On Monday, October 23rd, Habitat for Humanity celebrated the groundbreaking for the Catholic Coalition Build in Tustin! In attendance were the Mayor Pro Tem of Tustin, Al Murray, Sharon Ellis, CEO of Habitat for Humanity OC, and a large contingent of Catholic priests and parishioners. Speeches were made, ribbons were cut and holy water was abundantly sprinkled around the site that will soon be home to two hard working Habitat OC veteran families whose dreams of homeownership will become a reality. Once the grading, utilities and foundations are poured there will be many opportunities to help build this dream. St. Edward the Confessor has donated over $6,000 to this effort so far! Please go to www.build.habitatoc.volunteerhub.com to register for volunteering. Stay tuned for building opportunities!

"Who of you will help the poor amongst us?"

You did !!!

Nearly two years ago, this question was posed to our St. Edward the Confessor parishioners. At that time, the parish entered into a partnership with Family Assistance Ministries (FAM), in San Clemente as a pilot program. In doing so, FAM established a satellite operation at the San Felipe chapel to better serve the poor of our community.

More than 20 parishioners answered the call to volunteer. They volunteered one or two Fridays a month from 10 AM to 1PM. The program has been an unquestionable success. It is helping the poor and homeless by having access to food, clothing, plus case management services such as shelter and job training. Those parishioners who have volunteered have seen lives changed. They came to know people who have been living on the streets for years receive help and turn their lives around. They have also witnessed families with young children, on the verge of being homeless, receive guidance to get back on their feet and become independent.

The program's success means we are going forward to make this a permanent ministry of our parish. Therefore, we are seeking two couples to serve as leads one or two days a month on Fridays. We are also in need for additional volunteers to help distribute food and gather information to provide to caseworkers.

If this is something you would like to be a part of or want more information, please call, Cindy Brauer 949.439.0809 or contact Deacon Al Scaduto at ascaduto@stedward.com

Donate Men's Jeans, Jackets and Sleeping Bags for the Homeless

November 18 & 19 after Masses

The homeless are just that—homeless. They wear the same clothes day and night and carry their possession with them. With cold weather upon us, they need washable sleeping bags, lightweight blankets, and small waterproof tarps.

The homeless in our area - who are predominately men—need jeans, sweatshirts, rain ponchos, work boots, tennis shoes, and socks (L). They also need warm outdoor jackets, preferably weather-proof, that are large enough to accommodate multiple layers of clothing underneath. (No dress jackets, coats, or dress shoes please!)

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Orange provides a pre-need Planning Program for Catholic Families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options.

The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

For information on advance planning and the choices you have, please contact Mary Ellen Lohnes

Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

This provision may be especially attractive for retirees who don't need all the income from their IRA to meet current living expenses. By donating the money to your charity, you can enjoy the satisfaction of knowing that you are contributing to a worthy cause while effectively lowering your tax bill.
