How is it Going?

How is your Advent season going so far? The liturgy of this season is a rich source of inspiration: themes include watchfulness, conversion, and joyful hope. Entering into the spirit of this season is the best way to have a good Christmas. If you have not been doing anything special for Advent, it's not too late to start. If you have begun some Advent observance, now is a good time to take stock of how things are going.

This year I am especially focused on Advent as a season of joyful hope. We know how the story ends: Christ will come to us because he already came to earth over 2000 years ago. Our Advent wreath in the church (and perhaps in your homes) gives us a visible sign of the approaching light of Christ's presence. Our upcoming Noel Night will be yet another occasion for joyful hope, as the true meaning of this season bursts into song. Another source of joy for me is the recollection of the Advent seasons of my youth, which were filled with special traditions and practices.

As you know, I like to listen to music while I am working in my office. These days, I often bring one of my many Christmas albums, and the seasonal music helps me cultivate Advent joy. My daily Advent prayer time is an even more important way to maintain the spirit of the season. I hope you are making time each day for extra prayer as well, and I hope we will all continue to cultivate the Advent spirit of joyful hope all the way to Christmas Eve.

¿Cómo le Va Hasta Ahora?

¿Cómo le va hasta ahora en esta temporada de Adviento? La liturgia de este tiempo es una rica fuente de inspiración: los temas incluyen la vigilancia, la conversión y la esperanza llena de gozo. Entrar en el espíritu de esta época es la mejor manera de pasar una buena Navidad. Si usted hasta ahora no ha hecho nada especial para el Adviento, no es demasiado tarde para empezar. Si ha comenzado alguna tradición de Adviento, ahora es un buen momento para hacer una reflexión de cómo van las cosas.

Este año estoy especialmente concentrado en el Adviento como un tiempo de esperanza gozosa. Ya sabemos cómo termina la historia: Cristo vendrá a nosotros porque ya vino a la tierra hace más de 2000 años. Nuestra corona de Adviento en la iglesia (y quizás también en sus hogares) nos da una señal visible de la luz que se acerca en la presencia de Cristo. La próxima ocasión para celebrar con gozo y esperanza será el concierto Navideño; Noel Night que estallará en una canción. Otra fuente de alegría para mí es el recuerdo de los tiempos de Adviento de mi juventud, que estuvieron llenos de tradiciones y momentos especiales.

Como ustedes ya saben, me gusta escuchar música mientras estoy trabajando en mi oficina. En estos días, a menudo traigo uno de mis álbumes navideños, y la música de la temporada me ayuda a cultivar la alegría del Adviento. Mi tiempo personal diario de oración de Adviento es una forma aún más importante de mantener el espíritu de la temporada. Espero que ustedes también estén haciendo un tiempo cada día para orar más, y espero que todos sigamos cultivando el espíritu de Adviento y gozosa esperanza hasta la víspera de la Navidad.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

The Advent Season - Week 2

REV. JOSEPH SQUILLACIOTI, S.T.L.

This week's First Reading and Gospel focus on the prophecy of Isaiah and its fulfillment in John the Baptist. The connection between old and new, Isaiah and John work well with the imagery put forth in the Rod of Jesse and the Key of David. They show first the lineage prophesied by Isaiah and role of the Messiah in salvation along with his binding and loosing as the "Key" of David.

O come thou Rod of Jesse's stem...

This verse gives us an allusion to the history lesson surrounding Jesse (the father of King David) as part of the Davidic Kingdom from which Christ was born. During the Babylonian Exile, the Davidic Kingdom was destroyed. As with any tree which is cut down to the stump, the root continues to live. From this root or family, (Rod of Jesse, O Radix Jesse) a Saviour shall be born. This root for us becomes the Virgin Mary from which its flower (Christ Jesus) comes forth.

O Flower of Jesse's stem, you have been raised up as a sign for all peoples; kings stand silent in your presence; the nations bow down in worship before you. Come, let nothing keep you from coming to our aid.

Isaiah gave this prophecy: But a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom. (Isaiah 11:1), and On that day, the root of Jesse, set up as a signal for the nations, the Gentiles shall seek out, for his dwelling shall be glorious. (Isaiah 11:10). Remember also that Jesse was the father of King David, and Micah had prophesied that the Messiah would be of the house and lineage of David and be born in David's city, Bethlehem (Micah 5:1).

O come thou Key of David, come...

With the Key of David, the Clavis David, we see not the lineage of the Messiah coming from the root Jesse through the kingship of David, but the function of this Messiah. The Messiah in this verse as described by Isaiah has a binding and loosing function. The power of Christ as a deliverer from death and the devil is evident. We pray in this time that this "Key" comes to lead us out of captivity and our prisons of sin, and take us out of the shadow of death.

O Key of David, O royal Power of Israel controlling at your will the gate of Heaven: Come, break down the prison walls of death for those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death; and lead your captive people into freedom.

Prophesied by Isaiah: I will place the Key of the House of David on His shoulder; when he opens, no one will shut, when he shuts, no one will open. (Isaiah 22:22), and His dominion is vast and forever peaceful, from David's throne, and over His kingdom, which he confirms and sustains by judgment and justice, both now and forever. (Isaiah 9:6).

As the Root of Jesse brings forth the blossoming bud- the Messiah, the Virgin Mary as the Root of Jesse, brings forth the Blossom of her womb, Jesus the Christ.

Help our parish support Border Compassion, a humanitarian response to families living at the Posada del Migrante Shelter in Mexicali. Founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph, Border Compassion provides comfort and witness to asylum seekers who have fled life-threatening civil and gang violence, extreme poverty and climate disasters to find safe refuge in the United States.

How You Can Help

Join St. Edward's Catholic Social Justice Ministry and Sister Suzanne Jabro, CSJ, to visit the Mexicali shelter, December 16-17. We will drive down to Calexico on Friday, Dec 16, cross the border to Mexicali on Saturday, Dec 17 to visit the shelter, which houses some 300 people, then return home.

Or

Stop by the tables to make your donations and see examples of what will be purchased for families awaiting asylum. Items include food, essential clothing, medicines and hygiene supplies. Checks should be made out to Border Compassion.
