Good Samaritans

If you type the phrase “Good Samaritan” into Dictionary.com, you will find the definition: “a person who gratuitously gives help or sympathy to those in distress.” Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan is so famous that it has found its way into the dictionary! Jesus tells this parable in answer to the question, “Who is my neighbor?” All of us are called to be neighbors to one another, helping those who need help and receiving help from others as well.

Most of us can recall times when someone has helped us. There are many good people in this world, and sometimes a person we have never met will appear at just the right time to give us the assistance we need. Hopefully we can also recall times when we have been the person giving help; opportunities to do good for others are all around us. And beyond the assistance we give to people whom we encounter in daily life, we can give the assistance of our prayers to anyone we want to help—whether they are in this world or the next. I know that I have been helped a lot by the prayers of many good people here at St. Edward the Confessor and San Felipe de Jesús; thank you for this! Your prayers are a great help to me. I promise my prayers for you as well.

As we hear the parable of the Good Samaritan during Mass this weekend, let’s give thanks for the Good Samaritans in our lives, and let’s do our best to be Good Samaritans to others. In particular, let’s pray for everyone who needs our prayers. We have the ability to do so much good; let’s never settle for less!

Dia de la Independencia

Si usted escribe la frase "Buen Samaritano" en diccionario.com, encontrará la definición: "una persona que brinda ayuda o simpatía gratuitamente a los que están en apuros". ¡La parábola de Jesús del Buen Samaritano es tan famosa que ha encontrado su lugar en el diccionario! Jesús cuenta esta parábola en respuesta a la pregunta: "¿Quién es mi prójimo?" Todos nosotros estamos llamados a ser prójimos unos a otros, ayudando a los que necesitan ayuda y recibiendo ayuda de los demás también.

La mayoría de nosotros podemos recordar algún momento en quien alguien nos ha ayudado. Hay muchas personas buenas en este mundo y, a veces, una persona que nunca hemos conocido aparecerá en el momento justo para brindarnos la ayuda que necesitamos. Con suerte, también podemos recordar momentos en los que hemos sido la persona que brinda ayuda a alguien; Las oportunidades de hacer el bien a los demás están a nuestro alrededor. Y más allá de la asistencia que brindemos a los demás en la vida diaria, podemos ayudarlos con nuestras oraciones, ya sea en este mundo o en el otro. Sé que me han ayudado mucho las oraciones de mucha gente buena aquí en San Eduardo el Confesor y San Felipe de Jesús; ¡gracias por esto! Sus oraciones son de gran ayuda para mí. Prometo orar por ustedes también.

Mientras escuchamos la parábola del Buen Samaritano durante la Misa este fin de semana, demos gracias por los Buenos Samaritanos en nuestras vidas, y hagamos nuestro mejor esfuerzo para ser Buenos Samaritanos para los demás. En particular, oremos por todos los que necesitan nuestras oraciones. Tenemos la capacidad de hacer tanto bien; ¡Nunca nos conformemos con menos!

Gratefully Yours / Con Agradecimiento,

Children who are above the age of reason (age 7) and who have not been baptized or have not yet completed the two year First Eucharist preparation are invited to participate in this intergenerational experience. Parents are given materials and instructions on how to prepare the children for the sacraments while children have “hands-on” experiences to enhance what is being taught at home. If you have any questions, please contact the Faith Formation office.

MEDAL MILESTONE

Following a very long tradition of placing holy objects in the entrances to church buildings, it seems fitting, precious religious items be placed at the main entrances to the Pastoral Center. Three entrances to the lobby will hold parishioner donated items; off the drive aisle, at the entrance from the bluff and at the foot of the stairs leading to the 2nd story Terrace.

Our Pastoral Center is a very special place for us all to celebrate, serve and evangelize.

The placement of these sacred items will remind us of God's presence among us and will also serve as an inspiration to the workers to finish the Pastoral Center safely and to make the Pastoral Center as miraculous as the medals.

Any medals, either blessed or unblessed, must be brought in to the parish office by July 18th. Before they are entombed in the concrete, they will be blessed by Fr. Philip and placed throughout the areas of the entrances.
