A LIFE CHANGING & SOUL STIRRING TRIP

Life changing would not fully describe our recent visit to Kingston, Jamaica to serve with the Missionaries of the Poor (MOP). Soul stirring seems far more appropriate. Between October 13th & 18th, twenty parishioners had the distinct privilege of working along side “the mops”, “the cleanup men who pick up humanity left on the streets, cast off or forgotten by society”. The brothers recognize each person, no matter how broken they may be, as a precious gift from God and deserve to be treated with dignity and love.

So many of us read the Bible. So many of us study the Bible. How many of us truly LIVE the Word? Sometimes it takes seeing others actually doing this to realize the difference. The Brothers showed great wisdom beyond their years. They were grounded in Christ and had no interest in the “riches” we take for granted and often treasure in the states. They choose to focus on eternal rewards rather than mere, fleeting pleasures. They find strength to do the most difficult jobs through a day disciplined by constant prayer. They incorporate God-filled music to lift their souls and to keep them nourished as they work.

How often we go to a Third World country proudly thinking we will teach them our ways. We found out very quickly that the tables were turned and that we were the learners. The Brothers and the disabled and the impaired were our teachers instead. They taught us the real meaning of joy. They shared with us the paradox that “Peace is found on the Cross”; all you need is Christ. In their beautiful worldview, love is not carnal and self-indulgent but true love is found in self-sacrifice. The Brothers are called to imitate Christ- and to teach others how to love. They do their job so incredibly well!

What can ONE person do to make a difference? Father Ho Lung, founder of MOP, might have wondered that same thing at age 40. Thirty-five years later, this “Ghetto” Priest’s “Joyful Service with Christ on the Cross” has attracted over 500 Brothers. Like Jesus, he calls us to follow him and to make a difference too, to light a candle in the darkness.

Day of the Dead: Día de los Muertos

From the beginning of time, man has felt the need to explain the mystery of life and death. Many civilizations and cultures have created rituals to try and give meaning to human existence.

From pre Columbian times, El Día de los Muertos, the Day of the Dead has been celebrated in Mexico, and other Latin countries. This is a very special ritual, since it is the day in which the living remember their departed relatives. Sometimes, when people of other cultures hear for the first time about the celebration of the Day of the Dead, they mistakenly think it must be: gruesome, terrifying, scary, ugly and sad. Nothing further from the truth, Day of the Dead is a beautiful ritual in which Mexicans happily and lovingly remember their loved relatives that have died. Much like when we go to a graveyard to leave some lovely flowers on a tomb of a relative.

Election Day is November 4th

We encourage all citizens, particularly Catholics, to embrace their citizenship not merely as a duty and privilege, but as an opportunity meaningfully to participate in building the culture of life. Every voice matters in the public forum. Every vote counts. Every act of responsible citizenship is an exercise of significant individual power. We urge our fellow citizens to see beyond party politics, to analyze campaign rhetoric critically and to choose their political leaders according to principle, not party affiliation or mere self-interest.

Craft Fair November 16

Concern America volunteers will offer unique, hand-crafted items for purchase on Sunday, November 16, after the morning Masses.

Concern America is an international development and refugee aid organization that promotes products from cooperative groups in impoverished countries such as Bangladesh, El Salvador, Guatemala, Mexico & Honduras. One of the best ways of assisting people in their struggle against material poverty is to support them in developing their skills and talents so that they can participate in gainful employment or organized income-generating projects in their own communities.

Concern America artisans are paid living wages and are often able to work in their homes and in environmentally safe surroundings.
