Small Faith-Sharing Groups: Forming Faith and Friendships

In last week's bulletin I shared with you the progress we are making towards our parish goal of improving our outreach to those who come to our parish seeking help. This week, we are making a significant step towards our parish goal of fostering the prayer-life of individuals and families by beginning small faith-sharing groups.

Being a member of a large parish provides many blessings but it can also be easy to feel lost and unnoticed. Small faith-sharing groups help us gather together in a more personal setting to learn, share and enjoy our faith together.

What Is A Small Faith-Sharing Group? The main purpose of a small faith sharing group is to form companionship on the spiritual journey. A small group consists of three or more people who gather at a chosen time in a home, workplace, other designated place, or online, to talk about God and faith. IT WILL BE UP TO THE SMALL GROUP TO DECIDE what to do at each meeting.

What Do They Do? Because each group is unique, each group is encouraged to decide what they would like to do at each gathering. The heart of the gathering is faith-sharing but there are countless ways to do that. One suggestion would be to choose one of the dozens of free video presentations, books or movies on FORMED.ORG (see below) as a starting point for your meetings. Many of the programs on FORMED include helpful study guides. Other options might include praying the rosary, reading the bible or the Catechism of the Catholic Church, or simply talking about your faith-life. It's up to you. Small faith-sharing groups is fostering friendship as well as forming our faith and growing as disciples of Christ.

Who Can Join a Small Group? Any adults of any age - singles, married people (with children or without children), co-workers, neighbors, friends. You can choose a multi-generational group or a group specifically your age. We need you to join and make the groups flourish; to be the organizers, to host or lead groups.

How do I Get Started?

Go to stedward.com/smallgroups to fill out a survey to let us know what kind of group you are interested in and if you are willing to be a group leader and/or host a group. Consider us your match-makers. If you do not have access to the internet, you can obtain a form at the parish office.

For more information please contact Liz Iorio at Liorio@stedward.com (949) 496-6011

Support Christian Refugees

Christians in the Middle East face persecution and extinction simply because they are Christians. To create awareness of their dire situation and show solidarity with them, the Knights of Columbus have purchased olive wood crosses made in Bethlehem. If you would like one of these crosses, they will be available from the Knights at a table after Masses on the weekend of January 17. The Knights are requesting a minimum donation of $10 dollars for a cross. The proceeds will go to the refugee camps in Iraq and Syria.

If you would like to make a contribution directly to the Christian Refugee Fund (tax deductible contribution) sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, please visit the website christiansatrisk.org

Flu Season Guidelines and the Liturgy.

With the arrival of cold and flu season, concerns naturally are raised about health and well-being. Common sense and basic hygiene are the best way to limit the spread of flu and cold. In Christian charity, please stay home when you are sick. It is not a sin to miss Mass because you are sick or taking care of someone who is sick.

During the Sign of Peace, if you do not want to shake hands, you may make a simple gesture such as a smile or a bow of the head with the words "Peace be with you".

Men's Retreat Mater Dolorosa January 29—31

This Year's Theme: "No Greater Love."

Join your fellow parishioners for this weekend of spiritual enrichment and growth. Many men who have attended in the past repeat each year. Ask one of them, why they keep coming back, they will tell you that the peace they "feel" there is like nothing else.

The retreat begins Friday evening, Jan 29 with a buffet dinner and concludes Sunday, January 31, at noon. Deposit is $50. Requested donation is $240. No one is turned away if they cannot pay.

Called and Gifted Workshop
Saturday, January 16th 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

You are invited to attend the Called & Gifted Workshop on January 16 in Knight Hall. This workshop will guide you through a process of discernment to help you recognize your charisms. Charisms are gifts given by the Holy Spirit through baptism and confirmation and are the real clues to who God created you to be and what God created you to do.

Why should I attend?

Because Christ is calling you. Christ needs you to bring His love to others in a way only you can do. No one else has your particular background, experience, gifts, and connections. No one else can take your place.

