Come, Holy Spirit

As we celebrate Pentecost on May 28th, three symbols can help us appreciate the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Scriptural account of the first Pentecost (in Acts 2:1-11) tells us that the coming of the Holy Spirit was signaled by the sound of a strong driving wind. Wind is invisible, like the Holy Spirit; we do not see the wind, but we see and feel its effects. The same is true of the Holy Spirit. Also, we could say that the wind was like the breath of God himself. (In fact, the Latin word for breath is spiritus.)

The Acts of the Apostles tell us that tongues of fire appeared and came to rest on each of the Apostles. Fire shows us the warmth of love and the light of faith; these are two important aspects of the life and work of the Holy Spirit in us.

Another symbol of the Holy Spirit is found in the Gospel accounts of the Baptism of Christ. They tell us that the Holy Spirit appeared over Christ in the form of a dove. The dove is a sign of peace; one of the clearest signs that we are being guided by the Holy Spirit is that we have true inner peace.

Today we rejoice in the many ways that the Spirit of God works in us and around us. May all we do be guided by the Holy Spirit!

Ven, Espíritu Santo

Mientras celebramos Pentecostés el 28 de mayo, tres signos nos pueden ayudarnos a apreciar la obra del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas.

El relato bíblico del primer Pentecostés (en Hechos 2:1-11) nos dice que la venida del Espíritu Santo fue como el de una violenta ráfaga de viento, que soplabla. Sabemos que el viento es invisible, como el Espíritu Santo es invisible; no vemos el viento, pero vemos y sentimos sus efectos. Lo mismo es cierto del Espíritu Santo. Además, podríamos decir que el viento era como un soplo del mismo Dios. (De hecho, la palabra en latín para aliento es spiritus).

Los Hechos de los Apóstoles nos narran que aparecieron unas lenguas de fuego que se repartieron y se posaron sobre cada uno de los Apóstoles. El fuego significa el calor del amor y la luz de la fe; estos son dos aspectos importantes de la vida y obra del Espíritu Santo en nosotros.

Otro símbolo del Espíritu Santo se encuentra en los relatos evangélicos del bautismo de Jesucristo. Nos dice que el Espíritu Santo se apareció sobre Jesucristo en forma de una paloma. La paloma es un signo de paz; una de las señales más claras de que estamos siendo guiados por el Espíritu Santo es que tenemos verdadera paz interior.

Hoy nos regocijamos en las distintas formas en que el Espíritu de Dios obra en nosotros y a nuestro alrededor. ¡Que todo lo que hagamos sea guiado por el Espíritu Santo!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

Mental Health Ministry

Featured on the Pope's Prayer Network

We pray that mental health ministry becomes an integral ministry in the Church that is available in every Catholic parish and community.

We pray for the elimination of the stigma and discrimination that people living with a mental illness encounter.

We pray that all men, women and children of God know that they have somewhere to turn to at St. Edward the Confessor.

SYNODALITY AT ST. EDWARD #6

Sign ups have begun! We want everyone in the parish to participate. From 15 years old to 100 years young. Whether a practicing Catholic or an occasional Catholic. Even non-practicing Catholics!

Synodality means traveling together. It is the idea that the Church is a community of diverse people who journey together towards a common goal. This journey involves listening to one another and working together to discern how the Church can better understand and serve the whole community. Listening involves a willingness to engage in open and honest dialogue, to listen to different perspectives, and to work towards consensus.

The mission of the Church requires the entire People of God to be on a journey together, with each member playing his or her crucial role, united with each other. A synodal Church walks forward in communion to pursue a common mission through the participation of each and every one of her members. The objective of this Synodal Process is not to provide a temporary or onetime experience of synodality, but rather to provide an opportunity for the entire People of God to discern together how to move forward on the path towards being a more synodal Church in the long-term. For the first time in over a millennium, the laity are participating in the synodal process. Women constitute the majority of participants in this process.

Next week, The Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity will also be Synodality Sunday! You will hear directly from the members of the Synodality committee. We will also be outside of Church after the Masses.

Processions are important in our Catholic culture. They are a custom going back to our Jewish roots. Catholic processions are a form of pilgrimage first undertaken by the Jews to represent important historical events. Catholics have processions for special occasions to remind us that the Christian life is a constant movement toward God and our eternal home. A simple practice that can make an impression on children, especially when parents participate! Help to make this Corpus Christi more concrete and significant by attending our procession 3pm Sunday June 11.

On June 13, 1917, when she appeared to three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, the Most Holy Mother of God told Lucia dos Santos, "Jesus wishes to make use of you to make me known and loved.
