Oro, Incienso y Mirra

La solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor es la última gran celebración de la temporada navideña de la Iglesia. La palabra "epifanía" significa "manifestación" en griego. Este es el día en que conmemoramos que el Señor se manifestó a los magos de Oriente como un Rey recién nacido. Dirigidos por una estrella, lo encontraron con su madre y su padre adoptivo y le ofrecieron regalos de oro, incienso y mirra.

Todos nosotros hemos escuchado y cantado el himno "Nosotros tres reyes". Si hemos repasado los cinco versos, podríamos recordar el significado de sus tres dones. El oro reconoce a Cristo como un rey. El incienso profesa que él es Dios. La mirra lo reconoce como hombre, un ser humano como nosotros.

Para nosotros, el oro que podemos ofrecerle a Cristo es nuestra lealtad a él. Sus enseñanzas no siempre son populares o convenientes para nosotros; Seguirlos en todas las circunstancias demuestra que somos miembros leales de su Reino. En la Oración del Señor, rezamos "Venga tu reino". Estas palabras pueden ser una buena oración corta para decir en cualquier momento en que nos enfrentemos a una decisión que involucre las enseñanzas de Cristo.

El incienso ha sido un signo trascendente durante muchas generaciones. El incienso que ofrecemos es nuestra fe. Por supuesto, esto significa no solo la aceptación de una lista de verdades, sino también una forma de vida. La oración es primordial en nuestra profesión de fe. Vivir la vida sacramental va bien con la oración. Adoramos al Señor y entramos en comunión con él como la Fuente de todo lo que tenemos y todo lo que somos.

La mirra era un bálsamo de fragancia usado para ungir cuerpos para el entierro. Es un reconocimiento de la humanidad de Cristo. Como nos dice la Carta a los Hebreos (4:15), él era como nosotros en todas las cosas, excepto en el pecado. Nuestra mirra es nuestra aceptación de las alegrías y tristezas, las posibilidades y limitaciones de nuestra humanidad en unión con el Señor. Él sabe lo que es ser nosotros, porque es uno de nosotros. Recordando que él es nuestro Hermano, arroja una luz maravillosa sobre la dignidad de cada persona humana.

Los sabios todavía lo buscan. Hoy nos unimos a los magos para seguir a la estrella a nuestro Rey recién nacido.

Padre Philip

Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh

The Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord is the last big celebration of the Church's Christmas season. The word "epiphany" means "manifestation" in Greek. This is the day when we commemorate the Lord being manifest to the magi from the East as a newborn King. Led by a star, they found him with his mother and foster father and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

All of us have heard and sung the hymn "We Three Kings." If we have gone through all five verses, we might remember the significance of their three gifts. Gold acknowledges Christ as a King. Frankincense professes that he is God. Myrrh recognizes him as man, a human being like us.

For us, the gold we can offer Christ is our allegiance to him. His teachings are not always popular or convenient for us; following them in all circumstances shows that we are loyal members of his Kingdom. In the Lord's Prayer we pray "Thy Kingdom come." These words might be a good short prayer to say anytime we are faced with a decision that involves the teachings of Christ.

Frankincense has been a sign of the Transcendent for many ages. The incense we offer is our faith. Of course, this means not only acceptance of a list of truths, but also a way of life. Prayer is paramount in our profession of faith. Living the sacramental life goes right along with prayer. We worship the Lord and we enter into communion with him as the Source of all that we have and all that we are.

Myrrh was a fragrant balm used to anoint bodies for burial. It is an acknowledgment of the humanity of Christ. As the Letter to the Hebrews (4:15) tells us, he was like us in all things but sin. Our myrrh is our acceptance of the joys and sorrows, the possibilities and limitations, of our humanity in union with the Lord. He knows what it is like to be us, because he is one of us. Remembering that he is our Brother sheds wonderful light on the dignity of each human person.

Wise persons still seek him. Today we join the magi in following the star to our Newborn King.

Fr. Philip

Feast Day Sept 21st*

1. Reminder that if you have owned your stock for 1 year or more you can gift it to the church without any tax liability.

Contact your broker or Tom Leeman at the Parish Business Office for more information at 429-2874 or email: tleeman@stedward.com

2. Turn Your TAXABLE RMD (Required Minimum Distributions) into Charitable Donations.

IRS rules mandate that individuals age 70 1/2 and older take RMDs from their IRA each year, regardless of whether the income is needed. These annual withdrawals are subject to ordinary income taxes. By making a charitable contribution from your IRA, you can satisfy your RMD amount without reporting additional income.

Another way to donate to the Capital Campaign!

Reminder that you can donate to the Pastoral Center Campaign by using WeShare.

You can set up a period of 3 years or how many payments you want to complete your pledge.
