Pastoral Center and Narthex Project Update

The Project Committee, consisting of Father Philip, many parishioners, architects, and Parish staff and chaired by long-time parishioner, John Markel, continues to work on the Pastoral Center and Narthex project. This past week, the committee reviewed final design and development work one last time.

As we move forward, architectural designs will be formulated and shared with everyone at a Parish community meeting to be held in September 2019. Please watch for announcements in the bulletin, the Beacon, and on the Parish website.

As for pledge activity, we have $10.3 million in new pledges which will be added to $4 million in Church savings bringing the total pledges to $14.3 million. The projected costs are $16 million.

We appreciate your continued redemption of pledges - each month we move closer to the 75% cash in bank (about $12 million of the $16 million project costs) required by the Diocese to begin construction. Pledge redemptions average over $200 thousand each month. We have approximately $9.4 million total in the bank for this project, or 58% of the estimated total costs, well on our way to the 75% Diocesan requirement and our groundbreaking in June 2020. Construction is projected to be completed by the summer of 2021.

If you have not yet made a sacrificial pledge, now is the time to consider joining in these efforts. Please contact the Parish Business office at (949) 429-2874 for information about pledging to the project.

Good Samaritans

If you type the phrase “Good Samaritan” into Dictionary.com, you will find the definition: “a person who gratuitously gives help or sympathy to those in distress.” Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan is so famous that it has found its way into the dictionary! Jesus tells this parable in answer to the question, “Who is my neighbor?” All of us are called to be neighbors to one another, helping those who need help and receiving help from others as well.

Most of us can recall times when someone has helped us. There are many good people in this world, and sometimes a person we have never met will appear at just the right time to give us the assistance we need. Hopefully we can also recall times when we have been the person giving help; opportunities to do good for others surround us. And beyond the assistance we give to people whom we encounter in daily life, we can give the assistance of our prayers to anyone we want to help—whether they are in this world or the next. I know that I have been helped a lot by the prayers of many good people here at St. Edward the Confessor and San Felipe de Jesús; since my arrival last December, many of you have assured me of your prayers. Thank you for this! Your prayers are a great help to me. I promise my prayers for you as well.

Let’s give thanks for the Good Samaritans in our lives, and let’s do our best to be Good Samaritans to others. In particular, let’s pray for everyone who needs our prayers. We have the ability to do so much good; let’s never settle for less!

Gratefully yours,

Fr. Philip

El Buen Samaritano

Si escribe la frase “Buen Samaritano” en Diccionario.com, encontrará la siguiente definición: “una persona que brinda ayuda o simpatía gratuita a los que están en dificultades”. La parábola de Jesús del Buen Samaritano es tan famosa que ha encontrado un lugar en el propio ¡diccionario! Jesús dice esta parábola en respuesta a la pregunta: “¿Quién es mi prójimo?” Todos nosotros somos llamados a ser buenos con nuestro prójimo, ayudando a los que necesitan ayuda y recibiendo la ayuda de otros también.

La mayoría de nosotros podemos recordar momentos en que alguien nos ha ayudado. Hay muchas personas buenas en este mundo y, a veces, una persona que nunca hemos conocido aparecerá en el momento justo para brindarnos la asistencia que necesitamos. Ojalá también podamos recordar los momentos en que hemos sido la persona que está brindando ayuda. Oportunidades para hacer el bien por los demás nos rodean. Y más allá de la asistencia que brindamos a las personas con las que nos encontramos en la vida cotidiana, podemos brindar la asistencia de nuestras oraciones a cualquiera que queramos ayudar, ya sea que estén en este mundo o en el próximo. En lo personal sé que me han ayudado mucho las oraciones de muchas personas buenas aquí en San Eduardo el Confesor y San Felipe de Jesús. Desde mi llegada en diciembre pasado, muchos de ustedes me han prometido sus oraciones. ¡Gracias por esto! Sus oraciones son de gran ayuda para mí. Prometo mis oraciones por ustedes también.

Demos gracias por los buenos samaritanos en nuestras vidas y hagamos nuestro mejor esfuerzo para ser buenos samaritanos con los demás. En particular, oremos por todos los que necesitan nuestras oraciones. Tenemos la capacidad de hacer mucho bien; ¡Nunca nos conformemos con menos!

Con agradecimiento,

Padre Felipe

The World Apostolate of Fatima Invites you to join us for the Enrollment of the Brown Scapular

Tuesday, July 16
during 5:30 p.m. Mass
All are welcome

On October 13, 1917, Mary made her final appearance at Fatima as our Lady of Mt. Carmel. According to Lucia, one of the 3 children, Mary held the Brown Scapular out from the sky "because she wants everyone to wear it." Lucia added, "As Pope Pius XII said, it is the sign of our consecration to her Immaculate Heart." The Brown Scapular is an instrument of faith, hope and love. It gives those beneath it the "feeling" of being beneath our Lady's Mantle...next to her heart. Despite our weaknesses, wearing the Brown Scapular makes us powerful instruments in Mary's hands for the conversion of sinners and unbelievers.

The Brown Scapular was first given by Mary to St. Simon Stock, superior of the Carmelite Order on July 16, 1251. Mary told him: "Receive the Brown Scapular. It is a pledge of salvation, a safeguard in danger."

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.
