Welcome, Fr. Armando!

I was born and raised in the desert area of Sonora, Mexico. As a child, I found I had a talent for art and I wanted to develop that talent as a life career. As time passed, my heart would pull me in another direction. But, I continued to focus on art as a career, even when somehow I knew there was another life path for me. At 25, I realized I had a calling from God, and I surrendered myself to Him. I began to recognize that this calling had been there since my childhood in many ways and I entered the seminary. The soft voice of God touched my heart and I listened. I joined a young-adult group in my parish and talked with my pastor. That conversation was a turning point and a vocational retreat confirmed my new direction.

The doubts that used to haunt me began to vanish once I made the choice God had put in my path. Thanks to the continued assistance of my spiritual directors, the priests in charge of formation, and through my personal moments of adoration and the prayers of many people who supported me, I realized and confirmed my choice again in God's direction.

In spite of this awareness, in 1997, I left the Seminary of Tijuana and moved to California to continue my art studies. Providentially, I lived and worked in a church as coordinator of the Hispanic Community. God, who was guiding my steps all along, called me again while I was working there. In 1998, I joined the Congregation of the Missionaries of the Holy Spirit. With them, I finished my theology studies at Mt. Angel Seminary in Oregon.

Through prayer and spiritual guidance, I realized that my calling was not to religious life but to diocesan. So, in November 2000, I arrived at the Diocese of Orange. Bishop Brown assigned me to the Church of St. Joseph in Santa Ana, where I began my Internship, which I concluded at Holy Family Cathedral in Orange. It was on June 7, 2003, I fulfilled my destiny and I was ordained as a Priest of Christ.

My first assignment was at St. Boniface in Anaheim where I served for four years. My second position was at the Mission Basilica San Juan Capistrano where I had the privilege of serving God's people for another four years. The Holy Spirit called me to continue in my ministry life serving in the parish of St. Mary's in Fullerton for three years. Now a new chapter of my life brings me to the community of St. Edward and San Felipe de Jesus Chapel where I will continue to serve Jesus Christ and the community.

I pray daily to our Lord, through his blessed Mother, to continue to give me the wisdom, love, and zeal to serve you. God bless us all.

Fr. Armando Virrey

National Natural Family Planning Awareness Week

July 20-26, 2014 is National Natural Family Planning Awareness Week. The dates of this week highlight the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) which articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality, conjugal love and responsible parenthood. The dates also mark the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of the Blessed Mother.

Natural Family Planning (NFP) is a way of following God's plan for achieving and/or avoiding pregnancy using the physical means that God has built into human nature. NFP has no harmful physical side effects. It fosters authentic marital love, respect, honesty, and couple communication. It also fosters trust in God and an authentic marital spirituality that deepens the couple's relationship with Christ and his Church. NFP, when used properly, is "marriage insurance." Surveys indicate couples who practice NFP have a practically non-existent divorce rate. This is because practicing NFP fosters those very same virtues that are necessary for a healthy marriage.

For more information about NFP, visit www.rcbo.org/services/family-services/natural-family-planning.html

Bienvenido Padre Armando!

Nací y crecí en la zona del desierto de Sonora, México. Cuando era niño, me di cuenta que tenía talento para el arte y yo quería desarrollar ese talento haciendo una carrera basada en eso. A medida que pasaba el tiempo, mi corazón se fue por otra dirección. Pero, continué mi carrera por el camino del arte, aunque de alguna manera yo sabía que había otro camino para mí. A los 25 años, me di cuenta que tenía un llamado de Dios, y me entregué a él. Empecé a reconocer que este llamado había estado allí desde mi infancia de muchas maneras y entré al Seminario. La suave voz de Dios tocó mi corazón y escuche su llamado. Me uní a un grupo de jóvenes de oración en mi parroquia y hablé con el párroco. Esa conversación fue el punto de reflexión al igual que el vivir un retiro vocacional confirmó mi nueva dirección.

