Transfiguration

This weekend the Sunday Gospel tells of the Transfiguration of Jesus: When he took Peter, James, and John to the top of Mount Tabor and allowed them to see the glory of his divinity. This Gospel also provided Pope Francis the inspiration for his Lenten message this year.

Our Holy Father speaks of how Lent calls all of us to climb upward. "We need to set out on the journey, an uphill path that, like a mountain trek, requires effort, sacrifice and concentration." Whatever our Lenten penance may be, it is something we do in union with the Lord and his disciples; we are not alone. And the beautiful sight of the Lord's glory, at the summit, is more than worth the journey.

As we continue our Lenten climb, let's not become discouraged or complacent. This is really the journey of a lifetime: a lifetime with Jesus, who suffered, died, and rose from the dead to save us. With our eyes fixed on him, all things become possible. He never calls us to do something without giving us the grace to do it.

Let's cooperate with the graces of this season, so that Easter will truly be a celebration of new life in the Lord.

La Transfiguración

Este fin de semana el Evangelio dominical narra la Transfiguración de Jesús: Cuando llevó a Pedro, Santiago y Juan a la cima del monte Tabor y les permitió ver la gloria de su divinidad. El Papa Francisco también utilizó este Evangelio como inspiración para su mensaje de Cuaresma de este año.

Nuestro Santo Padre nos dice que la Cuaresma nos invita a todos a subir cuesta arriba. "Necesitamos emprender el camino, un camino cuesta arriba, como cuando hacemos una caminata hacia una montaña, requiere esfuerzo, sacrificio y concentración". Cualquiera que sea nuestra penitencia cuaresmal, es algo que hacemos unidos al Señor y a sus discípulos; no estamos solos. Y en la cumbre de la montaña veremos la hermosa gloria del Señor, y diremos; valió la pena el viaje.

A medida que continuamos nuestro ascenso de Cuaresma, no nos desanimemos ni nos demos por satisfechos. Este es realmente el viaje de toda una vida: una vida con Jesús, quien sufrió, murió y resucitó de entre los muertos para salvarnos. Con los ojos fijados en él, todo es posible. Él nunca nos llama a hacer algo sin antes darnos la gracia para hacerlo.

Cooperemos con las gracias de este tiempo, para que la Pascua sea verdaderamente una celebración de vida nueva en el Señor.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

GIVE

During Lent we practice self-control through fasting. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. How can I do that? Here are a few ideas: Eat out less and donate food or money to a food pantry. Say "No" to extras like sweets, alcohol, coffee, soft drinks, etc. to help strengthen yourself to say "No" to sin. Fasting can also be cutting down on or giving up screen time and giving yourself time to pray and notice the needs of others.

Thank you for celebrating the Eucharist with us today!

As we gather together as one for Mass, we realize that Mass cannot happen with just one person. It takes a team of people with different talents and gifts to help make our celebration of Mass a success.

Where is God calling you to help out?
