¡Felices Pascuas!

My first Easter Mass as a priest was celebrated in Spanish ten years ago. I remember people greeting me on Easter Sunday saying “Felices Pascuas”, literally translated, Happy Easters (not Feliz Pascua: happy Easter). I barely spoke or understood Spanish so I assumed I didn’t hear them correctly so I asked why they were saying “happy Easters”. They responded, perplexed why I, their priest, didn’t understand, “because Easter is 50 days, Father, hence, Felices Pascuas. It is clearly a lesson I’ve never forgotten. Although Easter Sunday is behind us we are merely beginning the season of Easter, 50 days of Joy.

At the Easter Vigils at St. Edward and San Felipe de Jesus, 50 men, women, and children were fully initiated into the Catholic Church. Congratulations! During these next 50 days, over 200 hundred of our parish children will receive their 1st Holy Communion and more than 200 teens adults will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

From Holy Thursday to the last Mass on Easter Sunday we celebrated 14 liturgies. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude to the parish staff and our parishioners who so generously gave their time to make our Triduum liturgies beautiful, reverent, and joyful encounters of Jesus Christ. Many parishioners sacrificed time with their own families to serve our parish family which welcomed over 10,000 people on Easter Sunday alone. Most of the 10,000 people came to be served; however, more than 400 parish volunteers came to serve. Thank you. What a great example of stewardship.

These are some of the volunteers and ministries that were involved in our Holy Week liturgies: Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, ushers, altar servers, lectors, sacristans, decorators for the church, parish hall, and chapel, MC for Triduum liturgies, Altar Guild, Stedcast operators, projector operators, controller of lights for the Easter Vigil, cantors, choir, musicians, RCIA team, catechists, Faith Formation 2020 team which put together the 50 Days of Glory cards and video.

The Easter Season lasts 50 Days! We invite you to celebrate each day of JOY by receiving our daily reflections by texting “stedward” to “84576”

On one occasion, I heard these words:

My daughter, tell the whole world about My Inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. (Diary #699)

Turn Your TAXABLE RMD
(Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

This provision may be especially attractive for retirees who don't need all the income from their IRA to meet current living expenses. By donating the money to your charity, you can enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that you are contributing to a worthy cause while effectively lowering your tax bill.
