Joyful Gratitude

The last time I was in the office of Tom Leeman, our business manager, I saw a big stack of PSA pledge envelopes on his desk. That made me happy, not because I want money—it doesn't come to me personally—but because I am eager for all of us to participate in the diocesan Pastoral Services Appeal. Three weekends ago you saw the diocesan video for the PSA during announcement time at Mass. Two weekends ago you saw my video and heard my appeal at all the weekend Masses. Last weekend we did not add an appeal because I know you have already received the message. But if you have not yet pledged or contributed to the Pastoral Services Appeal, I urge you to do so.

I have titled this message "Joyful Gratitude." I am more grateful to you than words can describe, and I am grateful to God for you. Together we have made our new Pastoral Center a reality, and we are putting it to good use. God has blessed us so abundantly that I believe this year's PSA is a call to joyful, grateful giving. I've done my best to remind you of all the important ministries that the diocese provides to people who really count on that assistance. As we reach out to them in this appeal, I hope we do so in a spirit of gratitude, joy, and generosity. "Freely you have received; freely give." (Mt. 10:8)

You can contribute and pledge at www.rcbo.org/psa-give-now. Please be sure to select St. Edward the Confessor as your parish, so that we can give joyful witness to the generosity of our parish community. I know that God will continue to bless us!

Gratitud Gozosa

La última vez que estuve en la oficina de nuestro gerente de negocios, Tom Leeman, vi una gran pila de sobres de promesa de pago de PSA en su escritorio. Eso me hizo feliz, no porque quiera dinero, ese dinero no me llega personalmente, sino porque estoy ansioso por que todos participemos en la Campaña de Servicios Pastorales Diocesanos. El fin de semana antepasado vieron el video diocesano para el PSA durante la Misa. El fin de semana pasado vieron mi video y escucharon mi llamado en todas las Misas del fin de semana. El fin de semana pasado no agregamos una apelación porque sé que ya recibieron el mensaje. Pero si aún no se ha comprometido o contribuido a la Campaña de Servicios Pastorales, le insto a que lo haga.

He titulado este mensaje "Gratitud Gozosa". Estoy más agradecido con ustedes de lo que puedo expresar con palabras, y estoy agradecido con Dios por ustedes. Juntos hemos hecho realidad nuestro nuevo Centro Pastoral y le estamos dando un buen uso. Dios nos ha bendecido tan abundantemente que creo que el anuncio de servicio público de este año es un llamado a dar con alegría y gratitud. He hecho todo lo posible para recordarles todos los ministerios importantes que la diócesis brinda a las personas que realmente cuentan con esa ayuda. A medida que nos acerquemos a ellos en este llamamiento, espero que lo hagamos con un espíritu de gratitud, alegría y generosidad. "Dad de gracia lo que de gracia recibisteis."

Puede contribuir y comprometerse en www.rcbo.org/psa-give-now. Asegúrese de seleccionar St. Edward the Confessor como su parroquia, para que podamos dar un testimonio gozoso de la generosidad de nuestra comunidad parroquial. ¡Sé que Dios nos seguirá bendiciendo!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

Thank you for celebrating the Eucharist with us today!

As we gather together as one for Mass, we realize that Mass cannot happen with just one person. It takes a team of people with different talents and gifts to help make our celebration of Mass a success.

Where is God calling you to help out?