The Called & Gifted Workshop Is For:

People searching

- † If I am asking what God wants of me, what direction I should take, or what will bring lasting meaning and peace of heart, do I understand the essential connection between my happiness and discerning my vocation from God?
- † Am I looking for more from my Church and my faith?
- † Do I want to feel like I make a real difference?

People in transition

- † If I am changing jobs, facing retirement, divorced, unemployed, entering the work force, or an “empty nester”, do I know where God is calling me?
- † Do I have a sense of calling and vocation different from career success?
- † Do I need a sense of direction and renewed confidence?

Parents and Teachers

- † If I have the responsibility of caring for or teaching the young, do I know how to help them discover the ways God has gifted them for others?
- † Do I convey to them that God is calling them to a work of love only they can do, and can I tell them how they can discover this call?

New, long-time or returning Catholics -Anyone who wants to explore what it means to live their faith.

- † Have I discerned how God calls me to bring His love to others? Do I know what my particular supernatural gifts are for this work?
- † How can I help people I know discover their own gifts and calls from God and therefore the path to their greatest happiness?

Young adults 18-30 years old

- † Do I know my calling or vocation?

PARISH CONSTRUCTION UPDATE – PAST, PRESENT, AND FUTURE

The church renovation project undertaken at the beginning of this year raised questions amongst certain parishioners about funding and costs for that project as well as costs related to other building projects and property acquisitions undertaken by St. Edward over the past 15 years or so. We hope the following information will help clarify these matters.

The 1999 Capital Campaign Projects

As many of you know, St. Edward initiated a capital campaign in 1999 to raise funds for three purposes: (1) to renovate its school building; (2) to acquire and incorporate adjacent property into the St. Edward campus; (3) and to construct a pastoral center. The initial campaign goal was to raise $8 million for these projects. The total amount of Capital Campaign donations ultimately received was $6,551,383.81.

At least $6,680,646.31 was spent on the Capital Campaign projects (i.e., the school renovation, the acquisition and development of the adjacent property, and planning for the pastoral center). And as of October 31, 2015, St. Edward's account designated for funds donated to the Capital Campaign had a current balance of $690,211.70. The fact that the Capital Campaign account balance is positive despite the fact that project expenses exceeded donations is attributable to deficit funding from St. Edward's general savings (i.e., when, at various times, Capital Campaign receipts were insufficient to pay for Capital Campaign project costs then due and payable, St. Edward covered these costs with funds from its general savings).

Due to cost overruns related to the school renovation and the expansion of the St. Edward campus, the amount of Capital Campaign donations remaining after these first two phases of the Capital Campaign project were ultimately insufficient to commence, let alone complete, the construction of the pastoral center. There is currently no timetable for the re-commencement of that project. However, the funds remaining in the Capital Campaign account will continue to be maintained as seed money for the eventual construction of a pastoral center.

The Rectory

In April 2009 St. Edward purchased 24551 Alta Vista in Dana Point to be used as a residence (a.k.a. a rectory) for its priests. The purchase price was $975,644.96 (inclusive of closing costs) and the property was renovated after purchase at an additional cost of $622,175.49.

The Church Renovation

St. Edward undertook a renovation of its church building at the beginning of this year. The original scope of the renovation was completed at a cost of $1,997,993.98. However, the City of Dana Point mandated certain additional upgrades to our facility, ostensibly to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (the "ADA"). Certain ADA upgrades have already been completed at a cost of $380,019.20. Though discussions with the City are ongoing, we may ultimately be required to make additional ADA upgrades. At this time the scope and cost of these potential, additional ADA upgrades are uncertain. We currently believe the cost will be $700,000 at most, but the actual cost could be more or less than that figure, depending on a variety of factors. We will continue to keep you informed as the scope and cost of these additional ADA upgrades become more certain.

We hope the information above provides more clarity concerning these various projects and their cost. If you have any questions regarding St. Edward's finances, you are encouraged to contact Barbara Belavic or Randy Redwitz.
