The Sacramental Life

This time of the year is busy in our parish in a very wonderful way: the sacramental life of our parishioners is growing by leaps and bounds. Over 25 persons have received (or are receiving) the three Sacraments of Initiation, Baptism, Confirmation, and First Communion. A great number of young people are getting ready for their First Communion, which will take place soon. Over 120 teenagers have received the sacrament of Confirmation. A good number of adults are preparing for their Confirmation on Pentecost Sunday (May 28th). Meanwhile, daily Masses, regular Confessions, Marriages, and Anointings of the Sick are taking place as always.

All of this reminds us that the sacramental life is the very heart of the Church. It is through the sacraments that the grace of God (a share in his own life) and the powerful, loving touch of Christ come to us. If your own reception of the sacraments has in any way been hindered, this is a good time to bring it back. If your reception of the sacraments, especially Reconciliation and Eucharist, is already a regular occurrence in your life, this is a good time to renew your thanks for these sacred opportunities to grow closer to the Lord.

As we continue to celebrate the resurrection of Christ, we rejoice that he is alive and among us, and that he touches us in every sacrament we receive.

La Vida Sacramental

Durante esta época del año nuestra parroquia está muy ocupada de una manera maravillosa: la vida sacramental de nuestros feligreses está creciendo a pasos agigantados. Más de 25 personas han recibido (o van a recibir) los tres Sacramentos de iniciación, el Bautismo, la Confirmación y Primera Comunión. Un gran número de jóvenes se preparan para la Primera Comunión, que se realizará próximamente. Más de 120 adolescentes han recibido el sacramento de la Confirmación. Un buen número de adultos se están preparando para su Confirmación el domingo de Pentecostés (el 28 de mayo). Mientras tanto, como siempre Misas diarias, Confesiones, Matrimonios y Unciones de los Enfermos se llevan a cabo regularmente.

Todo esto nos recuerda que la vida sacramental es el corazón mismo de la Iglesia. Es a través de los sacramentos que nos llega la gracia de Dios (que es la participación en su propia vida) y el toque poderoso y amoroso de Cristo. Si su propia recepción de los sacramentos se ha visto obstaculizada de alguna manera, este es un buen momento para recuperarlo. Si la recepción de los sacramentos, especialmente la Reconciliación y la Eucaristía, ya es algo habitual en su vida, este es un buen momento para renovar su agradecimiento por estas sagradas oportunidades de acercarse al Señor.

A medida que continuamos celebrando la resurrección de Cristo, nos regocijamos de que está vivo y entre nosotros, y que nos toca en cada sacramento que recibimos.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

Haydn Mass

5:30pm Saturday, May 20 & 11am Sunday, May 21

Missa brevis Sancti Joannis de Deo

Join us for this special Mass: "Missa brevis Sancti Joannis de Deo" written by Franz Joseph Haydn. Joseph Haydn (1732-1809) is known for his compositions capturing humor and reverence. He composed the Missa brevis in Honor of Saint John of God for the Hospitaller Brothers whose mission was dedicated to the healing and sick of the poor. It was first played in their hospital chapel in Austria, and captures not only the qualities of this humor and reverence, but of compassion and charity as well – trademarks of the Hospitaller Brothers. Both Masses will be accompanied by the choir, soloists and the orchestra.

A light reception will follow Mass on May 20th only.

SYNODALITY AT ST. EDWARD #2

Last week, we briefly mentioned that the process of synodality has two components: traveling together as members of the Body of Christ; listening to each other without regard to status or position or in judgment.

Our goal is to join millions of Catholics around the world who are working to return the Church to a listening Church. A Church that hears the voices of the People of God in order to find ways to be more understanding of the enormous diversity of people within the Church.

Within our Church there are the divorced and remarried, LGBTQ Catholics, "soccer parents", handicapped, single parents and so forth. There are also those who are comfortable in their faith, attend Mass, yet still have questions about the faith and our practices as Catholics.

As an example: like most faiths today, we are seeing a tremendous drop in attendance at Mass by the youth and young adults. In meeting with those individuals, we want to listen to them to find out what their reasons are for not coming to Mass or no longer being practicing Catholics.

A listening Church informs the pope and bishops and baptized Christians everywhere to the spiritual needs of all of us and does not try to put everyone in one box. As the People of God, we must all be heard, we must all be respected.

If you have specific questions or want to know who is on the Synodality Committee, you can make your inquiry to stedwardlistens@gmail.com

FAITH FORMATION

We invite you to become a Catechist because ...we know you can!

Excuse No. 1: I don't know enough.

You don't have to know it all and we'll train you!

Excuse No. 2: Kids are scary, and they bite. Plus I'm not holy enough.

None of us are holy enough, and none of us can be holy enough, not on our own.

Excuse No. 3: I'm not a public speaker.

Can you talk to your family at dinner? Do you read to your kids before bed? Have you ever told a joke to a group of friends?

Can you hear the Lord calling you to serve as a Catechist? Join us!

 Grant us the grace to live joyfully, to serve selflessly and to give generously as

 Help us to grow closer to you each day,
 so that we can recognize your abundant

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION Origins

On June 13, 1917, when she appeared to three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, the Most Holy Mother of God told Lucia dos Santos, "Jesus wishes to make use of you to make me known and loved. He wants to establish in the world devotion to my Immaculate Heart. I promise salvation to those who embrace it, and these souls will be loved by God like flowers placed by me to adorn His throne."

Come Pray the Rosary with us following
8:15 mass the 1st Saturday of Every Month
