Cambio de postura durante la Plegaria Eucarística

De vez en cuando vale la pena examinar por qué hacemos las cosas que hacemos. Esto es especialmente cierto para nosotros, los católicos, quienes deseamos mostrar la debida reverencia y respeto por la Santísima Eucaristía. Sabemos que lo que hacemos en la Sagrada Liturgia nos forma a nosotros, y a aquellos que nos observan ¡Y muchas veces de modo que esta experiencia sustituye a las palabras! Esto es innegable; especialmente con la expresión de las posturas corporales.

Algunas personas han observado un tipo de informalidad que continúa fomentándose en nuestra sociedad: nuestra manera casual de dirigirnos hacia las personas al solo usar su nombre sin apellido, nuestra vestimenta relajada durante compromisos sociales y el no "vestirnos apropiadamente", o el hecho de que no nos ponemos de pie cuando alguien de importancia entra a un recinto. Esta informalidad, también puede surgir inconscientemente en nuestra celebración de la Liturgia.

Con el fin de refutar esta indiferencia y ayudar a fomentar un sentido de respeto y gratitud por el don de la Eucaristía, el Obispo Vann ha pedido que cambiemos nuestra postura durante la última parte de la Plegaria Eucarística. Actualmente nos ponemos de pie desde el Gran Amén y hasta después de recibir la Sagrada Comunión. Ahora, el Obispo Vann, les pide a los fieles que se arrodillen después del Cordero de Dios (Agnus Dei), en admiración y veneración por lo que acontece en el Altar del Sacrificio. Este cambio se implementará en San Eduardo el Confesor y San Felipe de Jesús a partir del domingo 26 de agosto (incluyendo en la Misa vespertina que se celebra el sábado 25 de agosto por la tarde). Esto nos ayudará a prepararnos espiritualmente para la dedicación de nuestra Catedral, donde este cambio de postura será normativo.

Hay ocasiones en que esta postura no será posible, como cuando una persona se ve impedida por alguna enfermedad, o cuando hay de falta de espacio, o que hay una gran cantidad de personas presentes, o cualquiera otra causa razonable. También, puede que esto no sea posible dentro de nuestras comunidades con espacios de culto temporales, los cuales no tienen reclinatorios disponibles. Sin embargo, todos podemos disfrutar de una mayor conciencia y atención a la acción sagrada. El "hacer las cosas algo diferente" demanda nuestra atención, y por consecuencia este cambio en la postura nos ayudará a ser más conscientes e intencionales sobre nuestro sentido de reverencia y respeto por el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Jesús.

Este cambio de postura está de acuerdo con las directivas que se nos da la Instrucción General del Misal Romano (IGMR), que es el "manual de instrucciones" de cómo debemos celebrar la Misa. Las directrices en el IGMR nos dan las normas universales para la Iglesia Católica Romana, así como "ley particular" para los Estados Unidos. Al mismo tiempo, el IGMR le da autoridad a un Obispo Diocesano para establecer normas para el beneficio y el bienestar de los fieles en su diócesis particular, las cuales pueden variar de las diócesis vecinas y las cuales pueden cambiar al pasar del tiempo. Nuestros gestos y posturas ayudan a lograr unidad entre los fieles, ya que todos hacemos las cosas de la misma manera y al mismo tiempo. También nos ayuda a clarificar los significados de las diferentes partes de la Misa y fomenta nuestra participación en la Sagrada Liturgia. Que todo lo que hacemos nos ayude a entrar en oración y adoración para lograr nuestra santificación y la del mundo entero.

Posture Change during the Eucharistic Prayer

From time to time it is worthwhile to examine why we do the things we do. This is especially true for us Catholics who wish to show proper reverence and awe for the Most Holy Eucharist. We know that what we do at Sacred Liturgy forms us, and others who observe us, in ways that sometimes supersedes words! This is especially true with bodily postures.

Some people point to an informality that continues to foster itself in our society: our casual manner in the way we address people by using only first names, our relaxed attire at social engagements and not “dressing up,” and the fact that we do not stand up when someone of importance walks into a room. It can also creep unconsciously into our celebration of Liturgy.

