The Original Novena

A novena is typically a nine-day period during which prayers are said each day for a particular intention. Where did the idea of praying for nine days come from? Well, in the Acts of the Apostles St. Luke tells us that the Risen Lord remained on earth for forty days (Acts 1:3); and we know that Pentecost was fifty days after Easter. This leaves an interval of nine days from the Ascension of Jesus until the vigil of Pentecost. And what did the disciples do during those nine days? They “devoted themselves with one accord to prayer.” (Acts 1:14) That was the first Christian novena.

I tell you this now so that you may imitate the disciples and prepare for the feast of Pentecost by praying a novena. If you start on May 18 (which is celebrated as Ascension Thursday in many places), you will finish the novena on May 27, the day before Pentecost. What a great way to prepare for the coming of the Holy Spirit! Certainly we can see the need for the Holy Spirit in our lives, in our community, and in our world. Praying a novena before the feast of his coming is a way to unite ourselves with Christians of all times and places, going all the way back to that first novena prayed in preparation for the first Pentecost.

What prayers should you say during your novena? There are numerous sites on the internet, and numerous apps that contain novena prayers for the coming of the Holy Spirit; or perhaps (like me) you have a prayer book that contains such novena prayers. However you choose to do it, let's all pray that the Holy Spirit may come with his seven gifts and all the graces we need to be truly united to Jesus Christ.

La Primera Novena

Una novena es típicamente un período de nueve días durante el cual se reza cada día por una intención particular. ¿De dónde vino esta costumbre de orar durante nueve días? Pues bien, en los Hechos de los Apóstoles San Lucas nos dice que el Señor Resucitado permaneció en la tierra cuarenta días (Hechos 1,3); y sabemos que Pentecostés fue cincuenta días después de la Pascua. Esto deja un intervalo de nueve días desde la Ascensión de Jesús al cielo hasta la vigilia de Pentecostés. ¿Y qué hicieron los discípulos durante esos nueve días? Ellos “se unieron en oración”. (Hechos 1:14) Esa fue la primera novena cristiana.

Les digo esto para que imitemos a los discípulos y nos preparemos para la fiesta de Pentecostés rezando una novena. Si comienza el 18 de mayo (que en muchos lugares se celebra como jueves de la Ascensión), terminarás la novena el 27 de mayo, el día antes de Pentecostés. ¡Qué gran manera de prepararse para la venida del Espíritu Santo! Ciertamente podemos ver la necesidad del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas, en nuestra comunidad y en nuestro mundo. Rezar una novena antes de la fiesta de su venida es una manera de unirnos con los cristianos de todos los tiempos y lugares, remontándonos a esa primera novena rezada en preparación para el primer Pentecostés.

¿Qué oraciones debemos hacer durante la novena? Hay numerosos sitios en Internet y numerosas aplicaciones que contienen novenas para la venida del Espíritu Santo; o tal vez usted (como yo) tengo un libro de oraciones que contienen tales oraciones. Independientemente de cómo elija hacerlo, oremos todos para que el Espíritu Santo venga con sus siete dones y todas las gracias que necesitamos para estar verdaderamente unidos a Jesucristo.

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

SYNODALITY AT ST. EDWARD #5

We are ready to listen to you! Are you ready to share with the parish your thoughts and feelings about your Catholic faith? Sign up today!

Your comments are always anonymous. We will make note of what you say but we will not identify anyone. Also, nothing you say, good or bad, will be challenged or commented on. We will not "correct" your thinking or preach to you in any way. These are NOT evangelizing sessions. What we learn from you by listening to you will become part of a summary of comments that will be used to see if there are better ways for us as a parish to minister to the diverse needs of the people of this parish.

As part of the Universal Church, we are seeking to understand how the presentation of Catholicism to the People of God can become more inclusive of the vast diversity of cultures, customs and personal issues that define each of us as distinct human beings.

Our listening sessions will begin mid-week on June 7, 2023, followed by some Saturday sessions. This format will continue for three weeks as we explore the best times to make the listening sessions available. Once the dates and slots fill up, you will have to wait until the next published dates which will follow immediately.

You are free to sign up whenever you want, however, if you fall into one of the following categories, you may want to wait (but don't have to) for that group to be scheduled: Youth; young married couples; parents with school aged children; LGBTQ; divorced and remarried; non-practicing Catholic.

The Eucharistic Revival Is Coming

Corpus Christi
June 11th, 2023
9am - 5pm

The feast of Corpus Christi that we celebrate today is really the convergence of two separate events in the 13th century.

In 1263, a German priest, Fr. Peter of Prague, stopped to celebrate Mass on a pilgrimage to Rome. He was having some doubts regarding the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. During the consecration, blood started seeping from the host and onto the altar. This miracle was reported to Pope Urban IV, who sent delegates to investigate the incident and to bring the blood-stained host and linens to him. To this day they are still displayed in the Cathedral of Orvieto.

We will Celebrate
The Feast of Corpus Christi
