Advent Week Two: Behold Faith

Faith, also a theological virtue, is defined in the scripture as “the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.” Hebrews 11:1

Meditate this week on the state of your faith.

On a scale of one to ten, how strong would you say your faith in God is right now? Where do you wish it was? What steps could you take to strengthen your faith? Make a concrete plan this week to turn them into reality.

Talk about your faith with someone this week.

Pick up a new Advent card each week until you have a complete set!

Put it in a prominent place so that you don't forget, especially during this busy season, to BEHOLD the daily pockets of light, the gifts of God's abundant love.

THE St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church
PARISH SCHOOL
ALWAYS LEARNING

K IS FOR KINDERGARTEN

Kindergarten is still filled with themed centers, circle time, and playground fun, but it is also a time for establishing the critical building blocks for reading and writing. One of the unique programs they use is Wilson Foundations® – an engaging, multi-sensory reading, spelling, handwriting and phonics program that lays the groundwork for life-long literacy.

Because Kindergarten minds need hands-on instruction, the program uses various manipulatives to help with phonics, sentence structure and vocabulary. For example, each learner has a magnet board with the letters of the alphabet. They practice blending sounds together to make words using the magnet tiles, and thanks to a small class ratio of 18:1, the teacher and aide can work one-on-one with students to either enrich or support their mastery of the lesson. The learners also use white boards to practice handwriting and sentence development.

Since the Catholic faith is the core of St. Edward inside & outside the classroom, kindergartners learn about faith through daily religion class, attend weekly Mass and participate in stewardship activities and Prayer Partner buddies. In addition, the learners also enjoy weekly specialty classes taught by dedicated single-subject teachers, including Spanish, music, library, PE and art. Whether reading, writing, on the field or in church, our Monarch kindergartners are #AlwaysLearning!

Servants of the Word Tuesday Morning Bible Study Begins Again January 8, 2019 Tuesdays 9 am - 11:30 am in Knight Hall

Join us for a transformational year!

Wisdom - God's Vision for Life An 8-part Bible Study featuring Jeff Cavins

In this study, we will be examining biblical wisdom as it relates to daily life. Drawing on the Wisdom literature in the Bible - Proverbs, Wisdom, Sirach, and Ecclesiastes.

Wisdom will teach you how to actively seek out sound guidance and increase your sense of peace in navigating life.

In this program, you will learn how to gather, gain and grow in wisdom, and you will experience the joy it brings to your life.

"Wisdom is seeing with God's eyes" - Pope Francis

Two Ways to Share Christmas with Someone Less Fortunate

Here are two opportunities for your family to share the joy of Christmas with a local disadvantaged person or family

Donate a Gift Card for the Poor St. Vincent de Paul Gift Card Tree

Give joy anonymously to someone by donating a gift card for the poor in our community. You can support the outreach efforts of St. Vincent de Paul by taking an envelope from the Gift Card Tree in the back of church and returning it to the St. Edward Parish Office by noon Wednesday, December 19 with a gift card, cash or check.

We suggest gasoline cards, gift cards from food stores or from stores like Wal-Mart or CVS and drug stores. Your gifts will be used during the holidays and throughout the year to help the poor. Checks may be written to St. Vincent de Paul or to St. Edward Church with SVDP on the memo line. Thank you.

Donate a Toy for a Child or a Gift Card for a Teen

Many of our local children in need will not have a Christmas present other than what is provided through FAM. Please help us bring joy to a child this Christmas by donating a toy or a gift card. These gifts will be given to poor children at the Children's Christmas Party hosted by Family Assistance Ministries (FAM), our partner in serving the poor and homeless on Fridays at San Felipe.

TOYS: for children 0 thru 12 years. Please leave an unwrapped new toy in the box marked "Toys" in the toy box in the back of church no later than Wednesday, December 12th. The most popular toys are dolls, Barbie's, legos, sport balls, science and art & craft kits. Toys that are not popular are coloring books, puzzles and board games.

GIFT CARDS: for teens 13 thru 17 years. Please put a gift card in the Parish Office TEEN GIFT BOX no later than Wednesday, December 12th. Most popular gift cards for teens are Visa/Master Card, Walmart, Target, Forever 21, movie theaters, Starbucks. Denominations of $25 are preferred. We prefer NOT to receive iTunes gift cards since in previous years they were not so popular.

New Years Resolution:

Bring Christ to those in need!

By becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion to the Sick and Homebound, you will bring Christ to parishioners who are unable to attend Mass due to age or illness. In bringing Holy Communion to the sick or aged, you minister to the whole person - body, mind and soul.

Applications are available in the Parish office or online at (stedward.com) under Ministries/Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Sick & Homebound.

