A Pictorial History of St. Edward the Confessor

On December 11th, we will celebrate the 20th anniversary of the dedication of our current church. However, St. Edward the Confessor Church was founded almost 65 years ago in what is now San Felipe de Jesus Chapel. The upcoming renovation of our church serves as a opportune time to remember, honor and celebrate our parish's wonderful history.

Instead of compiling a long written history of the parish, we are going to chronicle our history with pictures and video. After all, a picture really is worth a thousand words. Therefore, I would like to encourage you to share pictures and videos which highlight important events and people in our parish. For example, baptisms, weddings, funerals, 1st Communion Masses, Easter and Christmas Masses, parish priests, and the construction, renovation, and dedication of the chapel, church, and school.

There is a particular need for pictures of the early years of the parish. If you know someone who might have pictures please contact them.

You may turn in your photos and/or videos to the parish office or email them to Gary Koupal at glkoupal@hotmail.com as soon as possible. If you have a large number of digital pictures, please save them on a USB drive or CD to give to the parish office. Place your photos, videos, CD and/or USB in an envelope with your name, phone number, email and address. Please write a very brief description of each picture or video to identify the event, when it took place, and the people in the picture.

Thank You,
Fr. Brendan

La historia ilustrada de San Eduardo el Confesor

El 11 de diciembre, celebraremos el 20 aniversario de la dedicación de la iglesia actual. Sin embargo, la iglesia de San Eduardo el Confesor fue fundada hace casi 65 años en lo que hoy es La capilla de San Felipe de Jesús. La próxima renovación de nuestra iglesia sirve como un momento oportuno para recordar, honrar y celebrar nuestra maravillosa historia de la parroquia.

En lugar de compilar una larga historia escrita de la parroquia, vamos hacer la crónica de nuestra historia con fotos y videos. Después de todo, una imagen vale más que mil palabras. Por lo tanto, me gustaría invitarlos a compartir fotos y videos de acontecimientos y personas importantes en nuestra parroquia. Por ejemplo, bautizos, bodas, funerales, misas primeras Comuniones, Semana Santa y Navidad, los sacerdotes de la parroquia, y la construcción, renovación, y la dedicación de la capilla, la iglesia y la escuela.

Hay una necesidad particular de fotografías de los primeros años de la parroquia. Si conoces a alguien que podría tener las imágenes por favor póngase en contacto con ellos.

Puede entregar sus fotos y / o videos a la oficina parroquial o enviarlas por correo electrónico a Gary Koupal a este correo:

glkoupal@hotmail.com tan pronto como sea posible. Si usted tiene un gran número de imágenes digitales, por favor guárdelas en una unidad USB o CD para dar a la oficina de la parroquia. Coloque sus fotos, videos, CD y / o USB en un sobre con su nombre, número de teléfono, correo electrónico y domicilio. Por favor escriba una breve descripción de cada foto o video para identificar el evento, cuando se llevó a cabo, y las personas en la imagen.

Gracias,
Padre Brendan

Dear brothers in the Lord,

In light of yesterday's announcement of the "deferred action" policy that will be enacted with regard to the deportation of undocumented immigrants, I am sending along to you the statement released by Bishop Jaime Soto, who is the current president of the California Catholic Conference. So many of us remember Bishop Soto here; for his dedication and ministry to so many people. I would ask you to please share this statement with your communities and those who have questions about our response.

I thank you for your pastoral care and concern for so many people here in our Diocese, especially our immigrant families who face so many challenges. This decision will provide some respite for some of these families and will gain relief from the threat of deportation. Just these past weeks I had dinner with, and spent the evening with one of these families.

At the same time, we need to continue to pray for and urge continued efforts for a truly sustainable and comprehensive solution through legislative action. Please don't hesitate to contact Greg Walgenbach at our office of Life, Justice and Peace if you have any further questions, or we can assist you in any way.

A very blessed Thanksgiving to you, your families and your parish communities. Thank you for your dedication and priestly ministry to the Body of Christ.

