to come into physical contact with those we serve. You are a missionary by virtue of your baptism. Please consider participating in the following parish missionary events.

Celebrate New Year's Serving in Peru: Since 1997, parish groups, individuals and families have been going to the Parish of Santísimo Sacramento in Piura, Peru to share in the daily work for the poor and also to experience the heroic faith of the people.

Date: December 26, 2016 – January 2, 2017

Cost: airfare plus + $300 for food and lodging.

For more Information: please visit <http://santisimo.org/> or contact Fr. Brendan bmanson@stedward.com

Corazón: Help build a house in a day for a worthy family (see below for more information.)

Two build dates: September 24, 2016 and June 3, 2017

Cost per person: $40 for bus rental

Kids Around the World: We raise money to purchase food then package the food. On March 13, 2016, 800 members of our St. Edward family packaged 100,000 meals in our school gym that were shipped to feed people in Swaziland in South Africa.

Date: March 12, 2017

See February 2017 bulletins for information on how you can participate in this opportunity.

Join Fr. Brendan and build something life-changing with Corazón.
Saturday, September 24th

Join us for the unique experience of providing a worthy family in Tijuana with a new home in one day. We will leave from St. Edward on a bus at 5:00 a.m. and depart from the house site in Mexico by 5:00 p.m. Each participant is asked to pay $40 towards the cost of the bus. No construction skills are required. Age: families with teenagers and older youth are welcome. You will need a U.S. passport to participate.

Servants of the Word Bible Study

Tuesdays 9:00 am – 11:30 a.m.
in Knight Hall

Beginning Tuesday, September 20th

Join us for a transformational year featuring two exciting studies.

Doors of Mercy – Exploring God's Covenant With You.

Mercy: how deeply we all need it. Mercy brings peace and solace and mends wounded or broken relationships. God's mercy is closer than we can imagine. In this study we will take the step towards not only receiving God's mercy in a different way, but also understanding it in the context of salvation history.

The Bible and the Virgin Mary Journey Through Scripture.

This Bible study is designed to help ordinary Catholics grow in their knowledge of the Scriptures while deepening their understanding of the riches of our faith. Distinctively Catholic, Journey Through Scripture reads the Bible from the heart of the Church, engaging both the Old and New Testaments and how they work together. It's grounded in history, yet actively engages topics faced by today's Catholic. By the end of this study, you'll understand why Catholics honor Mary as the human person who most perfectly conforms to the image of God.

Registration Information

You may sign up our table after Masses the week-end of September 10 & 11 or at our first meeting on September 20th. Registration & materials are $45.

Fall Serenity Day Mini-Retreat: October 18th

Wednesday Night Bible Study

Wednesdays 7:00 p.m. (24 weeks)
in Knight Hall
Beginning Wednesday, Sept. 21st

Bible Study 101 Bible Study 101 will be the topic of the first three weeks and will provide a Catholic context. This framework will help those who have not previously studied the bible as well as those who want to improve their understanding of Catholic history and approach to the Scriptures. Fr. Brendan Manson, Pastor, and Donna Couch, Director of Faith Formation, will provide materials and facilitate these sessions. (September 21, 28 and October 5)

The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy

If we consider that God is the Divine Bridegroom and the Church is his Bride, then the prophets can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors." They afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted, calling us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom.

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come

In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history.

Registration Information

You may sign up our table after Masses the week-end of September 10 & 11 or at our first meeting on September 21st. Registration & materials are $55.

Women's Silent Retreat at the Sacred Heart Retreat House October 7-9

Have you ever had a desire to get away for a few days and spend some time alone with God? Or just have a few days rest to renew your tired mind, body, and spirit or some time to refocus your life and priorities?

This is an invitation to you to join the women of St. Edward on our week-end silent retreat in October we spend the week-end with the Carmelite Sisters at their beautiful retreat grounds in Alhambra. Consider joining us...pray about it.

For more information and how to sign up, please contact: Judy Claypool 949-493-6617 or Val Melon 949-489-8378

Beginning Experience Weekend

If you are grieving the loss of your marriage through death, divorce or separation, join us at the ProSanctity Center in Fullerton, October 7-9, 2016. A trained team leads participants through a healing and growth program. If you are ready to move through your feelings of grief, into the light of a new beginning and hope, this weekend may be for you.

Contact Kim at (714) 336-3221 or Melissa (bilingual, Spanish) at (949) 697-3352 for more information.
Early registration is encouraged.

Marriage Encounter Weekends Sept. 23-25 and Nov. 11-13

Most couples are busy with work and family. It seems that every moment of the day is planned and there's never enough time to get everything done. When was the last time you had a weekend alone?

Consider planning a weekend away just the two of you, to renew your marriage relationship. We have 2 week-ends to choose from: Sept. 23-25 and Nov. 11-13. Both start on Friday night and end on Sunday afternoon. They will be located at an Orange County hotel.

For more information, please contact:
John and Maggie Lee at 714-837-5136. If you prefer sign up at our website at ocwwme.org.

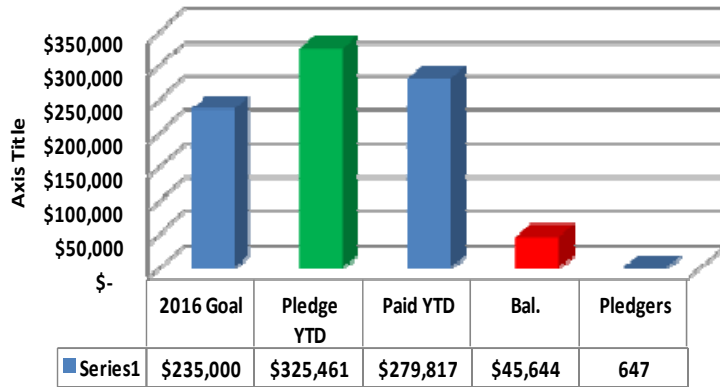

St. Edward Bridge Club

Ladies and Gentlemen you are invited to join our Round Robin Bridge Club which will begin in September and play for seven months. We organize teams and play once a month in homes. This is a great social group and a good way to meet new friends. If you're interested in joining, or would like more information, please call
