Continuing Education for Catholics

Many occupations such as physicians, nurses, dentists, professional counselors, lawyers, accountants, and even cosmetologists require employees to stay up to date through continuing education (CE). For example, professional counselors in California must take 36 hours of continuing education to renew their license every 2 years to ensure that they have the latest knowledge in their fields. Even if continuing education is not required, anyone who takes pride in his or her work wants to learn more. This holds especially true for us who are disciples (i.e. students) and evangelizers of Christ. Whether you are a recent convert or a "cradle Catholic" who went through Catholic school your whole life, being a disciple of Christ means growing daily in our knowledge of him and our relationship with him.

Please take a moment to look at page 5 this bulletin and review the numerous opportunities available through St. Edward the Confessor for continuing education in the faith. For example, we have three Bible studies this fall, small faith-sharing groups, classes for people considering becoming Catholic, and even an on-line library of free books, classes, and movies for children, teens and adults through FORMED.org.

It is a joy to learn more about God who is the source of our life and joy. Studying our faith also keeps us focused on God, gives a great example to our children and can create a rewarding social network as well. We spend our time doing many things; let's make a commitment to invest in our spiritual lives. Please sign up today for one of the many faith formation opportunities.

Educación continua para Católicos

Muchas ocupaciones tales como médicos, enfermeras, dentistas, consejeros profesionales, abogados, contadores, e incluso los cosmetólogos requieren que los empleados estén al día a través de la educación continua (EC). Por ejemplo, los asesores profesionales en California deben tener 36 horas de educación continua para renovar su licencia cada 2 años y asegurarse de que tengan los conocimientos recientes en sus campos de trabajo. Incluso si no se requiere la educación continua, cualquier persona que se enorgullece de su trabajo quiere aprender más. Esto es especialmente cierto para nosotros que somos discípulos (es decir, estudiantes) y evangelizadores de Cristo. Si se ha convertido recientemente al catolicismo o si es un "católico de nacimiento" y pasó por la escuela católica toda su vida, ser un discípulo de Cristo significa crecer día a día en el conocimiento de él y nuestra relación con él.

Por favor tome un momento para mirar en la página 5 de este boletín y vea la gran cantidad de oportunidades que esta parroquia de San Eduardo el Confesor ofrece para continuar con la educación en la fe. Por ejemplo, tenemos tres estudios bíblicos comenzando este otoño, pequeños grupos para compartir la fe, clases para personas que están considerando convertirse al catolicismo, e incluso una biblioteca en línea de libros gratuitos, clases y películas para niños, adolescentes y adultos a través FORMED.org.

Es una alegría aprender más acerca de Dios que es la fuente de nuestra vida y alegría. El estudio de nuestra fe también nos mantiene enfocados en Dios, damos un gran ejemplo a nuestros hijos y también puede crear una red social gratificante. Pasamos nuestro tiempo haciendo muchas cosas; vamos a hacer un compromiso de invertir en nuestra vida espiritual. Por favor, regístrate hoy en alguna de las muchas oportunidades de formación en la fe.

Ministry Spotlight

Wednesday Night Bible Study

Wednesdays 7:00 p.m. (24 weeks)
in Knight Hall
Beginning Wednesday, September 21st

Bible Study 101 is the first at St Edward Parish that will provide context to help you study the Bible. This framework will help those who have not experience Bible study groups or want to improve their learning experience. Donna Couch will provide materials and take us on a journey through scripture to prepare us for many group and/or self-study that follows in your spiritual journey.

The Prophets: Messengers of God's Mercy

If we consider that God is the Divine Bridegroom and the Church is his Bride, then the prophets can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors." They afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted, calling us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom.

Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come

In this intriguing look at one of the most talked-about books in Scripture, Jeff Cavins explores Revelation to demonstrate how the kingdom established by Christ in his Church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of the Mass. You will learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation present, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history.

Registration Information

Stop at our table after Masses today for information or attend our first meeting on September 21st.

Registration & materials are $55

For more information on the study, call Mike Chapman at (949)547-0767 or via email: mchapman1001@yahoo.com.

Servants of the Word Bible Study

Tuesdays 9:00 am – 11:30 a.m.
in Knight Hall
Beginning Tuesday, September 20th

Join us for these two exciting studies:

Doors of Mercy – Exploring God's Covenant With You.

Mercy: how deeply we all need it. Mercy brings peace and solace and mends wounded or broken relationships. God's mercy is closer than we can imagine. In this study we will take the step towards not only receiving God's mercy in a different way, but also understanding it in the context of salvation history.

The Bible and the Virgin Mary Journey Through Scripture.

This Bible study is designed to help ordinary Catholics grow in their knowledge of the Scriptures while deepening their understanding of the riches of our faith. Distinctively Catholic, Journey Through Scripture reads the Bible from the heart of the Church, engaging both the Old and New Testaments and how they work together. It's grounded in history, yet actively engages topics faced by today's Catholic. By the end of this study, you'll understand why Catholics honor Mary as the human person who most perfectly conforms to the image of God.

Registration Information

Stop at our table after Masses today or attend our first meeting on September 20th.

Registration & materials are $45.
