The Easter Candle

One of the greatest symbols of our Easter celebration (which goes on until Pentecost, May 28th this year) is the Easter Candle. The Easter Vigil begins with a blessing of fire, followed by a blessing of the Easter Candle. Symbols are traced on the candle: a cross, sign of our salvation; the Alpha and Omega (first and last letters) of the Greek alphabet, showing that Christ is the Beginning and the End of all things; and the current date, showing that all times belong to Christ. Five symbolic “wounds” are inserted in the Candle, as the priest says, “By his holy and glorious wounds, may Christ the Lord guard us and protect us. Amen.” Then the Candle is lit with the blessed fire and carried in procession to the sanctuary, accompanied by the words, “The Light of Christ.”

Then the Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) is sung. Among other things, the Candle is likened to the pillar of cloud and fire that led God’s Chosen People out of slavery into the promised land—just as Christ leads us out of slavery to sin to the promised land of heaven. The flame of the candle, which has been spread to all the candles held by the faithful in the church, is described as “a fire into many flames divided, yet never dimmed by sharing of its light,” just as the Light of Christ is never diminished by being shared.

This splendid symbol of the Risen Christ will remain near the ambo for the entire Easter Season; then it will be placed near the Baptismal font, where it remains for the rest of the year except for during funerals, when it is put in the sanctuary again. In this way we see how the Risen Christ guides us from our infancy, when we are baptized, to our death, when he leads us to heaven. May that Light of Christ be our guide always!

El Cirio Pascual

Uno de los símbolos más importantes de la celebración de la Pascua (y que continúa hasta Pentecostés, el domingo 28 de mayo de este año) es el Cirio Pascual. La Vigilia Pascual comienza con la bendición del fuego, seguida por la bendición del Cirio Pascual. En el Cirio se trazan símbolos: una cruz, signo de nuestra salvación; el Alfa y Omega (la primera y última letra) del alfabeto griego, mostrando que Cristo es el Principio y el Fin de todas las cosas; y la fecha actual, mostrando que todos los tiempos pertenecen a Cristo. Cinco “llagas” simbólicas se insertan en el Cirio, como dice el sacerdote: “Por sus santas y gloriosas llagas, que Cristo el Señor nos guarde y nos proteja. Amén.” Luego se enciende el Cirio con el fuego bendito y se lleva en procesión al santuario, acompañado de las palabras “La Luz de Cristo”.

Luego se canta el Pregón Pascual (Exsultet). Entre otras cosas, el Cirio se asemeja a la columna de nube y fuego que sacó al Pueblo Elegido de Dios de la esclavitud a la tierra prometida, así como Cristo nos saca de la esclavitud del pecado a la tierra prometida del cielo. La llama del Cirio, que se ha extendido a todas las velas que sostienen los fieles en la iglesia, se describe como “un fuego entre muchas llamas divididas, pero nunca apagadas al compartir su luz”, tal como la Luz de Cristo nunca es disminuida por ser compartida.

Este espléndido símbolo de Cristo Resucitado permanecerá junto al ambón durante todo el tiempo pascual; luego se colocará cerca de la pila bautismal, donde permanece el resto del año excepto durante los funerales, cuando se vuelve a colocar en el presbiterio. Así vemos cómo Cristo Resucitado nos guía desde nuestra infancia, cuando somos bautizados, hasta nuestra muerte, cuando nos conduce al cielo. ¡Que esa Luz de Cristo sea nuestra guía siempre!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

SYNODALITY AT ST. EDWARD

Over the next few months you will continue to see several announcements about Synodality at St. Edward.

So, what is Synodality? It is the process that refers to the active participation of all the faithful in the life and mission of the Church. It is the enactment of creating a Synod, the journeying together of the People of God.

Synods are as old as the Church itself. In the Acts of the Apostles in the New Testament, we read of the apostles and disciples coming together to discuss important issues confronting the newly established Church. All of them gathered together to listen to each other in order to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit.

Pope Francis has called upon the entire Universal Church to join him and the bishops around the world in a new Synod of walking together and listening to each other.

In the coming weeks, we will continue to explain the synodal process here at St. Edward. You will learn that it involves all of us. You will be asked to come to listening sessions to tell us the things that you hold in your hearts about your Catholic faith. Good or Bad!

You should know that we will only ask you to express your thoughts and to listen to other parishioners. No one will preach to you or comment on what you or others have to say. There is no judgment, just listening. Listening to each other as we journey together in faith. The Holy Spirit will be there too!

More next week.

MEMORIAL PLAQUES

AT ST. EDWARD THE CONFESSOR

The restoration/update of our Memorial Plaques, reflecting the names of the deceased of our Parish to be displayed at the statue of Our Lady of Guadalupe, is nearing completion. The plaques needed to be adjusted to fit the new space for them. They also needed to be updated with the names of the people who have passed away since 2019. Please review this list. If you find any errors, please contact our Business Manager, Tom Leeman, at tleeman@stedward.com

PASTORAL SERVICES APPEAL

Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,
Grant us the grace to live joyfully, to serve selflessly and to give generously as witnesses of Your love in the world.
Enliven our hearts to build up one community of faith and to proclaim with one voice the Good News of Jesus Christ.
Help us to grow closer to you each day,
so that we can recognize your abundant
gifts in our lives and joyfully share them with others.
Amen.

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION
Origins

On June 13, 1917, when she appeared to three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, the Most Holy Mother of God told Lucia dos Santos, "Jesus wishes to make use of you to make me known and loved. He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. I promise salvation to those who embrace it, and these souls will be loved by God like flowers placed by me to adorn His throne."