Las dudas que solían atormentarme comenzaron a desaparecer una vez que acepte a Dios y lo que él había puesto en mi camino. Gracias a la asistencia continua de mis directores espirituales, los sacerdotes encargados de la formación, los momentos personales que estuve en adoración y la oración de muchas personas que me apoyaron, me di cuenta y confirme una vez más lo que Dios quería de mí.

A pesar de estar consciente de esto en el año de 1997, me salí del Seminario de Tijuana y me mudé a California para continuar mis estudios de arte. Providencialmente, viví y trabajé en una iglesia como coordinador de la comunidad hispana. Dios, que guiaba mi pasos todo el tiempo, me llamó otra vez mientras yo estaba trabajando allí. En 1998, me uní a la Congregación de los Misioneros del Espíritu Santo. Con ellos, concluí mis estudios de teología el Seminario de Mt. Angel en Oregon.

A través de la oración y dirección espiritual, me di cuenta que mi vocación no era la vida religiosa, sino la vida diocesana. Así, que en noviembre del 2000, llegué a la Diócesis de Orange. El obispo Brown me asignó a la Iglesia de San José, en Santa Ana, donde comencé como asistente, y concluí en la Catedral de La Sagrada Familia en la ciudad de Orange. Era el 7 de junio del 2003, cuando finalmente cumplí mi destino y fui ordenado sacerdote de Cristo.

Mi primer trabajo fue en San Bonifacio en Anaheim donde serví durante cuatro años. Mi segunda posición fue en la Basílica de la Misión San Juan Capistrano, donde tuve el privilegio de servir al pueblo de Dios por otros cuatro años. El Espíritu Santo me llamo a servir en este ministerio en la parroquia de St. Mary en Fullerton durante tres años. Ahora, comienza un nuevo capítulo en mi vida ahora el Espíritu Santo me lleva a la comunidad de San Eduardo y de San Felipe de Jesús donde continúo sirviendo a Jesucristo y la comunidad.

Rezo todos los días al Señor, para que a través de su bendita Madre, me siga llenando de sabiduría, amor y vigor para servir.

Dios los bendiga.

Semana Nacional de Planificación Familiar Natural

Del 20 al 26 julio 2014 es la Semana Nacional de Concientización sobre la planificación familiar natural.

Las fechas de esta semana destacan el aniversario de la encíclica papal Humanae Vitae (25 de julio), que articula las creencias católicas sobre la sexualidad humana, el amor conyugal y la paternidad responsable. Las fechas también marcan la fiesta de los Santos Joaquín y Ana (26 de julio), los padres de la Santísima Madre. Planificación Familiar Natural (PFN) es una manera de seguir el plan de Dios para alcanzar y / o evitar el embarazo usando los medios físicos que Dios ha integrado en la naturaleza humana. PFN no tiene efectos secundarios físicos dañinos. Fomenta el auténtico amor conyugal, el respeto, la honestidad y la comunicación de la pareja. También fomenta la confianza en Dios y una espiritualidad conyugal auténtico que se profundiza la relación de pareja con Cristo y su Iglesia. PFN, cuando se utiliza correctamente, es un "seguro del matrimonio." Las encuestas indican parejas que practican la PNF tienen una tasa de divorcio prácticamente inexistente. Esto se debe a la práctica de la PFN fomenta esas mismas virtudes que son necesarias para un matrimonio saludable.

Can 6 Days Change Your Life?

Absolutely, if you can spare 6 days to experience a spiritually filled missionary trip to Jamaica. Come join Fr. Brendan and fellow parishioners October 13th to October 18th, 2014 to share in the missionary life of the Missionaries of the Poor (M.O.P.), a Catholic order of brothers and priests. We will pray and work with them to answer Jesus' call to "Serve the least of my brethren." Once a year members of St. Edwards set out on a pilgrimage to work side by side with the brothers in their apostolic centers caring for the truly needy and forgotten. Come share your gift of love with handicapped children, elderly men and women all who had been abandoned and left on the streets to die. We have space for 20 people to be a part of this life changing experience. The work is simple and sometimes hard, but the rewards will be beyond your expectations. All it takes is a valid passport, the price of a round trip ticket to Kingston, (currently $600) and the ability to ascend and descend three flights of stairs to the visitor's living quarters.

