Trinity and Community

This weekend the Church worships and honors the Blessed Trinity, the Three Persons in One God. These Three Persons are distinct, one from the other, and yet they are equal and perfectly One God. This mystery of Three Persons in One God has been studied, discussed, and explained since the earliest days of the Church. It is beyond our complete understanding, but we know it is true from Jesus' own reference to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. (Mt. 28:19)

We human beings are created in the image and likeness of God. This means that we are also something of a mystery. It also means that we are called to form a community: distinct persons who are united as one. We are called to form a community because God is a Community.

In practical terms, this brings to mind two important questions. Do I respect the unique individuality of each person? And do I strive to cultivate the unity of all persons? The main virtue that helps us accomplish these things is the virtue of charity. No wonder the Scriptures tell us "God is Love" (1 Jn. 4:8)! This week let's give extra effort to the practice of charity in all our thoughts, words, and actions. In this manner we will become a living act of praise of the Blessed Trinity: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Amen!

Trinidad y Comunidad

Este fin de semana la Iglesia adora y honra a la Santísima Trinidad, Tres Personas y un solo Dios. Estas Tres Personas son distintas, una de la otra, y sin embargo son iguales y perfectamente Un Dios. Este misterio de las Tres Personas y un solo Dios ha sido estudiado, discutido y explicado desde los primeros días de la Iglesia. Está verdad esta más allá de nuestro entendimiento, pero sabemos que es verdad porque Jesús, así nos lo enseñó en el evangelio de San Mateo 28:19; Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo.

Los seres humanos hemos sido creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios. Esto significa que nosotros también somos algo así como un misterio. Esto también significa que estamos llamados a formar una comunidad: de personas distintas que están unidas como una sola. Estamos llamados a formar una comunidad porque Dios es una Comunidad.

En términos prácticos, esto me trae a la mente dos preguntas importantes. ¿Respeto la individualidad única de cada persona? ¿Y me esfuerzo por cultivar la unidad de todas las personas? La principal virtud que nos ayuda a realizar estas cosas es la virtud de la caridad. ¡Con razón las Escrituras nos dicen que "Dios es amor" (1 Juan 4:8)! Esta semana hagamos un esfuerzo y practiquemos la caridad en nuestros pensamientos, palabras y acciones. Así nos convertiremos en acto vivo de alabanza a la Santísima Trinidad: Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo. ¡Amén!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

LAUNDRY LOVE

For the past four years, St. Edward the Confessor has sponsored the Laundry Love project. This project helps low-income and homeless individuals and families do their laundry in a clean and safe environment. Clean clothes are something many of us take for granted. However, for the people we serve it is a very welcome gift that makes a tremendous difference in their lives. Beyond the laundry service provided, our parishioner volunteers have been blessed with the opportunity to interact with and hear the stories of many people who are less fortunate.

Laundry Love is held the first Sunday of every month. To learn more or sign up to volunteer, please contact:

ONLINE GIVING

Dear St. Edward the Confessor and San Felipe de Jesus Parishioners,

Our Parish is making a change to our online giving software. The new software promises to provide an improved online giving process at stedward.com.

We will be using our existing system through June 21st. You may continue to give using our current system at stedward.com.

If you currently give online, you will need to open your account by using the same email address on the new system after June 21st that you are currently using and click the Reset Password link. All of your information will have been transferred. More detail to follow in the upcoming days.

For more information about our new online giving system, please visit the Parish website at stedward.com or call or email:
