The Serenity Prayer

Written by American Protestant theologian Reinhold Niebuhr around 1930, the Serenity Prayer is a favorite among Catholics and Protestants alike. Although part of a longer prayer, the first sentence is what we often remember and repeat:

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change,
The courage to change the things I can,
And the wisdom to know the difference.

There are so many things in our lives that are beyond our control and, although we know we they're beyond our control, we sometimes allow ourselves to become anxious and fearful over them.

St. Ignatius of Loyola encourages us, saying:

"A busy man must make up his mind to do what he can, without afflicting himself if he cannot do all that he wishes. You must have patience and not think that God our Lord requires what man cannot accomplish. There is no need to wear yourself out, but make a competent and sufficient effort, and leave the rest to him who can do all he pleases."

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change.

However, serenity and prayer must be accompanied by courage and work. The Catechism of Catholic Church (#2384) quotes an old axiom also attributed to St. Ignatius: "Pray as if everything depended on God and work as if everything depended on you." To have a serene heart about the things we cannot change does not mean that we become indifferent or lazy. On the contrary, we pray for the courage to change the things we can, working as if everything depended on us while praying as if everything depended on God."

May God grant me the courage to change the things I can.

Consider identifying the things and/or people in your life that cause you stress and anxiety. Can you change them? Do they require serenity or courage or perhaps a little of both?

God, grant us the wisdom to know the difference.

Renovación de la Iglesia

P: No había planes para construir una nueva Capilla Eucaristía?

R: Sí. Después de consultar con el Padre Steve Sallot y el comité de renovación parroquial, el consultor litúrgico, Robert Habiger, presentan dos opciones para el proyecto de renovación. Ambas opciones fueron más extensas y, por lo tanto, más caras que lo que estamos realizando. Esto incluye el 15% de contingencia que se añade a todos los proyectos de construcción de la parroquia, el costo total de la renovación con una Capilla Eucarística nueva se estimó en $ 5.5 millones. Después de consultar con varios consejos parroquiales, decidí reducir el alcance y el costo de las renovaciones que se estima en $ 2.3 millones.

P: Me di cuenta de que las bancas no están acolchadas. Y los reclinatorios estarán acolchados?

R: Sí. (Visite el sitio web de la parroquia si usted se está preguntando esto:?) (1) ¿Por qué estamos comprando nuevas bancas en lugar de la restaurar las que ya teníamos? (2) ¿Habrán más lugares para minusválidos (3) ¿Habrán bancas en el balcón (4) ¿Dónde están las bancas viejas?)

P: Había cuestiones con el control de la temperatura en la iglesia. ¿Está esto solucionado?

R: Sí. Antes de decidir seguir adelante con la renovación se evaluó la calefacción y las condiciones del aire del sistema de la iglesia. Nuevos termostatos y respiraderos direccionales se instalarán en la iglesia para un mejor control de la temperatura en la iglesia.

P: ¿Cuál es el esquema del color para la iglesia?

R: El color juega un papel importante en nuestra adoración litúrgica. El color se utiliza para distinguir y resaltar varias temporadas litúrgicas, celebraciones y áreas dentro de la iglesia. Además, el color puede afectar nuestra mente, cuerpo y espíritu. El techo será pintado de un color crema claro. Una paleta de tonos cálidos, fueron seleccionados para las paredes y acentuar nuestra hermosa vista al mar. Además, un color gris/perla con un color marrón o café que se incorporarán en la alfombra y suelo para atar todo el esquema de colores juntos.

P: ¿Tendremos el sistema de audífonos en la iglesia, como teníamos antes?

R: ¡Sí! Además, los nuevos altavoces están siendo instalados para mejorar la calidad de la Palabra de Dios cantada y hablada.

P: ¿Cómo va la renovación?

R: A partir del lunes, 26 de enero todo va marchando bien con la renovación y en el presupuesto estimado.

Renovation update

Q: Weren't there plans to build a new Eucharist Chapel?

A: Yes. After consulting with Fr. Steve Sallot and the parish renovation committee, the liturgical consultant, Robert Habiger, presented two options for the renovation project. Both options were more extensive and, therefore, more expensive than the scope of work we are undertaking. Including a 15% contingency that is added on to all parish construction projects, the total cost of the renovation with a new Eucharistic Chapel was estimated to at $5.5M. After consulting with various parish councils, I decided to reduce the scope and cost of the renovations which is estimated at $2.3M.

Q: I noticed that the pews are not padded. Will the kneelers be padded?

A: Yes. (Visit the parish website if you are wondering: (1) Why are we purchasing new pews instead of refurbishing the old ones? (2) Will there be more wheelchair-accessible seats? (3) Will there be pews in the balcony? (4) Where are the old pews going?)

Q: There seemed to be issues controlling the temperature in the church. Are you addressing that?

A: Yes. Before deciding to move forward with the renovations the church's heating and air conditions system was evaluated. New thermostats and directional vents will be installed in the church to better control the temperature and direct the air.

Q: What is the color scheme for the church?

A: Color plays an important role in our liturgical worship. Color is used to distinguish and highlight various liturgical seasons, celebrations and areas within the church. In addition, color can affect our mind, body and spirit. The ceiling will be painted a light cream color. A palette of warm, golden, sand tones were selected for the walls to accent our beautiful ocean view. Additionally, river pearl grey and a pecan canyon brown will be incorporated in the carpet and flooring to tie the entire color scheme together.

Q: Will we have the hearing aid system in the church as we had before?

A: Yes! In addition, new speakers are being installed to improve the quality of the spoken and sung Word of God.

Q: How are the renovations going?

A: As of Monday, January 26th, the renovations are on schedule and on budget.

Mythbusting: Comprehensive Immigration Reform

Myth: Undocumented immigrants are burden on the U.S. healthcare system.

Fact: Federal, state and local governments spend approximately $1.1 billion annually on healthcare costs of undocumented immigrants, aged 18-64, compared to $88 billion spent on all health care for non-elderly adults in the U.S. in 2000. Foreign-born individuals tend to use few healthcare services because they are relatively healthier than their native-born counterparts.
