The Promised Land

Looking at our beautiful Pastoral Center and Knight Hall, do you ever feel like Moses, who was allowed to see the Promised Land but never got to enter it? Soon that will change. Once the parish offices have been moved from the modular unit to the new building, you'll be able to see the interior at last.

It will be a "soft" opening. At first we won't be able to use the meeting rooms since workers will still be on site putting the finishing touches on everything. And even after the workers finished, we will still be arranging things like donor plaques and names on the rooms. It will all take time. Remember what I said last week: our dispositions need to be patience (we don't get to see it all at once yet), gratitude (especially to all the generous parishioners who contributed to the building) and positivity (since change is always a challenge).

The "Grand Opening," if you will, is scheduled for the weekend before Thanksgiving. On Saturday, November 19th, Bishop Vann will celebrate the 5:30 pm Mass, and immediately after Mass he will bless the new Pastoral Center and Knight Hall.

Following the blessing, there will be a reception and open house. The next day, Sunday, November 20th, we will continue to have open house after all Masses. A long-term dream of our parish is coming true, and we are so blessed to be a part of it!

La Tierra Prometida

Viendo el hermoso Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall, ¿alguna vez usted se ha sentido como Moisés, a quien se le permitió ver la Tierra Prometida pero nunca pudo entrar? Pronto eso cambiará. Una vez que las oficinas parroquiales hayan sido trasladadas de la unidad modular al nuevo edificio, por fin usted podrá ver el interior.

Será una apertura "lenta". Al principio no podremos usar los salones de reuniones ya que los trabajadores seguirán dando los toques finales a todo.

E incluso después de que los trabajadores hayan terminado, seguiremos colocando cosas en el interior, como las placas de los donantes y los nombres de los salones. Todo esto llevará tiempo. Recuerden lo que dije la semana pasada: nuestra disposición debe ser paciencia (todavía no podemos verlo todo de una vez), gratitud (especialmente a todos los feligreses generosos que contribuyeron a la construcción) y positividad (ya que el cambio es siempre un desafío).

La "Gran Inauguración", por así decirlo, está programada para el fin de semana antes del Día de Acción de Gracias. El sábado 19 de noviembre, el obispo Kevin Vann celebrará la Misa de las 5:30pm e inmediatamente después de la Misa bendecirá el nuevo Centro Pastoral y el salón Knight Hall. Después de la bendición, habrá una recepción y se abrirán las puertas para que usted pueda ver el interior. Al día siguiente, domingo 20 de noviembre, las puertas seguirán abiertas después de todas las misas. ¡Un sueño a largo plazo de nuestra parroquia se está haciendo realidad, y somos muy bendecidos de ser parte de él!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

The California Legislature put Proposition 1 on the November ballot. Proposition 1 would amend the California Constitution to establish a right to reproductive freedom, which is defined to include a right to an abortion and to choose or refuse contraceptives. This would remove the current ban on Abortion in California after 24 weeks, and could allow for taxpayer-funded abortion up until birth.

A “no” vote on Proposition 1 keeps existing California law on abortion the way it is now.
