Mothers' Day Spiritual Bouquet Cards

If you would like to enroll someone in our Mothers' Day Novena, Spiritual Bouquet cards are available in the parish office and in the back of church. The Novena will begin Sunday, May 12 through Monday, May 20

We are continuing to learn of attempts at emails and via text messaging fraud targeted at our community. Please be aware that priests and staff at St. Edward Church will NEVER request any wire transfer or purchase of gift cards from anyone via email.

We have been in touch with law enforcement who has advised that the only way to stop this type of fraud is by education. Once the criminals realize that our community is no longer a soft target, the number of incidents will decrease and, hopefully, disappear.

Please be very careful and do not respond to these type of requests without verifying who is sending them, even if the email appears to be urgent and legitimate. Feel free to contact the Parish Office if you have questions.

St. Edward the Confessor Catholic Church & Servants of the Word Present: Serenity Day Retreat on Tuesday, May 21, 2019

With guest speaker Sr. Jeanne Fallon, CSJ, Loyola Institute for Spirituality, Orange
Retreat topic: "Finding God in All Things"

Sr. Jeanne is a Sister of St. Joseph, a former missionary in Papua New Guinea, a spiritual director and supervisor of spiritual directors. Her ministry in spirituality for the past 33 years reflects a holistic approach, integrating body, mind, spirit and emotions as well as promoting the healing of the whole person through BioSpiritual Focusing. "Finding God in All Things" presents the Ignatian sense of sentir, attending to a felt-knowledge that connects us to our inner selves, to God and to others.

Please join us for this Silent Retreat offering a morning of prayer, reflection and inspiration.

Schedule:

8:00am Registration, Knight Hall
8:15am Mass, St. Edward's Church
9:00am-noon-Lite Fare and Program, Knight Hall

Our Mothers

The Most Important Person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral—a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby's body....The angels have not been blessed with such a grace. They cannot share in God's creative miracle to bring new saints to Heaven. Only a human mother can. Mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other creature; God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation...What on God's good earth is more glorious than this: to be a mother?

Although the reference to Notre Dame Cathedral is now bittersweet, these words (written during the last century by Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty) are an eloquent testimony to the special vocation of mothers. As we celebrate Mother's Day, our minds and hearts go out to our mothers and to all the others who fulfill a motherly role in our lives. Their nurturing, loving presence in our lives is a sign of the love of God himself. May God reward them in abundance.

Gratefully yours,
Fr. Philip

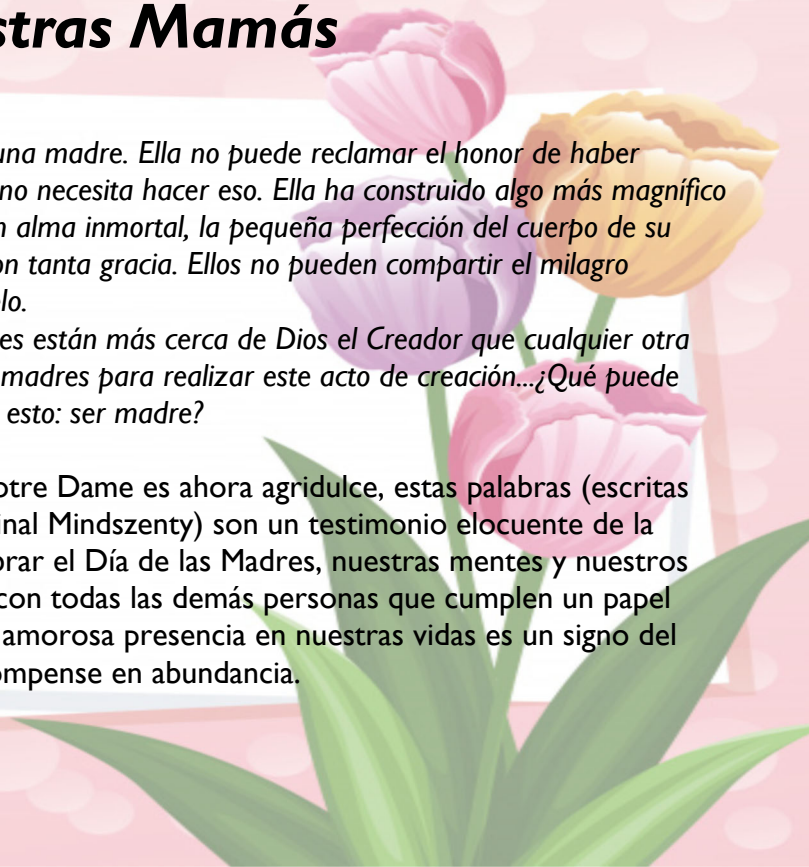

Nuestras Mamás

La persona más importante en la tierra es una madre. Ella no puede reclamar el honor de haber construido la catedral de Notre Dame. Ella no necesita hacer eso. Ella ha construido algo más magnífico que cualquier catedral: una morada para un alma inmortal, la pequeña perfección del cuerpo de su bebé...Ni los ángeles han sido bendecidos con tanta gracia. Ellos no pueden compartir el milagro creativo de Dios y traer nuevos santos al cielo.

