Unas palabras del Diacono Mike Stock

El que canta, ora dos veces, que es lo que San Agustín decía. Rosy siempre había querido unirse al coro, pero debido a las demandas de tiempo de nuestra vida y criar una familia, participación en otros ministerios y actividades que nunca funcionó. Cuando empezamos a asistir a San Eduardo el Confesor hace poco más de 10 años hemos decidido unirse al coro de la noche del sábado. Ahí es donde realmente empezamos a gozar de las bendiciones de nuestra comunidad aquí. Fue un tiempo increíble para unirse al coro. Rosy tiene una hermosa voz - Rick realmente tenía que trabajar conmigo; Creo que entre decidir si yo era un bajo o tenor le causó muchos dolores de cabeza! Por supuesto que él y todos los coros son maravillosos. Estamos seguros de que todos ellos se combinan a la perfección con los coros celestiales de ángeles. Nos unimos en nuestro coro de Roma, Italia, viaje por nuestra hija Marisa, que también tiene una hermosa voz y nuestro hijo Mike Jr., quien supuestamente no se puede llevar una melodía, pero era muy útil para nosotros y muchos otros por llevar equipaje! Nuestra carrera como cantante se terminó prematuramente cuando Rosy comenzó a trabajar noches y nos llama al liderazgo nacional en nuestro Ministerio de Encuentro Matrimonial.

Rosy y yo somos una mezcla perfecta, yo nací y crecí en la universidad en un puñado de estados del este y del oeste, Rosy es una chica de California que vivió aquí en la universidad y luego viajó a Hawai para servir con un grupo de difusión cristiana y decidí para quedarse por un tiempo. Yo estaba estacionado en Hawaii con los infantes de marina y asistí a las mismas misas en San Antonio de en Kailua. Nuestro viaje de 35 años como Mike & Rosy comenzó. Hemos sido muy bendecidos con dos hijos increíbles, Marisa y Mike, que ambos trabajan en los ministerios, y se añade a nuestra familia una igualmente notable de Dave hijo-en-ley que tiene el dudoso honor de batir Marisa lejos de su trabajo aquí en St. Edward como Ministro de la Juventud de vivir en Pasadena en la que trabajan juntos para servir a la juventud de Dios y elevar dos hermosas niñas.

Como nuestro término de liderazgo con el Encuentro Matrimonial Mundial estaba llegando a su fin, el Padre Steve Sallot nos pidió considerar al servicio de la iglesia como un par diácono. Con la ayuda de muchos y el Espíritu Santo, discernimos sobre mí servir como diácono. Como muchos de ustedes saben, diáconos proclaman el Evangelio, asistir al obispo ya los sacerdotes en la Misa, presidir la oración pública, administrar el bautismo, asistir al matrimonio y bendecirlo, llevar el viático a los moribundos y realizar los derechos funerarios. Los diáconos participan en muchos la justicia social y las obras y de las organizaciones de caridad. El papel de los diáconos en la iglesia se puede encontrar en los Hechos de los Apóstoles y las enseñanzas de la iglesia primitiva y la historia. Si bien el diaconado se redujo con el tiempo, el Concilio Vaticano II restauró el diaconado permanente. Actualmente hay alrededor de 125 diáconos activos que sirven en la Diócesis de Orange.

Nuestro camino de formación ha tenido lugar más de cinco años; Rosy y he asistido a clases y completó el proceso de formación Diócesis juntos. Le damos las gracias por su apoyo durante todo el proceso. Aunque voy a ser la persona más visible como el diácono ordenado, mi servicio y nuestro servicio de flujos de nuestro sacramento del matrimonio y la vida familiar, que Dios ha usado para alimentar a nosotros y nos forman como pareja para llevar el amor y la justicia de Dios a Su mundo .

Estamos agradecidos y nos sentimos honrados y bendecidos que el obispo Vann nos ha asignado a San Eduardo y están dispuestos a servir y ver donde Dios nos lleva en servicio aquí y en nuestra Diócesis. Estamos ansiosos de hacer frente a los mares abiertos, como Padre Brendan nuestro navegador mencionó recientemente, y le limpie las cubiertas y ayudar a izar las velas en el viaje que el Espíritu Santo nos lleva. Es un momento increíble para ser católico con la reciente visita de Francisco. Su mensaje nos insta "a participar, a ser mejores ángeles, para convertirse en las personas que nos propone Dios para ser" más destacado de la familia, el servicio, el amor y la compasión y es tan alineado con el papel de un diácono, así como nuestros objetivos parroquiales de Custodia del territorio, siendo una casa de oración, y la Casa de los Pobres y la Integración de la parroquia y la Unidad.

Esperamos con interés de servir a su lado y le pedimos sus oraciones por nosotros y nuestra familia mientras oramos por usted, así como su continuo apoyo y paciencia a medida que comenzamos este nuevo viaje.

A word from Deacon Mike Stock

He who sings prays twice, that is what St. Augustine is often quoted as saying. Rosy had always wanted to join the choir but due to time demands of our life and raising a family, involvement in other ministries and activities it never worked out. When we first started attending St. Edward the Confessor a little over 10 years ago we decided to join the Saturday evening choir. That's where we really started to enjoy the blessings of our community here. It was an amazing time to join the choir. Rosy has a beautiful voice – Rick really had to work with me; I think between deciding if I was a bass or tenor I caused him a lot of grief! Of course he and all our choirs are wonderful. We are sure they all blend perfectly with heaven's choirs of angels. We were joined on our choir Rome, Italy, trip by our daughter Marisa who also has a beautiful voice and our son Mike Jr. who purportedly can't carry a tune but was very helpful to us and many others by carrying luggage! Our singing career was ended prematurely when Rosy began working nights and we were called to national leadership in our Worldwide Marriage Encounter Ministry.

Rosy and I are a perfect blend of East, I was born and raised through college in a handful of eastern states, and West, Rosy is a California girl who lived here through college then traveled to Hawaii to serve with a Christian outreach group and decided to stay for a while. I was stationed in Hawaii with the Marines and we attended the same Masses at St. Anthony's in Kailua. Our journey of 35 years as Mike & Rosy began. We have been very blessed with two amazing children, Marisa and Mike, who both work in ministries, and added to our family an equally remarkable son-in-law Dave who has the dubious distinction of whisking Marisa away from her job here at St. Edward as Youth Minister to live in Pasadena where they work together to serve God's youth and raise two beautiful little girls.

As our leadership term with Worldwide Marriage Encounter was coming to a close, Fr. Steve Sallot asked us to consider serving the church as a deacon couple. With the help of many and the Holy Spirit, we discerned about me serving as a deacon. As many of you know, deacons proclaim the Gospel, assist the Bishop and priests at Mass, preside over public prayer, administer Baptism, assist at and bless Marriages, bring Viaticum to the dying and conduct funeral rights. Deacons are involved in many social justice and charitable works and organizations. The role of Deacons in our church can be found in the Acts of the Apostles and early church teachings and history. Although the diaconate declined over time, the Second Vatican Council restored the permanent diaconate. There are currently about 125 active deacons serving in the Diocese of Orange.

Our formation journey has been taking place over about five years; Rosy and I have attended classes and completed the Diocese formation process together. We thank you for your support throughout the process. Although I will be the most visible person as the ordained deacon, my service and our service flows from our Sacrament of Marriage and our family life which God has used to feed us and form us as a couple to bring God's love and justice to His world.

We are thankful and feel honored and blessed that Bishop Vann has assigned us to St. Edward and are eager to serve you and see where God leads us in service here and in our Diocese. We are anxious to face the open seas, as Father Brendan our navigator recently mentioned, and will swab the decks and help hoist the sails on the voyage the Holy Spirit takes us. It is an incredible time to be Catholic with the recent visit of Pope Francis. His message urging us "to get involved, to become better angels, to become the people who God intends us to be" highlights family, service, love and compassion and is so aligned with the role of a deacon as well as our Parish goals of Stewardship, being a House of Prayer, and House of the Poor and parish Integration and Unity.

We look forward to serving alongside you and we ask for your prayers for us and our family as we pray for you as well as your continued support and patience as we begin this new journey.

Join us in spirit

Gentle people of St. Edwards,

Seventeen of your fellow parishioners will be traveling to the slums of Kingston, Jamaica on November 2nd to volunteer with the Missionaries of the Poor. They will care and share their love of Christ with truly, “the least among us,” severely handicapped children and elderly who have been left on the streets to die. They invite you to join them spiritually on their pilgrimage. The group will take your special prayer intentions with them so the missionary brothers may pray over them daily.

Additionally, everyday the brothers feed and care for 400 people in their apostolic shelters plus another 500 living on the streets. The brothers are in constant need of medical supplies, diapers and food. Here is a partial example of daily expenses: 800 lbs of rice, $240, four cases of Spam, $312 and 200 diapers, $50. It is understandable how supplies can be depleted rapidly and so costly to maintain. Therefore, we are appealing to you for a “love donation” that will aid the brothers in obtaining these desperately needed critical supplies. Please help them if you can.

There will be a second collection for your prayer intentions and/or donations at all the Masses on October 24th & 25th. Checks can be made out to St. Edwards with a note: “Parish missionary trip.”

Finally, please keep us in your prayers.

In His service,

Deacon Al & Linda Scaduto

World Apostolate of Fatima In honor of the 98th Anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun at Fatima Please join us for the Enrollment of the Brown Scapular

Tuesday, October 20 at 5:30 p.m. Mass
All are welcome

On October 13, 1917, Mary made her final appearance at Fatima as our Lady of Mt. Carmel. According to Lucia, one of the 3 children, Mary held the Brown Scapular out from the sky "because she wants everyone to wear it." Lucia added, "As Pope Pius XII said, it is the sign of our consecration to her Immaculate Heart. " The Brown Scapular is an instrument of faith, hope and love. It gives those beneath it the "feeling" of being beneath our Lady's Mantle...next to her heart. Despite our weaknesses, wearing the Brown Scapular makes us powerful instruments in Mary's hands for the conversion of sinners & unbelievers.

The Brown Scapular was first given by Mary to St. Simon Stock, superior of the Carmelite Order on July 16, 1251. Mary told him: "Receive the Brown Scapular. It is a pledge of salvation, a safeguard in danger."

Prayer of the Faithful

Due to the large number of requests, instead of announcing the names of the sick in our Prayer of the Faithful at each Mass we will be showing the names on the projector screens. We ask you to keep these people in your prayers during the upcoming week. We will be adding new names of those who are sick for whom prayers have been requested each week.