Gratefully yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Kevin W. Vann, J.C.D., D.D. Bishop of Orange

Gestión del Presidente en torno a la inmigración: Obispos renuevan llamamiento a favor de una reforma migratoria

SACRAMENTO, CA - El obispo Jaime Soto de Sacramento y presidente de la Conferencia Católica de California, publicó la siguiente declaración en torno a la Orden Ejecutiva del Presidente en relación a la inmigración:

"Hace mucho tiempo que en los Estados Unidos se debió realizar una reforma migratoria integral. Los Obispos de California reciben con beneplácito la gestión presidencial de ofrecer ayuda humanitaria para las familias de personas que trabajan arduamente y que han vivido en las sombras por demasiado tiempo.

"Como párrocos hemos presenciado de primera mano la innecesaria presión y sufrimiento que el sistema migratorio quebrantado ha provocado a nuestras comunidades. El respeto por la vida humana y la dignidad exigen que nuestros líderes nacionales pongan a las personas antes que a la política. Ellos deberían reformar el sistema migratorio, adhiriéndose a los principios firmes y tradicionales de la inmigración en Estados Unidos: la unidad familiar, la protección adecuada de nuestras fronteras, y la resolución de la causa del origen de la migración forzada. Una parte esencial de la solución debería incluir un programa de legalización que incluya un camino merecido que conduzca a la ciudadanía. —————>

President's Action on Immigration Will Help Families But Must Not Hamper Comprehensive Immigration Reform

SACRAMENTO, CA -- Bishop Jaime Soto of Sacramento and President of the California Catholic Conference, issued the following statement with regard to the President's Executive Action on immigration:

"Comprehensive immigration reform is long overdue in the United States. The Bishops of California welcome the President's action to offer some humanitarian relief for hard-working families who have lived in the shadows for too long.

"As pastors we witness firsthand the needless strain and pain the broken immigration system has inflicted on our communities. Respect for human life and dignity demands that our national leaders put people before politics. They should reform the immigration system, adhering to the traditional, sound principals of U.S. immigration: family unity, proper protection of our borders, and addressing the root cause of forced migration. An essential part of the solution should include a legalization program with an earned path to citizenship.

"We acknowledge that many will find some hope and peace-of-mind by this action. Parents and children will no longer live in fear of being separated. Growers and other employers will know their valued, productive employees are safe. Law enforcement will be able to work more closely with immigrant families to ensure the safety and tranquility of their communities. As we have done for many years through our Catholic Charities and other partners, we will continue to assist them in obtaining the benefits provided by law.

"We advise caution and patience while the details of the President's order are carefully evaluated. With time, we will understand how the order will be implemented. Be wary of any unscrupulous attempts to exploit unsuspecting immigrants by offering quick solutions.

"We call on Congress and the President to work together toward a more comprehensive response to the humanitarian crisis of a broken immigration system. We will work with the California Congressional delegation and the President to accomplish that goal."

"Reconocemos que muchas personas encontrarán cierta esperanza y tranquilidad por esta gestión. Los padres de familia y sus hijos ya no vivirán temerosos de que los separen. Los granjeros y otros empleadores sabrán que sus valiosos y productivos empleados estarán seguros. Los agentes del orden público podrán trabajar más de cerca con las familias de inmigrantes para asegurar la seguridad y la tranquilidad de sus comunidades. Como lo hemos estado haciendo por muchos años a través de nuestras Caridades Católicas y otras organizaciones que han sido nuestros socios, continuaremos asistiéndoles para que obtengan los beneficios que la ley les provee.

"Les aconsejamos que sean cautelosos y pacientes mientras que se evalúan cuidadosamente los detalles de la orden del Presidente. Con el tiempo, entenderemos cómo se implementará la orden. Desconfíe de los intentos de las personas sin escrúpulos para explotar a los inmigrantes incautos al ofrecerles soluciones rápidas.

"Hacemos un llamamiento al Congreso y al Presidente para que colaboren entre sí hacia una respuesta más integral a la crisis humanitaria de un sistema migratorio quebrantado. Trabajaremos con la delegación Congressional de California y el Presidente para lograr esa meta".

Galatians: Set Free to Live An Eight-Part Bible Study Featuring Jeff Cavins

Paul's letter to the Galatians speaks directly to the heart of Christians and addresses the most important question we can ask: "What must we do to be saved?" This fascinating letter reveals the merciful love that God the Father has for us, his children. It speaks of the extraordinary gift of salvation that Jesus has won for us, and it explains how we can unite ourselves to Christ's redeeming sacrifice through faith and love. Galatians is a study that will reignite your love for God as you learn of the astonishing love God has for you.
