Latest News

I am still reading Richard Henry Dana's "Two Years before the Mast." I have followed Dana from Boston, around Cape Horn, and now the Pilgrim is trading on the California coast. It is fascinating to read his impressions of our area, its inhabitants, and the daily life of a sailor. Besides all this, the book takes me back to my youth, when I read it for the first time. You might recall that my inspiration to read it again came from the Maritime Festival last month; the reason I am not finished with the book is only that my reading time is limited.

But other interesting and exciting things have been happening. Although there are still some unpacked boxes in my office, I have art up on the walls and it is feeling a little more like "home" every time I enter it. If you have been in the Pastoral Center during the last week, you notice that we are gradually settling in throughout the facility. The three dispositions I have been emphasizing—patience, gratitude, and positivity—are helping us to do this gracefully.

Word has been spreading in the diocese that our building is nearing completion. Often my brother priests congratulate me on this; I humbly pass their congratulations on to you, as you are the reason we have been able to get this far. Thank you so much! I hope you have your calendar marked for the evening of Saturday, November 19, when Bishop Vann will celebrate Mass in the church and then come over to bless our new Pastoral Center and Knight Hall. We'll have a great open house (which will continue after all Masses on Sunday, November 20) so you can see what we have built together.

Últimas Noticias

Todavía estoy leyendo el libro llamado "Dos años antes del mástil" de Richard Henry Dana. He seguido a este autor desde Boston, alrededor de Cape Horn, y ahora en la costa de California. Es fascinante leer sus impresiones sobre nuestra zona, sus habitantes y el día a día de un marinero. Además de todo esto, el libro me transporta a mi juventud, cuando lo leí por primera vez. Tal vez ustedes recuerden que mi inspiración para leerlo de nuevo provino del Festival Marítimo el mes pasado; la razón por la que no he terminado con el libro es solo porque mi tiempo para leer es limitado.

Pero otras cosas interesantes y emocionantes han estado sucediendo. Aunque todavía hay algunas cajas sin empacar en mi oficina, tengo obras de arte en las paredes y cada vez que entro me siento un poco más como "en mi hogar". Si usted ha estado en el Centro Pastoral durante la última semana, notará que poco a poco nos estamos instalando en todo el establecimiento. Las tres disposiciones que he estado enfatizando es la (paciencia, gratitud y positividad) nos están ayudando a hacer esto con gracia.

Se ha corrido la voz en la diócesis de que nuestro edificio está casi terminado. A menudo mis hermanos sacerdotes me felicitan por esto; Humildemente le transmito sus felicitaciones, ya que usted es la razón por la que hemos podido llegar tan lejos. ¡Muchas gracias! Espero que tenga marcado su calendario para la noche del sábado 19 de noviembre, cuando el obispo Vann celebrará la Misa en la iglesia y luego vendrá a bendecir nuestro nuevo Centro Pastoral y el Salón Knight. Tendremos la oportunidad de tener las puertas abiertas (que continuará después de todas las Misas el domingo 20 de noviembre) para que pueda ver lo que hemos construido juntos.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

The California Legislature put Proposition 1 on the November ballot. Proposition 1 would amend the California Constitution to establish a right to reproductive freedom, which is defined to include a right to an abortion and to choose or refuse contraceptives. This would remove the current ban on Abortion in California after 24 weeks, and could allow for taxpayer-funded abortion up until birth.

A “no” vote on Proposition 1 keeps existing California law on abortion the way it is now.
