I was born and raised in the desert area of Sonora, Mexico. As a child, I found I had a talent for art and I wanted to develop that talent as a life career. As time passed, my heart would pull me in another direction. But, I continued to focus on art as a career, even when somehow I knew there was another life path for me. At 25, I realized I had a calling from God, and I surrendered myself to Him.

I began to recognize that this calling had been there since my childhood in many ways and I entered the seminary. The soft voice of God touched my heart and I listened. I joined a young-adult group in my parish and talked with my pastor. That conversation was a turning point and a vocational retreat confirmed my new direction.

The doubts that used to haunt me began to vanish once I made the choice God had put in my path. Thanks to the continued assistance of my spiritual directors, the priests in charge of formation, and through my personal moments of adoration and the prayers of many people who supported me, I realized and confirmed my choice again in God's direction.

In spite of this awareness, in 1997, I left the Seminary of Tijuana and moved to California to continue my art studies. Providentially, I lived and worked in a church as coordinator of the Hispanic Community. God, who was guiding my steps all along, called me again while I was working there. In 1998, I joined the Congregation of the Missionaries of the Holy Spirit. With them, I finished my theology studies at Mt. Angel Seminary in Oregon.

Through prayer and spiritual guidance, I realized that my calling was not to religious life but to diocesan. So, in November 2000, I arrived at the Diocese of Orange. Bishop Brown assigned me to the Church of St. Joseph in Santa Ana, where I began my Internship, which I concluded at Holy Family Cathedral in Orange. It was on June 7, 2003, I fulfilled my destiny and I was ordained as a Priest of Christ.

My first assignment was at St. Boniface in Anaheim where I served for four years. My second position was at the Mission Basilica San Juan Capistrano where I had the privilege of serving God's people for another four years. The Holy Spirit called me to continue in my ministry life serving in the parish of St. Mary's in Fullerton for three years. Now a new chapter of my life brings me to the community of St. Edward and San Felipe de Jesus Chapel where I will continue to serve Jesus Christ and the community.

I pray daily to our Lord, through his blessed Mother, to continue to give me the wisdom, love, and zeal to serve you. God bless us all.

Nací y crecí en la zona del desierto de Sonora, México. Cuando era niño, me di cuenta que tenía talento para el arte y yo quería desarrollar ese talento haciendo una carrera basada en eso. A medida que pasaba el tiempo, mi corazón se fue por otra dirección. Pero, continué mi carrera por el camino del arte, aunque de alguna manera yo sabía que había otro camino para mí. A los 25 años, me di cuenta que tenía un llamado de Dios, y me entregué a él. Empecé a reconocer que este llamado había estado allí desde mi infancia de muchas maneras y entré al Seminario. La suave voz de Dios tocó mi corazón y escuche su llamado. Me uní a un grupo de jóvenes de oración en mi parroquia y hablé con el párroco. Esa conversación fue el punto de reflexión al igual que el vivir un retiro vocacional confirmó mi nueva dirección.

Las dudas que solían atormentarme comenzaron a desaparecer una vez que acepte a Dios y lo que él había puesto en mi camino. Gracias a la asistencia continua de mis directores espirituales, los sacerdotes encargados de la formación, los momentos personales que estuve en adoración y la oración de muchas personas que me apoyaron, me di cuenta y confirme una vez más lo que Dios quería de mí.

A pesar de estar consciente de esto en el año de 1997, me salí del Seminario de Tijuana y me mudé a California para continuar mis estudios de arte. Providencialmente, viví y trabajé en una iglesia como coordinador de la comunidad hispana. Dios, que guiaba mi pasos todo el tiempo, me llamó otra vez mientras yo estaba trabajando allí. En 1998, me uní a la Congregación de los Misioneros del Espíritu Santo. Con ellos, concluí mis estudios de teología el Seminario de Mt. Angel en Oregon.

A través de la oración y dirección espiritual, me di cuenta que mi vocación no era la vida religiosa, sino la vida diocesana. Así, que en noviembre del 2000, llegué a la Diócesis de Orange. El obispo Brown me asignó a la Iglesia de San José, en Santa Ana, donde comencé como asistente, y concluí en la Catedral de La Sagrada Familia en la ciudad de Orange. Era el 7 de junio del 2003, cuando finalmente cumplí mi destino y fui ordenado sacerdote de Cristo.

Mi primer trabajo fue en San Bonifacio en Anaheim donde serví durante cuatro años. Mi segunda posición fue en la Basílica de la Misión San Juan Capistrano, donde tuve el privilegio de servir al pueblo de Dios por otros cuatro años. El Espíritu Santo me llamo a servir en este ministerio en la parroquia de St. Mary en Fullerton durante tres años. Ahora, comienza un nuevo capítulo en mi vida ahora el Espíritu Santo me lleva a la comunidad de San Eduardo y de San Felipe de Jesús donde continúo sirviendo a Jesucristo y la comunidad.

Rezo todos los días al Señor, para que a través de su bendita Madre, me siga llenando de sabiduría, amor y vigor para servir.

Dios los bendiga.

CURRENT THREATS TO RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

USCCB Fact Sheet

2014

Pope Benedict XVI spoke in 2012 about his worry that religious liberty in the United States is being weakened. He called religious liberty the “most cherished of American freedoms.” Unfortunately, our most cherished freedom is under threat:

- HHS mandate for sterilization, contraception, and abortion-inducing drugs. The mandate of the Department of Health and Human Services forces religious institutions to facilitate and/or fund a product contrary to their own moral teaching. Further, the federal government tries to define which religious institutions are “religious enough” to merit protection of their religious liberty.
- Catholic foster care and adoption services. Boston, San Francisco, the District of Columbia, and the State of Illinois have driven local Catholic Charities out of the business of providing adoption or foster care services—by revoking their licenses, by ending their government contracts, or both—because those Charities refused to place children with same-sex couples or unmarried opposite-sex couples who cohabit.
- State immigration laws. Several states have passed laws that forbid what they deem as “harboring” of undocumented immigrants—and what the Church deems Christian charity and pastoral care to these immigrants.
- Discrimination against small church congregations. New York City adopted a policy that barred the Bronx Household of Faith and other churches from renting public schools on weekends for worship services, even though non-religious groups could rent the same schools for many other uses. Litigation in this case continues.

- Discrimination against Catholic humanitarian services. After years of excellent performance by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Migration and Refugee Services (MRS) in administering contract services for victims of human trafficking, the federal government changed its contract specifications to require MRS to provide or refer for contraceptive and abortion services in violation of Catholic teaching.
- Christian students on campus. In its over-100-year history, the University of California Hastings College of Law has denied student organization status to only one group, the Christian Legal Society, because it required its leaders to be Christian and to abstain from sexual activity outside of marriage.

Is our most cherished freedom truly under threat?

Yes, Pope Benedict XVI recognized just two years ago that various attempts to limit the freedom of religion in the U.S. are particularly concerning. The threat to religious freedom is larger than any single case or issue and has its roots in secularism in our culture. The Holy Father has asked for the laity to have courage to counter secularism that would “delegitimize the Church’s participation in public debate about the issues which are determining the future of American society.”

What can you do to ensure the protection of religious freedom at home and abroad?

The U.S. Bishops have called for a Fortnight for Freedom from June 21 to July 4, 2014. Please visit www.fortnight4freedom.org for more information on this important time of prayer, education, and action in support of religious freedom!
