Full of Grace

When the Angel Gabriel spoke to the Virgin Mary at the Annunciation, the angel greeted her with the words, "Hail, full of grace." When we repeat these words in one of our best-known Catholic prayers, we add her name: "Hail, Mary, full of grace." The fact that the angel did not use her name does not diminish the greeting given to Mary; it simply shows us the key to her identity: she was filled with the life and love of God.

The Easter Season gives special emphasis to the reality of our Baptism, since it is the cornerstone of our identity as Christians. In Baptism the life and love of God enters us in a particularly strong way, making us "full of grace." As Christians, we have a special relationship with God and also with everyone who shares the life of grace. This includes a special relationship with the Virgin Mary.

Are we still full of grace? Well, we are not perfect. We do our best to cultivate the life of grace God gives us. As we do so, it is only right that we look to Mary, who is the Mother of all Christians. The month of May is especially dedicated to her, so this is a good time to remind ourselves that the Mother of Christ is our mother as well. She looks out for us and prays to her Son with us and for us. Pray an extra "Hail Mary" every now and then during this month as a powerful expression of faith that our holy Mother prays for us "now and at the hour of our death."

Llena de Gracia

Cuando el ángel Gabriel le habló a la Virgen María en la Anunciación, el ángel la saludó con las palabras: "Salve, llena eres de gracia". Cuando repetimos estas palabras en una de las oraciones católicas más conocidas, añadimos su nombre: "Ave, María, llena eres de gracia". El hecho de que el ángel no usara su nombre no disminuye el saludo dado a María; simplemente nos muestra la clave de su identidad: estaba llena de la vida y del amor de Dios.

El Tiempo Pascual da especial énfasis a la realidad de nuestro Bautismo, ya que es la piedra angular de nuestra identidad como cristianos. En el bautismo, la vida y el amor de Dios entran en nosotros de una manera particularmente fuerte, haciéndonos "llenos de gracia". Como cristianos, tenemos una relación especial con Dios y también con todos los que comparten la vida de la gracia. Esto incluye una relación especial con la Virgen María.

¿Estamos todavía llenos de gracia? Bueno, no somos perfectos. Hacemos nuestro mejor esfuerzo para cultivar la vida de gracia que Dios nos da. Al hacerlo, es justo que miremos a María, que es la Madre de todos los cristianos. El mes de mayo está especialmente dedicado a ella, por lo que este es un buen momento para recordarnos que la Madre de Cristo es nuestra madre también. Ella mira por nosotros y ora a su Hijo con nosotros y por nosotros. Reza un "Avemaría" adicional de vez en cuando durante este mes como una poderosa expresión de fe de que nuestra santa Madre reza por nosotros "ahora y en la hora de nuestra muerte".

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

Haydn Mass

5:30pm Saturday, May 20 & 11am Sunday, May 21

Missa brevis Sancti Joannis de Deo

Join us for this special Mass: "Missa brevis Sancti Joannis de Deo" written by Franz Joseph Haydn Joseph Haydn (1732-1809) is known for his compositions capturing humor and reverence. He composed the Missa brevis in Honor of Saint John of God for the Hospitaller Brothers whose mission was dedicated to the healing and sick of the poor. It was first played in their hospital chapel in Austria, and captures not only the qualities of this humor and reverence, but of compassion and charity as well – trademarks of the Hospitaller Brothers. Both Masses will be accompanied by the choir, soloists and the orchestra.

A light reception will follow Mass on May 20th only.

SYNODALITY AT ST. EDWARD #3

Are all parishes and dioceses participating in the synodality process? No. Despite the call by Pope Francis for all bishops, dioceses, parishes, and lay Catholics, to join in this renewal of the Church as a listening church, there are people who are uncomfortable with change or feel that this process threatens their authority.

As Pope Francis says, we are all travelling on a journey of faith together. Even in the hierarchical structure of the Catholic Church, the Church is ultimately led by the Holy Spirit and the Holy Spirit speaks to all of us, not just some of us.

As we listen and learn, we will be able to share with our bishop, the US Conference of Bishops, and the Vatican, the things we have heard from the people of Dana Point. Things that can help the Pope and the gathering synods in Rome to better minister to a Church that experiencing losses around the world.

The new synods called together by Pope Francis will, for the first time in centuries, include ordinary priests, scholars, theologians, lay people and most significantly, many women, all of whom will have a voice in the synods.

As Cardinal McElroy, bishop of San Diego said recently, something he learned from the synodality meetings in his parishes was the enthusiasm of the laity in being heard and being asked to be heard! Now it's your turn.

If you have specific questions or want to know who is on the Synodality Committee, you can make your inquiry to stedwardlistens@gmail.com.