In order to counter this indifference and help foster a sense of awe and gratitude for the gift of the Eucharist, Bishop Vann has asked that we make a change in our posture during the latter part of the Eucharistic Prayer. Currently we stand from the Great Amen until after receiving Holy Communion. The faithful are now asked to start kneeling after the Lamb of God (Agnus Dei) in awe and veneration of what is taking place on the Altar of Sacrifice. The change in posture will be implemented at St. Edward the Confessor and San Felipe de Jesus on Sunday August 26 (including the Vigil Mass on Saturday August 25). This will help us to prepare ourselves spiritually for the dedication of our Cathedral, where this posture change will become normative.

There are occasions when this posture won't be possible, such as when an individual is prevented by ill health, or for reasons of lack of space, of the large number of people present, or for another reasonable cause. It might not be possible in our communities that are worshipping in temporary Worship Spaces that don't enjoy the use of kneelers. However, we can all enjoy a heightened awareness and attentiveness to the sacred action. Through our increase mindfulness of “doing things differently,” this change in posture will hopefully help us become more conscious and intentional about our sense of reverence and awe of Jesus' Body and Blood.

This posture change is in keeping with the directives that we have been given in the General Instruction to the Roman Missal (GIRM), which is the “instruction manual” for how we celebrate Mass. The directives in the GIRM give us both universal norms for the Roman Catholic Church as well as “particular law” for the United States. It also gives authority to a Diocesan Bishop to establish norms for the benefit and well-being of the faithful for his particular diocese, which may vary from the surrounding dioceses and change over time. Our gestures and postures help to bring about a unity as we all do things the same way at the same time. It also helps to make clear the meanings of different parts of the Mass and fosters our participation in our Sacred Liturgy. Let all that we do help us enter into our prayer and worship to bring about our sanctification and that of our world.

#ALWAYSLEARNING ... EVEN DURING THE SUMMER

Although our teachers have enjoyed family time, adventurous vacations, and relaxing beach days, many have also used summer to enhance, broaden and strengthen their professional development. Thanks to the Monarch Fund, the heart of The Parish School's philanthropic effort which allows us to "Go Beyond," our faculty traveled around the country to learn from some of the most influential leaders in education, art and Catholic ministry. Highlights include:

- Five lower school English Language Arts teachers attended the Teacher's College at Columbia University for the Readers and Writers Workshop.
- The 5th/6th Grade STEM teacher attended the University of Notre Dame as a member of the Mary Ann Remick Leadership Program.
- Several faculty members participated in the Catholic Youth Ministry Training Convention in Arizona to prepare for the new Campus Ministry Program.
- Our art teacher attended the Penland School of Crafts for a 13-day ceramics and pottery program in preparation for the addition of a potter's wheel and kiln to our art program.
- The Director of Advancement and Director of Marketing attended the Partners in Mission conference in Boston, collaborating with hundreds of Catholic schools and dioceses on best practices.

As we start our new academic year this week, our entire team is so excited to put these new lessons into practice!

Job Opportunity

The Parish School's Extended School Day Childcare Program (Eday) is now hiring staff for the 2018-2019 School Year. Staff will be working with school aged children ages 4 to 14. Part-time weekday positions are available from 2:30 PM to 5:00 PM. Applicants must be at least 18 and have a high school diploma or equivalent. For more information please call (949) 429-2879 or email Mr. Ninomiya at mninomiya@stedschool.org.

Out of respect for -- and the safety of -- our neighbors, please slow down and obey the speed limit. We are asking all parishioners to avoid parking or dropping off anyone in the neighborhoods surrounding the parish and, instead, to park only on our parish property. This sign will be on the streets approaching St. Edward. Subsequently, all vehicles that park in the neighborhoods surrounding St. Edward will receive a reminder letter from Fr. Brendan asking for your cooperation.

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at 429-2874 or email: tleeman@stedward.com
