Springtime

Last Tuesday, March 21st, was the official first day of Spring. Although California needs water, I suspect most of us hope for an end to the cold and rainy winter weather. It would be nice to be able to count on sunny skies and moderately warm temperatures.

The word "Lent" comes from the Old English word lencten, which means "springtime." Lent, then, is our spiritual springtime: a time of new life and new growth. Hopefully, our Lenten season has brought us spiritual life and growth: that's the purpose of the various practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that we carry out during this time. This weekend, as we begin the last two weeks before Easter, it's a good time to assess how our spiritual life is going. If it's necessary to hit the "reset button" for our Lent, we should do so.

The new life we celebrate with the Lord is so great on Easter; but we know that the Lord does not force his grace on us. Let's cultivate our hearts and souls to receive that grace and cooperate with it in our daily lives.

Primavera

El martes pasado, 21 de marzo fue el primer día oficial de la Primavera. Aunque el estado de California está en sequía, supongo que la mayoría de nosotros preferiríamos que termine el clima frío y lluvioso del invierno. Sería bueno poder contar con cielos soleados y temperaturas medianamente cálidas.

La palabra para Cuaresma, "Lent" en inglés, proviene de la antigua palabra inglesa "lencten", que significa "primavera". La Cuaresma, entonces, es nuestra primavera espiritual: un tiempo de nueva vida y nuevo crecimiento. Ojalá que nuestro tiempo de Cuaresma nos haya traído vida y crecimiento espiritual: ese es el propósito de las diversas prácticas de oración, ayuno y limosna que llevamos a cabo durante este tiempo. Este fin de semana, al comenzar las últimas dos semanas antes de Pascua, es un buen momento para evaluar cómo va nuestra vida espiritual. Si es necesario presionar el "botón de reinicio" para nuestra Cuaresma, debemos hacerlo.

La vida nueva que celebramos con el Señor es tan grande en la Pascua; pero sabemos que el Señor no impone su gracia sobre nosotros. Cultivemos nuestros corazones y almas para recibir esa gracia y cooperar con ella en nuestra vida diaria.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

During Lent we should ask ourselves – what pulls me away from loving God, loving others, and loving myself well? How can I incorporate acts of sacrifice, acts of giving, and acts of prayer that will help me love as God loves?

Lent is more than just “giving something up” and fasting from meat on Fridays. Pope Francis challenges us to think about fasting as something more powerful than we normally consider it, describing it as “learning to change our attitude towards others and all of creation, turning away from the temptation to ‘devour’ everything to satisfy our voracity and being ready to suffer for love, which can fill the emptiness of our hearts.” However, Lent can be an unhealthy time for those who struggle with scrupulosity, or it can be overwhelming to people who are already in a time of suffering. For some, the best Lent might be to make sure they get at least 7 hours of sleep or making the commitment to attend therapy.

GOOD FRIDAY

SPECIAL SECOND COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY LAND

Every year on Good Friday, a collection is taken up in Catholic Churches to support the work of the Franciscans working in the Holy Land. Christians there rely heavily on the help that comes to them from this worldwide collection. The Franciscan Monastery in Washington, D.C., coordinates this vital support for the work of the Franciscans who work in the Holy Land.

The Franciscans of the Custody of the Holy Land have the unique responsibility to care for the Holy Places as well for the "Living Stones," the Christians living there. It is vital that we support Christians living in the Holy Land, in order to maintain a Christian presence in the very land made holy by the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. Find more at: <https://myfranciscan.org/good-friday/>.

Please consider a donation during the second collection on April 7th, 2023.
