St. Teresa of Calcutta

The Missionaries of Charity...and St. Edward the Confessor

Earlier today, September 4th, Mother Teresa was canonized. Few in modern history have so clearly epitomized God's deep love and thirst for souls, particularly the poor and the marginalized.

"Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu, the future Mother Teresa, was born on August 26, 1910, in Skopje, Macedonia, to Albanian heritage. Her father, a well-respected local businessman, died when she was eight years old leaving her mother, a devoutly religious woman, to open an embroidery and cloth business to support the family. After spending her adolescence deeply involved in parish activities, Agnes left home in September 1928 for the Loreto Convent in Rathfarnham (Dublin), Ireland and received the name of Teresa, after her patroness, St. Therese of Lisieux.

On September 10, 1946, on a train journey from Calcutta to Darjeeling, Mother Teresa received what she termed the "call within a call," which was to give rise to the Missionaries of Charity family of Sisters, Brothers, Fathers, and Co-Workers. The content of this inspiration is revealed in the aim and mission she would give to her new institute: "to quench the infinite thirst of Jesus on the cross for love and souls" by "laboring at the salvation and sanctification of the poorest of the poor."

From the late 1960s until 1980, the Missionaries of Charity expanded both in their reach across the globe and in their number of members. In 1979 Mother Teresa was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. By 1997, the Sisters numbered nearly 4,000 members and were established in almost 600 foundations in 123 countries of the world. The Missionaries of Charity have more houses in Tijuana than in any other city in the world except Calcutta.

Mother Teresa entered eternal life on September 5, 1997 and her feast day will be celebrated on September 5 each year (beginning tomorrow). She received a state funeral on September 13th, her body being taken in procession - on a gun carriage that had also borne the bodies of Mohandas K. Gandhi and Jawaharlal Nehru - through the streets of Calcutta. Presidents, prime ministers, queens, and special envoys were present on behalf of countries from all over the world." (Exerts from Catholic.org)

One of the many blessings I have received while being at St. Edward the Confessor is getting to know the Missionary Sisters and Fathers of Charity in Tijuana and our parishioners who have been serving for 19 years.

The Tijuana Ministry of St. Edward the Confessor is a group of parishioners who attend 8:15 Mass each Thursday and then make 300-400 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches in Knight Hall. During the week, other individuals pick up bread and tortillas from local grocery stores and markets and, by the end of the day, parishioner Bill Luke loads everything in his van, as he has been doing for 19 years, the year Mother Teresa died. Before the sun rises on Friday morning, Bill begins his journey to Tijuana stopping first at St. Leo's Catholic Church in Solana Beach where he picks up 700-800 additional sandwiches made by St. Leo's parishioners every week. After a quick stop at McDonald's he crosses the border which is like crossing into another world.

Bill and Missionary Father, Fr. Adam Carrol, MC. take more than 1,000 peanut butter and jelly sandwiches to 3 jails, a women's rehabilitation center and to the streets in the poorest sections of Tijuana. The jail "inmates" are held for no longer than 36 hours. They are primarily the poor street people who are detained for having no identification or appear to be suspicious. In general, their crime is looking poor. At the main jail, the guards give Bill full access to the inmates; they've known him for 19 years. After handing out sandwiches, Bill offers haircuts to the inmates, handing each a towel, soap and shampoo for a much needed shower. Every sandwich is given with the words "Dios le ama" (God bless you). While Bill is in the main jail, Fr. Adam is giving an hour and a half talk to the women in the rehab center. The women are very attentive – thirsty – to hear about Jesus Christ and his love and mercy.

In one of the one-day-holding jails, which is sometimes crammed full of people, Bill and Fr. Adam pour each inmate a cup of water from a 5-gallon jug. Though the incarcerated are clearly very hungry and thirsty, they all share with one another, never fighting over the food or water.

Periodically, basic first aid is given to those on the streets and at times, someone is picked up and brought to the convent of the Missions of Charity for more medical assistance. Truly these are people best described by Mother Teresa as "Jesus in the distressing disguise of the poor." Bill says quite simply "It is a humbling experience to serve 'Jesus' in this simple and small way."

How you can help

Pray: Mother Teresa was most concerned with people's spiritual health. Prayer was the center of her life and her first ministry to the poor was caring for their soul. Please pray for the poor, those who have dedicated their lives to serve them, and that we ourselves answer Christ's call to serve the least among us.

Volunteer: Join the Tijuana ministry.

Donate: Items brought across the border must be claimed and are taxed - even the sandwiches! Therefore, donating money is the most needed gift. Supplies can be easily purchased in Tijuana, often at cheaper prices than in the U.S. Donations of bread, peanut butter and jelly for the Tijuana Ministry are also welcomed and can be brought to our parish office.
