Join a Small Group to Grow in your Faith During Lent!

A small group consists of three or more people who gather at a chosen time in a home, workplace, other designated place, or online. A small group comes together to talk about God and faith and Some groups study Scripture or watch and discuss a video series. Other groups do service projects together. IT’S UP TO THE SMALL GROUP TO DECIDE what to do at each meeting. The main purpose is to form companionship on the spiritual journey so that no one feels alone.

Who Can Join a Small Group?

Any adults, any age – singles, married people (with children or without children), co-workers, neighbors, friends – can join a small group. You can choose a multi-generational group or a group specifically your age... Ready? Find a group that fits you or start one of your own.

Start A Small Group

We need people who are willing to start small groups and host them. This simply means that you are the designated organizer/facilitator. The best part of starting a small group is that you get to choose when you meet, the location, and what you would like the group to do. WE WILL TRAIN YOU TO BE A FACILITATOR. IT IS EASY AND NOT TIME-CONSUMING. The parish will match people to what your group does, when it meets, and where. OR you can invite people to join your group and form it yourself. Whatever works for you.

Do you think you want to start a small group or need more information? Go to:

All Liturgical Ministers are encouraged to attend this morning of reflection and training specific to each ministry. The agenda is as follows:

- 8:15 am Mass at St. Edward
- 9:00 a.m. Continental Breakfast in Knight Hall
- Reflection by Father Dave
- Training breakouts (by ministry) finishing by 11:30 a.m.

Thank you for your service in ministry to our parish.

Guess Who's Coming to Dinner

Sign-ups for the new groups for "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" will take place after all the Masses on February 27-28.

Join us for a year of great food, new friends and fun! If you would like more information about this ministry, please contact:

It's Okay to Be Human ...

Jesus became human and fully experienced times of loneliness, sadness, hurt, anger, and disappointment.

God never intended us to be completely self-sufficient. God's plan is for us to turn to others when we are in need.

Our Stephen Ministers will listen, encourage and pray with you, providing confidential one-to-one support. To learn how Stephen Ministry may be able to help you, call 949-496-1307 x2503 or email stephenministry@stedward.com.

St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church

Dear Fr. Brendan

Greetings in our Lord! We want to express our sincere and heartfelt gratitude to you and the parishioners of St. Edward's for the very generous donation of $25,000 applied towards the purchase of a van for our community and our ministry among the disabled and homeless.

Please find some pictures of the van included with this correspondence. The van will be used to seek those abandoned in the streets of Kingston and to transport severely handicapped poor to the apostolic centers for medical aid and shelter.

May God who is pleased with your kindness towards "the least of His brethren" reward you fittingly as only He can do!

On our part, we assure you of our prayers for you and your parishioners that God may keep you safe and healthy.

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Orange provides a pre-need Planning Program for Catholic Families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

For information on advance planning and the choices you have, please contact Mary Ellen Lohnes
