In many dioceses around the world, the Ascension of the Lord is commemorated 40 days after Easter which always falls on a Thursday. Therefore, the Ascension is often referred to as Ascension Thursday. However, in this region of the United States, the Ascension is celebrated this weekend, the seventh Sunday of Easter.

Look at the picture above. I can only wonder and imagine what the disciples were thinking and feeling when they watched Jesus leave them as he ascended into heaven. Jesus had “left” them once before when he died and was buried. Then he rose from the dead and was back with the disciples. And now he’s leaving them again. Why come back only to leave again?

The thought - and now the reality - of living without Jesus must have caused the disciples to feel sorrow and fear. Jesus had told them that he must ascend to the Father so that he could send them the gift of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate. But how could they understand what that meant? However, as the Holy Spirit descends upon them at Pentecost, they experienced the delightful fulfillment of a promise Jesus had made to them earlier: “Behold, I will be with you always, even until the end of the age” (Mt 28:20).

Through the presence of the Holy Spirit, the disciples encountered the daily presence of Jesus who continued to journey with them as they themselves preached the Gospel, healed the sick, and cared for the poor. Finally, through the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ accompanied the apostles through their death and lifted their souls to heaven as they wait for the resurrection of the body.

In addition to the feast of the Ascension, we also celebrate Mother’s Day and recall the love of our Blessed Mother Mary and that gift and love of the mothers in our lives. Let’s express our love and gratitude for our mother, grandmothers, godmother, etc. (living and deceased) not just on Mother’s Day but every day.

Maternal love is a strong binding love between mother and child. The Bible does not speak of Jesus appearing to his mother after the resurrection. However, I join a long list of saints in believing that Jesus did visit his mom first and then appeared to Mary Magdalene. I like to think that Jesus, who allowed his mom to share in his Passion and to hold his dead body, would also give her the joy and consolation to behold his glorious and resurrected body.

Happy Ascension and Mother’s Day,
Rev. Brendan Manson
Pastor

SCHOOL CORNER – EIGHTH GRADERS EXPLORE THE HISTORICAL EAST COAST

The Parish School's eighth graders recently returned from their annual historic East Coast trip to the nation's capital, New York City, Philadelphia, Williamsburg, Jamestown, and Gettysburg. They experienced first-hand our nation's rich history by touring the world's most powerful cities. The Washington D.C. - New York City experience challenged our students to role play from the perspective of our founding fathers and how that impacts the legislators and judges who write and interpret laws of the land today.

From Capitol Hill to Ellis Island, students were introduced to the sacrifices and heritage of our great nation. Touring important national treasures such as Arlington National Cemetery, the Statue of Liberty, Gettysburg, and the Vietnam, Korean, and WWII Memorials further reinforced the themes of patriotism and sacrifice. This Eastern Historical Field Trip not only provided our students with a deeper understanding of US history, the consequences of choices, and of their role in shaping America's destiny, but it also provided them with lifelong memories with their eighth grade class before graduation in a few weeks.

The World Apostolate of Fatima
Invites you to join us for the Enrollment of the Brown Scapular

Tuesday, May 15
after the 5:30 p.m. Mass
St. Edward Church

On October 13, 1917, Mary made her final appearance at Fatima as our Lady of Mt. Carmel. According to Lucia, one of the three children, Mary held the Brown Scapular out from the sky "because she wants everyone to wear it." Lucia added, "As Pope Pius XII said, it is the sign of our consecration to her Immaculate Heart." The Brown Scapular is an instrument of faith, hope and love. It gives those beneath it the "feeling" of being beneath our Lady's Mantle...next to her heart. Despite our weaknesses, wearing the Brown Scapular makes us powerful instruments in Mary's hands for the conversion of sinners and unbelievers.

The Brown Scapular was first given by Mary to St. Simon Stock, superior of the Carmelite Order on July 16, 1251. Mary told him: "Receive the Brown Scapular. It is a pledge of salvation, a safeguard in danger."

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Orange provides a pre-need Planning Program for Catholic Families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options.

The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

For information on advance planning and the choices you have, please contact Mary Ellen Lohnes mlohn@rcbo.org (714) 393-1536
