Come, Holy Spirit

Pentecost is often called the birthday of the Church. This is because the coming of the Holy Spirit transformed the Apostles from being a group of ~~followers~~ Christ into being the Mystical Body of Christ, the living presence of Christ in the world. Three symbols help us understand the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Scriptural account of the first Pentecost (in Acts 2:1-11) tells us that the coming of the Holy Spirit was signaled by the sound of a strong driving wind. Wind is invisible, like the Holy Spirit; we do not see the wind, but we see and feel its effects. The same is true of the Holy Spirit. Also, we could say that the wind was like the breath of God himself. (In fact, the Latin word for breath is spiritus.)

The Acts of the Apostles tell us that tongues of fire appeared and came to rest on each of the Apostles. Fire shows us the warmth of love and the light of faith; these are two important aspects of the life and work of the Holy Spirit in us.

A third symbol of the Holy Spirit is found in the Gospel accounts of the Baptism of Christ. They tell us that the Holy Spirit appeared over Christ in the form of a dove. The dove is a sign of peace; one of the clearest signs that we are being guided by the Holy Spirit is that we have true inner peace.

Today we rejoice in the many ways that the invisible, yet infinitely powerful, Spirit of God works in us and around us. May all we do be guided by the Holy Spirit, the life-breath of God himself.

Ven, Espíritu Santo

Pentecostés a menudo se dice que es el cumpleaños de la Iglesia. Esto se debe a que la venida del Espíritu Santo transformó a los Apóstoles de ser un grupo de seguidores de Cristo a ser el Cuerpo Místico de Cristo, la presencia viva de Cristo en el mundo. Hay tres señales que nos ayudan a entender la obra del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas.

El relato bíblico del primer Pentecostés (en Hechos 2:1-11) nos dice que la venida del Espíritu Santo fue como una violenta ráfaga de viento que llenó toda la casa donde estaban reunidos. El viento es invisible, como el Espíritu Santo; no vemos el viento, pero vemos y sentimos sus efectos. Lo mismo pasa con el Espíritu Santo. Además, podríamos decir que el viento era como el soplo del mismo Dios. (De hecho, la palabra en latín para aliento es spiritus).

Los Hechos de los Apóstoles nos cuentan que aparecieron lenguas de fuego y se posaron sobre cada uno de los Apóstoles. El fuego nos muestra el calor del amor y la luz de la fe; estos son dos aspectos importantes de la vida y obra del Espíritu Santo en nosotros.

Una tercera señal del Espíritu Santo se encuentra en los relatos evangélicos del bautismo de Cristo. Nos dicen que el Espíritu Santo se apareció sobre Cristo en forma de paloma. La paloma es un signo de paz; una de las señales más claras de que estamos siendo guiados por el Espíritu Santo es que tenemos verdadera paz interior.

Hoy nos regocijamos en saber que hay muchas formas en que el Espíritu de Dios, invisible pero infinitamente poderoso, obra en nosotros y a nuestras vidas. Que todo lo que hagamos sea guiado por el Espíritu Santo, que es el aliento de vida de Dios mismo.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,
