In the Presence of the Eucharist

As you know, on Sunday, December 1, at 7:00 pm we will have a special Advent prayer service that will usher in a fifty-hour period of Eucharistic Adoration. We will celebrate our Golden Anniversary as a parish by praying one hour for each year of our parish's existence. As you spend a few minutes (or maybe more) in the presence of the Eucharist, what should you do?

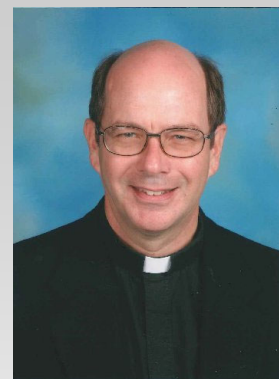

The first answer to this question is that you do not have to do anything. It is enough just to be in the presence of the Lord. To quiet your thoughts and look at the Eucharist, and realize you are with Christ and he is with you, is a wonderful way to pray.

If you prefer something more active, the best prayers to say are in your own words, telling the Lord whatever you want to share with him. If you prefer to use prayers that are already written, there are many prayer books available, and many people like to use a free app called "Laudate." The important thing to remember when we are using prepared prayers is to make the prayers our own, pausing to meditate whenever a thought strikes us, and rewording the prayer whenever a different choice of words comes to us.

If you have a Bible with you, you might want to read through the sixth chapter of John's gospel. You could also pray from the book of Psalms, which contain prayers for almost every circumstance of life. Another prayer that comes from Scripture is the Rosary; it is important to meditate on the mysteries of the Rosary as we recite the words of the prayers.

"Master, it is good for us to be here!" (Mk. 9:5) I hope and pray that this will be your reaction to spending time with Our Lord in the Eucharist. And let's remember to pray for each other!

Gratefully yours,
Fr. Philip

En presencia de la Eucaristía

Como saben, el domingo 1 de diciembre, a las 7:00 pm, tendremos un servicio especial de oración de Adviento que marcará el comienzo de un período de cincuenta horas de Adoración Eucarística. Celebraremos nuestro aniversario de oro como parroquia rezando una hora por cada año de existencia de nuestra parroquia. A medida que pasa unos minutos (o tal vez más) en presencia de la Eucaristía, ¿qué debe hacer?

La primera respuesta a esta pregunta es que no tiene que hacer nada. Es suficiente estar en la presencia del Señor. Calmar tus pensamientos y mirar la Eucaristía, y darte cuenta de que estás con Cristo y que él está contigo, es una manera maravillosa de orar.

Si prefiere algo más activo, las mejores oraciones son las que decimos con el corazón usando nuestras propias palabras, diciéndole al Señor lo que esta en su corazón. Si prefiere usar oraciones que ya están escritas, hay muchos libros de oraciones disponibles, y a muchas personas les gusta usar una aplicación gratuita llamada "Laudate". Lo importante para recordar cuando usamos oraciones preparadas es hacer que las oraciones sean nuestras, haciendo una pausa para meditar cada vez que un pensamiento nos golpea, y repasando la oración cada vez que nos llega una elección diferente de palabras.

Si tiene una Biblia, es posible que desee leer el sexto capítulo del Evangelio de Juan. También puede orar del libro de los Salmos, que contiene oraciones para casi todas las circunstancias de la vida. Otra oración que proviene de las Escrituras es el Rosario; Es importante meditar en los misterios del Rosario mientras recitamos las palabras.

"Maestro, ¡es bueno para nosotros estar aquí!" (Marcos 9:5) Espero y rezo para que esta sea su reacción al pasar tiempo con Nuestro Señor en la Eucaristía. ¡Y recordemos rezar el uno por el otro!

Con Agradecimiento,
El padre Felipe

Apreciables Hermanos:

Tenemos en puerta una de las mas significativas fiestas de los Estados Unidos, que es la Acción de Gracias. Una fiesta que tiene como finalidad el ser agradecidos con Dios y con los demás por todos los beneficios y bendiciones que recibimos en el año.

Ciertamente para nosotros, debe ser la oportunidad para inculturarnos en las costumbres de este país que nos ha abierto las puertas y debemos participar con verdadero espíritu Cristiano en dicha fiesta, no solo para aprovechar las compras que nos ofrece esta temporada, sino verdaderamente con la actitud de agradecimiento a Dios, participando en la celebración de la Misa que tendremos en la Parroquia el 28 de Noviembre, a las 9:00 a.m. Poca participación tenemos de la comunidad hispana. Los invito a involucrarnos mas en estas fiestas, siendo agradecidos con Dios y con los hermanos.
