Pentecost Sunday marks the culmination and end of our 50 days of Easter joy and also the beginning and “birth” of the Church.

According to the Gospel of Luke, the apostles gathered at the Mount of Olives 40 days after the resurrection and witnessed Christ’s glorious ascension into heaven. Afterward, they traveled to Jerusalem and met in the Upper Room where 120 people gathered including the eleven Apostles, together with some women, and Mary the mother of Jesus.

“And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.” (Lk 2:2-4).

That gathering at Pentecost was the first image and the perfect image of the church. The followers of Jesus – men and women of different cultures – together with the Apostles are empowered by the Holy Spirit. This inclusive and eclectic group of people is called the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church.

St. Paul would remind Christians that “to each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit” (1 Cor 12:7). “He gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.”

Among those to whom the manifestation of the Spirit has been given are women. Women have had a vital role in salvation history and the history of the church. Women were present and active throughout Jesus’ ministry, most notably at the Cross, the Resurrection, and Pentecost. They continue to shape the life of the church and our parish. During this month of May, we have been invited to deepen our love, veneration, and imitation of Mary through whom we received our Savior. Last weekend, on Mother’s Day, we blessed and honored our mothers who, like Mary, are our spiritual mothers. Today, we recognize, thank, and honor the women of our parish who make St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church a place where the divine life of God is so visible and vibrant.

Our Office of Faith Formation and our Parish School are the heart and soul of our parish for through these ministries the faith is passed on to children, teens, and adults. And who leads these ministries? Women. Our Director of Faith Formation, Donna Couch, all of her employees, and the majority of her volunteers are women. The Parish School is led by Dr. Cathy Muzzy and three female Vice Principals, in partnership with our classroom teachers and aides that are mostly women. Our Director of Parish Ministries, Joan Fleming, supports hundreds of parish volunteers, the majority of whom are women, who in turn serve the church at every turn.

The ministries of the church could not exist without a dedicated and competent Business Office which has been led by Barbara Belavic for 20 years and her staff of 3 women. Finally, Millie Estrada, our Office Manager, works on the “front lines” of the parish with three part-time employees (all women) who are the first people that parishioners and visitors encounter.

In total, approximately 90% of our staff positions here at St. Edward the Confessor (Church and School) are filled by women serving you and your family each and every day of the year. Their commitment and dedication is second to none and we are very fortunate to have them on our Parish staff team.

Like the first church at Pentecost, St. Edward the Confessor Church is a people and place filled with the many manifestations of the Holy Spirit made present by the men, women and young people of our parish who build up this Body of Christ we call the church, we call home.

Today, I wish to express my gratitude to all the women of the parish who manifest the power of the Holy Spirit and enrich the church.

Through Mary’s intercession,
Fr. Brendan Manson

OC Catholic Book Club Author Focus Series Event with Ryan T. Anderson

What: Join us for our Spring OC Catholic Book Club Author Focus Series event where we explore one of most confounding issues being discussed in the public square today - transgenderism. Our guest will be acclaimed author and theologian Ryan T. Anderson. He will share his new book "When Harry Became Sally: Responding to the Transgender Moment" and engage a thoughtful conversation on gender identity.

When Harry Became Sally provides thoughtful answers to questions arising from our transgender moment. Drawing on the best insights from biology, psychology, and philosophy, Ryan Anderson offers a nuanced view of human embodiment, a balanced approach to public policy on gender identity, and a sober assessment of the human costs of getting human nature wrong.

WHEN:
June 6, 2018 at 6:30 p.m.

WHERE:
Christ Cathedral
13280 Chapman Ave.