Sólo una madre puede hacer eso. Las madres están más cerca de Dios el Creador que cualquier otra criatura; Dios une sus fuerzas con la de las madres para realizar este acto de creación...¿Qué puede haber en la tierra que sea más glorioso que esto: ser madre?

Aunque la referencia a la Catedral de Notre Dame es ahora agri dulce, estas palabras (escritas durante el siglo pasado por Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty) son un testimonio elocuente de la vocación especial de las madres. Al celebrar el Día de las Madres, nuestras mentes y nuestros corazones están con nuestras madres y con todas las demás personas que cumplen un papel maternal en nuestras vidas. Su ternura y amorosa presencia en nuestras vidas es un signo del amor mismo de Dios. Que Dios las recompense en abundancia.

Con agradecimiento,
Padre Felipe

ALUMNI IN THE NEWS

An education at The Parish School is not just about academics. Although vitally important, the school also develops lifelong learners who are confident, resilient, competitive and hard-working. Nowhere else is this more evident than with our alumni who continue to display their Monarch traits well after leaving our school. Following are some recent alumni highlights:

Emily & Jimmy Wale (Class of 2016) - Currently juniors at San Juan Hills High School, Emily and Jimmy Wale recently participated in the Virtual Enterprise (VE) "Youth Business Summit," an international competition for young entrepreneurs in New York City involving 400 schools and 10 countries. Emily (CEO) and Jimmy (CFO) submitted their business plan in the very prestigious Business Plan competition, for their "virtual" company inVEst - a virtual stock market using block chain technology for VE businesses and students. Emily and Joe advanced to the top-16, placed second in the Marketing Plan competition and received Gold Awards for Sales Pitch and Booth Design. What an incredible accomplishment Emily and Joe!

Claire Crafts (Class of 2016) - Congratulations to Claire Crafts who was recently named the 2019/2020 ASB President for Santa Margarita Catholic High School. Claire previously served as ASB Treasurer, is very active in Model United Nations, and is the author of her first novel "Trust the Wind" currently available on Amazon.

Consider The Pastoral Council as the Ministry for You

Are you considering making a commitment to serve our parish in a new way? Do you have a family member or know a parishioner who you believe is a good candidate to serve in this important ministry at St. Edward the Confessor? We are seeking 5-6 new Pastoral Council members who will be willing to meet for two hours once a month for a three year term. The Pastoral Council is a collaborative and advisory team who advises our pastor on matters regarding the faith life of our parish. Visit the Pastoral Council pages on the parish website for more information.

If you have questions, please contact a Pastoral Council member - they can be reached via their email addresses which are on the Parish website: www.stedward.com, under Councils.

Please submit an application (available in English and Spanish in the Parish Office), by May 17.
 We look forward to hearing from you.

North American Martyrs St. Charles Garnier was ordained in 1635. St. He served as a missionary among the Huron in Canada. Greatly influenced by his fellow missionary Jean de Brébeuf, he was known as the “lamb” to Brebeuf’s “lion.” From 1641 to 1646 Garnier was at the Saint-Joseph Mission. There were raids between Iroquois and Huron forces. Along with five other Jesuit missionaries killed in Canada and upstate New York from 1642 to 1649, they are known collectively as the North American Martyrs.

St. Rafael Guízar y Valencia was a Mexican Catholic bishop who lived in the late 19th and early 10th Century. He was known for caring for the sick and wounded during the Mexican Revolution. During the revolution, he continued his work as a priest despite facing intense persecution and was forced to flee to Cuba. After the revolution he returned to Mexico, and continued his ministry to the poor and infirmed until his death in 1938. St. Rafael Guízar y Valencia was canonized in October 15 by Pope Benedict XVI. The relic was gifted to the Diocese and Bishop Vann by Rev. Al Baca.

St. Junípero Serra was a Franciscan friar who traveled across Mexico and Alta California in the 18th century on a legendary mission to spread the faith. The Diocese of Orange’s origins – along with the roots of Catholicism in Orange County, California, and the United States – can be traced to Serra. He converted about 5,000 Native Americans before his death in 1784. Fr. Serra died and was buried at his headquarters Mission Carmel, just outside of Monterey. St. Serra was canonized by Pope Francis in 2015

Ushers' Motto

"Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as unto the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ."

The Benefits of an hour of Adoration

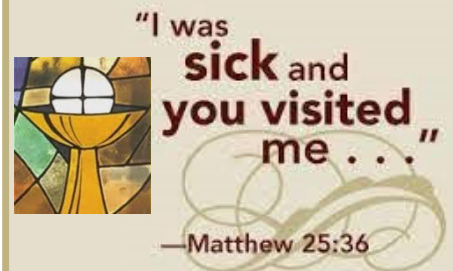

In Adoration you can enjoy the peace that the world cannot give. The pressures and anxieties of the day diminish while in the presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. One hour in Adoration on 1st and/or 3rd Monday of the month can change your life!

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at (949) 429-2874 or tleeman@stedward.com

2. Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

Another way to donate to the Capital Campaign!

Reminder that you can donate to the Pastoral Center Campaign by using WeShare, our online service. It is very flexible in terms of payment method, frequency and amount.
