Celebration Moments

Every Wednesday morning I participate in a Construction Meeting: the contractor, the project manager, the architect, the business manager, and other involved persons take part along with me. It is a weekly opportunity to look at what has been accomplished so far, what is planned for the near future, and in general and specific terms how the project is going. I learn a lot at these meetings.

Among the things that we track during the weekly Construction Meetings are what we call “celebration moments.” These are special events that energize the whole community of St. Edward the Confessor and San Felipe de Jesús: times of rejoicing and giving thanks for the great building project that is unfolding before our eyes. In the past, such celebration moments included the Groundbreaking ceremony on June 19, 2021; the opening of the Narthex on Christmas Eve, and the signing of steel beams that became part of the structure of our Pastoral Center. This week we have another great celebration moment: the installation and blessing of the amazing stained glass window in our beautiful narthex.

This has me thinking: do we track “celebration moments” in the rest of our life? Might that be a special way of cultivating a spirit of joy and gratitude? To be sure, every morning is a celebration moment, as the Lord gives to us another day of life. Every Holy Communion is a celebration moment, as the Incarnate Son of God becomes our spiritual food. And I could list many other such possible moments. Instead, I invite you to make your own list and then keep track of those moments, so that your life will be punctuated by special times of joy and gratitude.

Momentos de Celebración

Todos los miércoles por la mañana asisto a una Reunión de Construcción: el contratista, el gerente del proyecto, el arquitecto, el gerente comercial y otras personas involucradas participan en esta reunión junto conmigo. Es una oportunidad para ver lo que se ha logrado hasta ahora, lo que se planea para el futuro cercano y, en términos generales y específicos, cómo va el proyecto. Aprendo mucho en estas reuniones.

Entre las cosas que hablamos durante las Reuniones de Construcción semanales están lo que llamamos “momentos de celebración”. Son eventos especiales que llenan de energía a toda la comunidad de San Eduardo el Confesor y San Felipe de Jesús: momentos de regocijo y acción de gracias por el gran proyecto de construcción que se desarrolla ante nuestros ojos. En el pasado, tales momentos de celebración incluyeron la ceremonia de inauguración el 19 de junio de 2021; la apertura del Nártex en Nochebuena, y la firma de vigas que pasaron a formar parte de la estructura de nuestro Centro Pastoral. Esta semana tenemos otro gran momento de celebración: la instalación y bendición del vitral en nuestro hermoso nártex.

Esto me hace pensar: ¿hacemos un seguimiento de los “momentos de celebración” el resto de nuestra vida? ¿esta podría ser esa una forma de cultivar un espíritu de alegría y gratitud? Sin duda, cada mañana es un momento de celebración, ya que el Señor nos regala un día más de vida. Cada Sagrada Comunión es un momento de celebración, ya que el Hijo de Dios Encarnado se convierte en nuestro alimento espiritual. Y posiblemente podría enumerar muchos otros momentos. En cambio, los invito a hacer su propia lista y luego hacer un seguimiento de esos momentos, para que su vida esté marcada por momentos especiales de alegría y gratitud.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

Lauren and Jacob Fraher (daughter and son-in-law of St. Edward Parishioner Christe Rognich) along with their four children are departing for Kenya on March 31, 2022 for three-months of volunteer service with World Gospel Mission. The Frahers will be serving at Mustard Seed House near Tenwek Hospital to provide accommodation and distinctly Christian care to ease the hardship of children's illness on impoverished families. Please pray for the Frahers as they pack and prepare their hearts for this journey, and for the African families experiencing and hearing the love of Christ at Mustard Seed House.
