Good Things are Happening

Last weekend was great! Our observance of the Martin Luther King weekend was well-organized and we had a good turnout, in spite of the rain on Saturday evening. You might recall that on Saturday we had a gospel choir concert; it was lively, inspiring, and uplifting. On Sunday, Fr. Claude Williams was the main celebrant of the 11:00am Mass, and afterwards we had lunch and more sharing from Fr. Claude. Again, the participation was good and the event was informational and inspiring. Many thanks to the Faith in Action ministry for organizing this wonderful weekend.

In the meantime, I have already received great response to my idea of a Bible Study with "The Chosen." This week I will be working with Rosy Stock and Tom Leeman to arrange a schedule and reserve the space. Of course, I am hoping to use the St. John Paul II section of Knight Hall; wouldn't it be great to see "The Chosen" on that huge monitor? I will be sure to keep everyone posted about the schedule and location of this Bible Study. I am really looking forward to watching my favorite program with you!

Speaking of "The Chosen," did you know that the final two episodes of Season Three will be shown in theaters on February 2nd and 3rd? I have already purchased my ticket. If you would like to do the same, go to fathomevents.com. The world hungers for the Good News; how wonderful that there is a program that puts us in touch with the Gospels!

Están Pasando Cosas Buenas

¡El fin de semana pasado fue genial! A pesar de la lluvia del sábado por la noche la celebración de Martin Luther King fue todo un éxito el evento estuvo muy bien organizado y tuvimos una buena participación de parte de ustedes. Tal vez recuerden que el sábado tuvimos un concierto con el Coro de Gospel; este coro estuvo lleno de vida, inspirador y edificante. El domingo, el padre Claude Williams fue el principal celebrante durante la Misa de las 11:00 am, después tuvimos un almuerzo y compartimos más tiempo con el Padre Claude, la participación fue buena y el evento fue informativo y muy inspirador. Muchas gracias al ministerio de Fe en Acción por organizar este maravilloso fin de semana.

Mientras tanto, ya he recibido una gran respuesta de parte de ustedes sobre la idea que tuve de iniciar un Estudio Bíblico con la serie "The Chosen". Esta semana estaré trabajando con Rosy Stock y Tom Leeman para organizar el horario y reservar el espacio necesario para este evento. Por supuesto, mi plan es usar la sección de San Juan Pablo II de Knight Hall; ¿No sería genial ver "The Chosen" en esa enorme pantalla? Me aseguraré de mantenerlos informados sobre el horario y la ubicación de este Estudio Bíblico. ¡Tengo muchas ganas de ver mi serie favorita con todos ustedes!

Hablando de "The Chosen", ¿sabías que los últimos dos episodios de la tercera temporada estarán en los cines el 2 y el 3 de febrero? Yo ya compré mi boleto. Si ustedes desean hacer lo mismo, vaya a fathomevents.com. El mundo tiene hambre de la Buena Nueva; ¡Qué maravilla que haya un programa que nos ponga en contacto con los Evangelios!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

FAITH IN ACTION MINISTRY

HIGHLIGHTS

Our Border Compassion team joined a humanitarian response to families living at the Posada del Migrante Shelter in Mexicali. Founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph, Border Compassion provides comfort and witness to asylum seekers who have fled life-threatening civil and gang violence, extreme poverty and climate disasters to find safe refuge in the United States. St. Edwards families made donations that brought funds for food, essential clothing, medicines and hygiene supplies. Our volunteers assisted in the daily set up and break down for meals, brought a craft for the younger residents and spent some time listening and supporting the people undertaking this journey to safety and freedom.

DECEMBER

MLK WEEKEND of CELEBRATION

We are fortunate to have such dedicated ministries that dream, plan and offer incredible weekend opportunities to enrich our knowledge help us strengthen relationships with all of the communities around us. Despite the heavy rain we had a lively and uplifting gospel choir concert on Saturday night. On Sunday, Fr. Claude Williams presided over 11am and reiterated the messages of forgiveness and of love for one another offered by Dr. Martin Luther King. The luncheon and discussion following was a special opportunity to continue the conversation. The Day of Service was a success as well with much participation. We are so glad that so many could attend. We can't wait to do it all again next year!

Suicide Bereavement Support Group

Death touches all of our lives sooner or later. Sometimes it is expected, as with the passing of an elderly relative; sometimes it comes suddenly in the form of a tragic accident.

But suicide is different. The person you have lost seems to have chosen death, and that simple fact makes a world of difference to those left to grieve. The suicide survivor faces all the same emotions as anyone who mourns a death, but they also face a somewhat unique set of painful feelings on top of their grief...guilt, stigma, anger, disconnection.

If you are a survivor of suicide loss, we invite you to attend a Christ centered suicide bereavement support group forming at Saint Edward the Confessor Catholic Church in Dana Point. Everyone in the group, including its facilitators, has had someone close to them take their life and knows how devastating the experience can be. The group will meet from 6:30 - 8:00 p.m. on the second and fourth Thursday of each month

January 26 - May 25, 2023.

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION Origins

On June 13, 1917, when she appeared to three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, the Most Holy Mother of God told Lucia dos Santos, "Jesus wishes to make use of you to make me known and loved. He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. I promise salvation to those who embrace it, and these souls will be loved by God like flowers placed by me to adorn His throne."
