The Solemnity of our Patron Saint Edward the Confessor

This weekend we celebrate the solemnity of St. Edward the Confessor, our patron saint. A parish's patronal feast is one of the most important and solemn days in the life of a parish. Normally celebrated on October 13th, Bishop Vann has granted us permission to transfer the feast to this Sunday of Ordinary Time in order to foster greater awareness and veneration of St. Edward who intercedes for us.

St. Edward is the perfect intercessor for our parish. He was a grateful and generous steward of the gifts and responsibilities which God entrusted to him. Edward devoted his life to prayer and serving his people, particularly the poor. As such, he exemplifies and embodies all that is a House of Prayer and a House of the Poor.

Edward the Confessor was born in Islip, near Oxford, probably in 1005. He was the son of King Ethelred the Unready and his Norman queen, Emma. The family spent several years in exile in Normandy after the Danish invasion of 1013. While in exile, Edward vowed that he would make a pilgrimage to St Peter's in Rome if he managed to return safely to his kingdom. In 1042, the Viking dynasty died out and Edward was able to return to England and was elected King.

The Life of St. Edward

Edward found it impossible to leave his subjects and make the pilgrimage to Rome as he had vowed. Therefore, the Pope released him from his vow on the condition he founded a monastery and dedicated it to St Peter. In accordance with the Pope's wishes, Edward built a new cathedral in Norman style to replace the Saxon church at Westminster. The cathedral became known as Westminster Abbey.

Edward also made a promise of chastity and remained celibate even after his marriage to Edith, the daughter of one of his closest advisors.

Edward the Confessor was a deeply religious man. Some called him the monk-king since he prayed frequently and attended Mass every day. Unlike many kings, Edward was hailed throughout his life as a gentle, loyal and devoted king who resisted war and promoted peace.

Edward the Confessor died on January 5, 1066, was canonized in 1161, and his body was transferred to a shrine at Westminster Abbey in 1163.

Edward was an enigmatic figure who was believed to have the power to heal. He began the royal custom of touching ill people to cure them. In the centuries that followed, many sick people came to kneel at the shrine and ask to be healed. Richard II prayed there too, asking for strength before the Peasants' Revolt in 1381. The tradition continued for nearly 700 years until the reign of Queen Anne.

St. Edward's Sapphire

The St Edward's Sapphire is a sapphire and one of the Crown Jewels of the United Kingdom. It gets its name from Edward the Confessor who wore the stone in his ring. The blue stones on the front of our tabernacle link us to our patron saint and encourage us to imitate his devotion to the Eucharist and the poor.

St. Edward's Sapphire is also found on our processional cross to remind us of his presence with us at Mass; of the crosses he patiently endured; and, the crosses of others which he lightened.

Miracle of the Ring

Many legends sprang up about Edward the Confessor both during his lifetime and after his death. One that has stood the test of time happened towards the end of his life.

Legend has it that Edward was riding to a ceremony at a chapel dedicated to St. John the Evangelist in Essex when a beggar asked for alms. Edward had no money with him so he took off his ring and handed it to the poor man instead.

A few years later, two English pilgrims were travelling through the Holy Land and became stranded. They were helped by an old man who told them he was St. John the Evangelist. He was carrying the ring Edward had given to the beggar some years previously. He asked the pilgrims to return it to the king telling him that in six months he would meet St. John in heaven.

What is a Patron Saint?

The practice of adopting patron saints goes back to the building of the first public churches in the Roman Empire, most of which were built over the graves of martyrs. The churches were then given the name of the martyr who was called upon to intercede for that Christian community. Soon, Christians began to dedicate churches to other holy men and women—saints—who were not martyrs. Often, a particular saint was chosen because of the saint's connection to that place—he/she had preached the Gospel there, died there, or his/her relics are present there. That's not the case with our church.

How was St. Edward Chosen as our Patron Saint?

When Father Cook who was sent to build a new church in Capistrano Beach in 1950, Mrs. Edward Doheny donated the money to build the church and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Bucheim generously donation the land. At the request of Mrs. Doheny, the chapel, now named San Felipe de Jesus, was named in honor of her late husband Edward. Because churches are named after – and dedicated to - canonized saints, a saint with the name Edward was chosen as the patron saint. The Bishop of Orange chose St. Edward the Confessor, the pious King of England.

Why is he called the “Confessor”?

Edward is called the “Confessor” but he wasn't a priest and, therefore, he didn't hear confessions. Many saints were given titles such as martyr, virgin, apostle. After Christianity was legalized in the 4th century the number of Christian martyrs decreased. The term “confessor” developed as a way of recognizing those who confessed (preached) the Gospel publically by a life of heroic virtue and often suffered for doing so but not to the point of death.

Do we have any Statues of St. Edward?

Yes. A statue of St. Edward is enshrined in an alcove near the baptism font. As you exiting the property, near the entrance of the parish school, you will see a beautiful statue of King Edward holding a scepter and Westminster Abbey. These statues are meant to be places of veneration and prayer.

What is St. Edward the Patron Saint of?

(1) Our parish and (2) difficult marriages.

Is there a relic of St. Edward in our altar?

Whenever possible, a relic of a church's patron saint is placed inside the altar. Edward the Confessor is the only major English saint whose body is still in its shrine. It is not entirely clear that any relics were taken from the body of St. Edward even though relics claiming to be from Edward occasionally surface. However, the relics of eight saints are enshrined at the base of our altar. They are: St. Catherine of Siena, St. Paul the Apostle, St. Jerome, St. Bernadette Soubirous, St. Agnes of Rome, St. John Neumann, St. Dorothy, and St. Anne Line.

Ushers Needed for Weekend Masses

Ushers provide hospitality, comfort, and safety at Sunday masses and other special liturgies. Before mass, ushers foster a sense of community by welcoming members of our parish and visitors.

Following all weekend masses, ushers distribute the weekly bulletin and then assure that the church is ready for the next liturgy. Generally, the time commitment for an usher is 1-1.5 hours each week. Come celebrate mass with your family, serve our community and be an example of Christ's love and witness to our community.

Mary's Corner Gift Shop & Library

Please stop by St. Edward's very own gift shop & library! We are located just outside the church entrance and are open Sunday mornings from 8:15am – 12:30pm.

The gift shop contains a variety of religious articles: bibles, books, crucifixes, medals, children's toys, scapulars and musical CDs. There are also several gift items for baptisms, communions and confirmations! The library, which has recently been reorganized and updated, contains over 300 books. There are categories on saints, scripture, apologetics, spiritual leaders, prayer, church history, and much more. We also have audio books and a wide variety of DVDs.

We look forward to seeing you on Sunday!

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at 429-2874 or email: tleeman@stedward.com
