OPEN HOUSE

Guest Speaker, Al Langer
Thursday, August 20, 6:45pm
Lower Lunch Room

Al is a 3rd Degree Knight from Mission Basilica Council in SJC. He is an author of "A New Beginning" His story of being an immigrant from East Germany. He will be speaking on the horrible experience his family went through after the Russian and later the Czech military occupied and forcefully expelled ethnic Germans from their homeland in the Sudetenland during the so called "ethnic cleansing" period after WWII. He will finish with his encounter through Curcillio that has changed his life.

We are an organization like no other – more than 1.8 million members throughout the world. An organization that, since 1882, has embodied the selflessness of man as it has overcome adversity in the world. We are men of faith, guided not only by our belief in God and the Catholic Church, but by our belief that a man is defined by his actions as a follower of God, and as a leader in his community.

When was the last time you did something special alone together?

Most couples are busy with work and family. It seems that every moment of the day is planned and there's never enough time to get everything done.

When was the last time you had a weekend alone?

Consider planning a weekend away just the two of you, to renew your marriage relationship. We have 2 weekends to choose from: Sept. 18-20 and Nov. 13-15. Both these weekends start on Friday night and end on Sunday afternoon. They will be located at an Orange County hotel.

For more information, please contact Jim and Cheryl at 949-551-9156 or John and Maggie Lee at 714-837-5136. If you prefer sign up at our website at ocwwme.org.

Crossing Borders A "Just Faith" Journey on Immigration

"JustFaith – Crossing Borders" is a program that provides information grounded in Scripture and Church teachings. The 2 ½ -hour sessions include prayer, dialogue, active listening, DVDs, and relationship building.

This eight-week program will be offered at St. Edward the Confessor Church on Monday evenings beginning September 14. To sign up—or to find out more about this challenging, but faith-building experience, contact Cindy or Chuck Brauer, 949-388-8219 or cbrauer27@gmail.com. Space is limited.

The contentious voices surrounding the issue of immigration in the U.S. reflect many sides and perspectives, with no single voice comprising the entire story. Where can we find common ground?

The Catholic Social Justice Ministry invites all those sincerely seeking truth and the Catholic perspective on immigration issues to take part in a comprehensive eight-week study to find that common ground and more about ourselves, our values, our God and the millions of people who are on the move in every part of the world.

Planning for Spring 2016

Have you ever had a desire to get away for a few days and spend some time alone with God? Have you ever wanted to go on a retreat or wondered what it would be like to experience one? Or just have a few days rest to Renew your tired mind, body, and spirit or some time to refocus your life and priorities?

Jesus said to his disciples: "COME WAY by yourselves to secluded place and rest awhile." MK 6:31

Come away and rest awhile, Sounds pretty easy, but the reality of putting into practice is another story.

A time of rest {particularly a retreat} gives us a God moment in the midst of our busy life to look at our past account for our present and to imagine a new and better future.

This is an invitation to you to join the women of St. Edward on our week-end silent retreat in October we spend the week-end with the Carmelite Sisters at their beautiful retreat grounds in Alhambra. Consider joining us...pray about it.

The Catholic Cemeteries is providing a pre-need planning program for Catholic families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable Decisions a Catholic must make.

Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by Planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the Corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

We will have a table outside after all masses the weekend of Aug. 22 and 23.

But there's HOPE

But there's HOPE

THE GATHERING ON MENTAL HEALTH & THE CHURCH

w/ Rick and Kay Warren

OCTOBER 7-9, 2015

It's difficult to imagine that 50% of adults will develop depression, anxiety, self-harm, eating disorders, bipolar disorder, PTSD, borderline personality disorder, schizophrenia, or some other mental illness in their lifetime. This staggering reality can feel daunting, but there is HOPE.

HOPE says that you are not defined by your illness. HOPE says your life has a purpose even when you don't feel it. HOPE says you are not alone.

Be a part of breaking the silence and stigma by joining us on October 7-9, 2015 for Saddleback Church's Gathering on Mental Health and The Church. These three days are packed with practical help and hope for individuals affected by mental illness, their loved ones, church leaders, and mental health professionals. It's time to step up together and create a pathway to HOPE. It's time to offer a place of refuge, love, and compassion for those who need it most. It's time to acknowledge the facts and embrace the millions of people suffering from mental illness everyday.

Join us for this hope-filled event.