Ask the Lord if this is the year to take a different kind of trip, one that will offer the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in the poor and come away with freshly enriched spirituality. If you are interested and would like more information leave your name and phone number at the church front office (949) 496-1307. In turn, Linda or I will give you a call and answer any questions. There will also be an orientation meeting held in the near future, watch for the announcement in the bulletin. To learn more about the Missionaries of the Poor you can also checkout their website: www.missionariesofthepoor.org. May the peace of Christ be with you,

Deacon Al and Linda Scaduto

6 Días Pueden Cambiar Tu Vida?

Por supuesto que si, tiene usted 6 días para experimentar un viaje misionero lleno de espiritualidad? Venga y acompañe al Padre Brendan y a otros feligreses del 13 de octubre al 18 de octubre 2014 para compartir en la vida misionera de los Misioneros de los Pobres (MOP), una orden católica de hermanos y sacerdotes. Vamos a orar y trabajar con ellos para responder a la llamada de Jesús de "Servir al más pequeño de mis hermanos." Una vez al año, los miembros de San Eduardo emprenden un peregrinaje para trabajar mano a mano con nuestros hermanos en los centros apostólicos cuidado a los mas necesitados y olvidados. Venga a compartir su regalo de amor con los niños discapacitados, ancianos y mujeres aquellos que han sido abandonados y dejados en las calles a morir. Solo tenemos espacio para 20 personas, sea parte de esta experiencia que cambiara su vida. El trabajo es simple y, a veces duro, pero la recompensa será más allá de sus expectativas. Sólo se necesita tener un pasaporte válido, el precio de su boleto de avión de ida y vuelta a Kingston, Jamaica es (actualmente $600 dólares) y la capacidad de subir y bajar tres tramos de escaleras hasta la vivienda donde esta localizado este monasterio.

Pregúntele en oración al Señor si este es el tiempo indicado para hacer un viaje diferente, uno que le ofrecerá la oportunidad de ver el rostro de Jesús en los pobres y donde podrá salir con su espíritu enriquecido. Si usted está interesado y desea obtener más información deje su nombre y número de teléfono en la oficina principal de la iglesia (949) 496-1307. Mi esposa Linda o yo le llamaremos y contestaremos cualquier pregunta o duda que usted tenga. También habrá una reunión de orientación que tendrá lugar en un futuro próximo, y habrá anuncios en el boletín.

Para conocer más acerca de los Misioneros de los Pobres (MOP), valla a la página web al: www.missionariesofthepoor.org. Que la paz de Cristo esté con ustedes,

OPERATION CHRISTMAS SPIRIT 2014

Last year, we at the Office of Restorative Justice/Detention Ministry passed out over 6,000 Christmas cards with stamped envelopes to inmates and minors incarcerated in the Orange County jails and juvenile facilities.

To keep the Spirit alive this year we are in need of more Christmas cards and "Forever" stamps. Please ensure the cards reflect our love for Jesus through the celebration of His holy birth. Cards must be store bought, paper ONLY! (NO foil, glitter or any other sparkly materials)

Please help us bring the Christmas spirit to these men, women, minors, their families and loved ones by donating Christmas cards and "Forever" stamps. We request cards by August 31. Please mail or bring the cards and stamps to us at: Office of Restorative Justice/Catholic Detention Ministry
1820 W. Orangewood Ave., Suite 101
Orange CA 92868

Your generous support is greatly appreciated. For more information about us, check out our web site; www.rcbo.org/restore
