Recent and Current Events

Last Sunday afternoon I visited the Maritime Festival down at the harbor and had a wonderful time. Thanks to the generosity of friends, I was even able to sail on one of the tall ships and participate in a make-believe “cannon battle.” Besides being a lot of fun, my time down at the harbor reminded me what a rich local culture we have here in Dana Point. In fact, I have decided that the next book I read will be Richard Henry Dana’s “Two Years Before the Mast.” I read it as a teenager, and found it to be a fascinating true-life adventure; now I want to read it as an adult and learn more about our maritime heritage and about the man who gives his name to Dana Point.

Last Wednesday was a great moment in our parish history as we installed the cross from old Knight Hall into the tower of our new Pastoral Center and Knight Hall. This cross is an unmistakable symbol of our Christian identity; it also shows the continuity of our ministry here at St. Edward the Confessor. As we move into new facilities, the ministries we already have in place move with us. They will thrive in our Pastoral Center and Knight Hall.

Remember that this Sunday is Catechetical Sunday. We can observe this special day in at least three ways. First, we can pray for all our catechists and everyone involved in Faith Formation. Second, we can examine our own lives and make sure that we are sharing our Faith through our words, actions, and attitudes. Third, we can consider volunteering to help our Faith Formation programs. There is always a need for volunteers to help on many levels and in a variety of ways.

Eventos Recientes

El domingo pasado por la tarde fui al Festival Marítimo que hacen en el puerto de Dana Point, me la pasé de maravilla. Gracias a la generosidad de unos amigos, pude navegar un barco enorme y participar en una “batalla imaginaria de cañones”. Además de que esto fue muy divertido, este tiempo en el puerto me recordó la bella cultura local que tenemos aquí en Dana Point. De hecho, he decidido que el próximo libro que leeré será “Two Years Before the Mast” o en español “Dos años antes del mástil” de Richard Henry Dana. Leí este libro cuando era adolescente y me pareció una fascinante aventura de la vida real; ahora quiero leerlo de nuevo y aprender más sobre nuestra herencia marítima y sobre el hombre que le dio el nombre a Dana Point.

El miércoles pasado fue un gran momento en la historia de nuestra parroquia cuando instalamos la cruz del antiguo salón Knight Hall en la torre del nuevo Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall. Esta cruz es un símbolo inequívoco de nuestra identidad cristiana; también muestra la continuidad de nuestro ministerio aquí en San Eduardo el Confesor. A medida que nos mudamos a nuevas instalaciones, los ministerios que ya tenemos se mudan con nosotros. Ellos prosperarán en nuestro Centro Pastoral y Knight Hall.

Recuerden que este domingo es Domingo de Catequesis. Podemos observar este día especial en al menos tres formas. Primero, podemos orar por todos nuestros catequistas y todos los involucrados en la Formación de Fe. Segundo, podemos examinar nuestras propias vidas y asegurarnos de que estamos compartiendo nuestra Fe a través de nuestras palabras, acciones y actitudes. Tercero, podemos considerar ofrecernos como voluntarios para ayudar en nuestros programas de Formación de Fe. Siempre hay una necesidad grande de voluntarios para ayudar en muchas formas.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

CALIFORNIA CATHOLIC CONFERENCE

Every human life, including unborn human life, is unique and unrepeatable, a person with inherent dignity and an eternal destiny. The intentional taking of any innocent human life is a grave moral evil, and people of faith and goodwill have an obligation to protect human life and oppose all attacks against human life and dignity. In CA this year, voters are faced with a choice to keep abortion law in our state as it is or to vote in favor of a new constitutional amendment that would permanently expand and vastly increase abortions in our state, without doing anything to give vulnerable women a real choice.

California law currently allows abortion for any reason up to viability (around 24 weeks of pregnancy) and late-term abortion to protect the life or health of the mother. Recent court decisions do not change that reality in California.

This year, our governor and legislative leaders have vowed to make California an “abortion sanctuary.” They are making good on their promise through 20 bills expanding access to abortion and by allocating $200 million in the state budget to pay for abortions for women in California and those seeking abortion from out of state.

The California Legislature put Proposition 1 on the November ballot. Proposition 1 would amend the California Constitution to establish a right to reproductive freedom, which is defined to include a right to an abortion and to choose or refuse contraceptives. The amendment states, "The state shall not deny or interfere with an individual's reproductive freedom in their most intimate decisions, which includes their fundamental right to choose to have an abortion and their fundamental right to choose or refuse contraceptives. This would remove the current ban on Abortion in California after 24 weeks, and could allow for taxpayer-funded abortion up until birth.

A “no” vote on Proposition 1 keeps existing California law on abortion the way it is now.

Ushers provide hospitality, comfort, and safety at Sunday masses and other special liturgies. Before mass, ushers foster a sense of community by welcoming members of our parish and visitors. Following all weekend masses, ushers distribute the weekly bulletin and then assure that the church is ready for the next liturgy. Generally, the time commitment for an usher is 1-1.5 hours each week.

Come celebrate Mass with your family, serve our community and be an example of Christ's love and witness to our community.

September is Suicide Awareness Month.

PASTORAL SERVICES APPEAL

Campaign Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Grant us the grace to live joyfully, to serve selflessly and to give generously as witnesses of Your love in the world.

Enliven our hearts to build up one community of faith and to proclaim with one voice the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Help us to grow closer to you each day, so that we can recognize your abundant gifts in our lives and joyfully share them with others.

Amen.
