Taking the Passion Personally

During the liturgies of Palm Sunday and Good Friday, the assembly has the unique experience of helping to proclaim the Gospel. Perhaps it feels strange to repeat the words of the crowd, calling for the crucifixion of Christ. Certainly we do not want Jesus to suffer.

Our participation in this Gospel is an invitation to take the Passion of Jesus Christ personally. One way we do this is to examine ourselves in the light of the Gospel and discern which figures in the Gospel narrative we might resemble. Are we like Peter, who spoke enthusiastically about being faithful to Christ but then deserted him when things became difficult? Are we like Judas, who traded his faithfulness to Christ for material gain? Are we like Pilate, who tried to wash his hands of responsibility for his actions? Are we like the crowd, easily swayed from praising Christ to condemning him? Are we like Simon of Cyrene, who carried the cross only under protest, because he had to?

The list of characters could go on. Hopefully we are like the Apostle John and the Virgin Mary, who remained with Jesus until the end. Hopefully we imitate Jesus himself, as he forgave his executioners from the cross. Taking the Passion personally means that we recognize our call to imitate the Lord and those who are closest to him.

Taking the Passion personally also means that we remember that Jesus suffered and died for each of us. His redemptive love for us is so great that he gave his life, and then took it up again, for each of us personally. How blessed we are to be loved so much! Gratefully we accompany the Lord throughout this Holy Week.

Tomando la Pasión de Cristo personalmente

Durante las liturgias del Domingo de Ramos y del Viernes Santo, la asamblea tiene la experiencia única de ayudar a proclamar el Evangelio. Quizás se sienta extraño repetir las palabras de la multitud, pidiendo la crucifixión de Cristo. Ciertamente no queremos que Jesús sufra.

Nuestra participación en este Evangelio es una invitación a tomar personalmente la Pasión de Cristo. Una forma de hacer esto es examinarnos a nosotros mismos a la luz del Evangelio y discernir a qué figuras de la narración del Evangelio nos parecemos. ¿Somos como Pedro, que habló con entusiasmo acerca de ser fiel a Cristo, pero luego lo abandonó cuando las cosas se pusieron difíciles? ¿Somos como Judas, que cambió su fidelidad a Cristo por unas cuantas monedas? ¿Somos como Pilato, que trató de lavarse las manos de responsabilidad por sus acciones? ¿Somos como la multitud, que se desvía fácilmente de alabar a Cristo para condenarlo? ¿Somos como Simón de Cirene, que llevó la cruz solo como protesta, porque tenía que hacerlo?

La lista de personajes podría continuar. Ojalá seamos como el Apóstol Juan y la Virgen María, que permanecieron con Jesús hasta el final. Ojalá imitemos al mismo Jesús, como perdonó a sus verdugos desde la cruz. Tomar la Pasión personalmente significa que reconocemos nuestra llamada a imitar al Señor y a los que están más cerca de él.

Tomar la Pasión personalmente significa también que recordamos que Jesús sufrió y murió por cada uno de nosotros. Su amor redentor por nosotros es tan grande que dio su vida, y luego la retomó, por cada uno de nosotros. ¡Cuán bendecidos somos de ser amados tanto! Agradecidos acompañamos al Señor a lo largo de esta Semana Santa.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

April 2nd, 2023

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are two yearly days of obligatory fasting and abstinence for Roman Catholics. Fasting means a person is permitted to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may also be taken, but they are not to equal that of a full meal. When we fast, we go without our normal amount of food. The essence of fasting is to reduce and simplify our meals. A helpful guideline is one regular meal plus two small meals, and no snacks in between (fluids, including coffee and tea, do not "count" as elements of a meal, technically speaking). The trick is that the two smaller meals put together should still be smaller than the normal meal.

Fasting is really about your heart. Our hearts are distracted with so many things — social media, work projects, finances — that we can easily forget about God. We feel a lack — a desire for more — and this creates space for our hearts to remember and refocus on God.

St. Edward has joined the #PRAY40 Challenge with Hallow if you haven't already, begin anytime.

GOOD FRIDAY

April 7 - SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY LAND

Every year on Good Friday, a collection is taken up in Catholic Churches to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land. Christians there rely heavily on the help that comes to them from this worldwide collection. The Franciscan Monastery in Washington, D.C., coordinates this vital support for the work of the Franciscans who work in the Holy Land.

The Franciscans of the Custody of the Holy Land have the unique responsibility to care for the Holy Places as well for the "Living Stones," the Christians living there. It is vital that we support Christians living in the Holy Land, in order to maintain a Christian presence in the very land made holy by the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. Find more at: <https://myfranciscan.org/good-friday/>.

Please consider a donation during the collection on April 7th, 2023