What is a Pastorela?

The roots of La Pastorela go back to Medieval Spain and Italy, sometime circa the 16th century. Saint Francis of Assisi is believed to have started the tradition of Christmas pageants in Italy, using real animals and a baby. There is at least one record of Queen Isabella of Spain watching a Christmas play in 1487. There is also a record of a Nativity play produced in Tlatelolco, Mexico in 1530, and in 1595, the first “Coloquio de los Pastores”, a seminar for Pastorela-aficionados was held in Sinaloa. Spanish missionaries introduced folk dramatizations in the Americas as pedagogical tools sure to catch the attention of indigenous peoples, many of whom had elaborate folk dramas, festivals, and other festivities in their own cultures. The musical drama was used to teach the neophytes Christianity and was among the first theatrical productions staged in Southern California. For most of its history, Pastorelas existed only as oral literature. It was only in the 19th century that they began to be written down as “scripts” that were then adapted by local playwrights. Still staged today, the tradition has continued through five centuries with Pastorelas, or shepherds' plays still being performed each year.

La Pastorela features a relatively small cast of characters: a handful of shepherds “Pastores”, a drunken hermit “Ermitaño”, a devil “Luzbel” and several minions who try to stop the shepherds, and the Archangel Saint Michael whose task it is to keep the Pastores from falling to temptation. The script and details vary, and the lines are written in verse, often embellished with actors’ ad-libbed quips. Nonetheless it is the story of the nativity tale of the shepherds as they followed the star of Bethlehem. As the shepherds are excitedly traveling to the stable as directed by the angels, the Devil and his band waylay them. The slick-talking satans offer liquor, gambling and wild living. Today it is common to see the Devil suggesting cigarettes, violence, war, drugs and sex in his vigorous attempts to delay the shepherds. Finally, the Archangel Michael triumphs over evil, slaying the Devil and the shepherds continue to the manger. Throughout Mexico and the Southwest, these musical folk dramas were performed in private homes as well as public spaces. The December 1931 issue of the Auto Club’s Touring Topics magazine documented performances of Los Pastores given by Mexican agricultural workers in La Habra, Fullerton, Corona, Upland, and Placentia. The reporter explained that the previous year, “a group organized and trained at Placentia by an almost illiterate orange picker gave more than 25 performances between Christmas Eve and February, traveling all over Southern California in an open truck.” In December 1991, PBS broadcasted under their “Great Performances” series a Pastorela produced by El Teatro Campesino, written by Luis Valdez. Linda Rondstadt, Paul Rodriguez, Freddy Fender, Lalo Guerrero, Flaco Jimenez, and Cheech Marin (among other stars) were cast in some of the traditional roles. La Pastorela will be performed here at St. Edward on December 20th in Knight Hall. Don’t miss it!

Men's Retreat

Theme this Year:

Be not Anxious!

Living in the Peace of Christ
January 25, 26, & 27 2019

The St. Edward the Confessor retreat for men will be held at Mater Dolorosa Retreat Center on the weekend of January 25, 26 & 27.

Join your fellow parishioners for this weekend of spiritual enrichment and growth. Many men who have attended in the past repeat each year. Ask them why they keep coming back. They will tell you that there is nothing else like the peace they "feel". Come join us, seek peace, turn the craziness of everyday life off for a few hours and RECHARGE!

The retreat begins Friday evening with a buffet dinner and concludes at noon on Sunday. The requested donation is $250. No one is turned away if they cannot pay.

Feast of the Holy Innocents Friday, December 28

At the 5:30 pm
Mass on Friday,
December 28 all children who have died (through sickness,
miscarriage,
abortion or other causes) will be remembered. The community is invited to come and pray for these families.

During the offertory there will be a procession with a flower offering. Everyone who has lost a child is invited to join the offertory procession and place a flower in the vase in the sanctuary in memory of their child.

St. Matthew's Financial Corner

'Money'*

Feast Day Sept 21st

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at 429-2874 or email: tleeman@stedward.com

2. Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

Another way to donate to the Capital Campaign!

Final 2018 Charitable Donations

Please remember that your final charitable donations for 2018 need to be received by the Church before the end of Monday, December 31. You may bring them to the Parish Office or to the Business Office. Please check our special Holiday Office hours during the last two weeks of December listed on page 5 of this bulletin. Or you can use our online system, WeShare, 24 hours per day, seven days a week. No need to call us if you use WeShare. We will see your donation. Just make sure to get your donation completed before Midnight on December 31. Thank you for your generosity!

Reminder that you can donate to the Pastoral Center Campaign by using WeShare. You can set up a period of 3 years or how many payments you want to complete your pledge. For Assistance contact:
