Welcoming Christ in our Neighbor

Las Posadas is a 500 year-old tradition that started in Spain and continues today throughout much of Latin America. Beginning on December 16th, Christians gather on nine consecutive days to commemorate the journey of Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem. The faithful reenact the pious tradition of Mary and Joseph looking for a posada, an inn or place of lodging and welcome, for their new family.

According to this reenacted custom, each night of the nine-day journey the Holy Family is rejected by various inn keepers and are unable to find a place to welcome and adore the newborn king. Finally, on the ninth and final night, December 24th, they find refuge and welcome in a cave.

When Christ was born, many strangers - shepherds, kings, rich and poor – went to the humble dwelling of the Holy Family asking to join them in worshipping the infant king. That manger in Bethlehem was truly the first church.

Like the Holy Family, we spend this final week of Advent waiting in joyful hope for the second coming of Jesus Christ and to commemorate his birth. Beginning on December 24th many “regulars” and visitors will be coming to our church, our manager, wanting to adore the Lord with us. Let us welcome them just as the Holy Family did. At Mass we not only worship the presence of God in the Word and Sacraments, we are called to recognize and reverence him in one another: the “regulars” and especially the visitors. The Christ we adore at Mass reminds us not only to look for him in a manger or altar but also in the stranger “for when I was a stranger you welcome me”. (Mth 25:35)

Parking will be hectic and “your” regular seat will probably be taken by someone who only comes to church once or twice a year. Instead of becoming annoyed, let’s ask ourselves what we can do to let them know and feel that they are truly welcome at our parish and that we want them to come back.

Here are a few ideas for welcoming the stranger and taking some of the stress out of Christmas Mass:

- Attend one of the less-attended Christmas Masses (December 24th at 8 p.m. and December 25th at 7:30 a.m.) in order to make room for visitors at the more crowded Christmas Masses (December 24 at 4 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. and December 25 at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m.)
- Park in the neighborhood and let visitors park in the church parking lot.
- Go to Mass at Knight Hall (December 24 at 4:00 p.m.) so that more visitors can attend Mass in the church.
- Introduce yourself and welcome the person next to you.
- After Mass, let others leave the parking lot first

May everyone who walks through our doors this Christmas receive from us the same welcome and hospitality that Mary and Joseph offered to their guests.

Blessings,
Fr. Brendan

Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

This provision may be especially attractive for retirees who don't need all the income from their IRA to meet current living expenses. By donating the money to your charity, you can enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that you are contributing to a worthy cause while effectively lowering your tax bill.
