New on FORMED...

HAPPINESS...the series

Happiness is both a philosophical itinerary and a practical program for life's most important journey—from the mundane and the meaningless to transcendent fulfillment. Hosted by Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, this program features interviews with well-known psychiatrists, celebrities, New Testament scholars, physicists, and priests as they uncover the deeper answers to life's most profound questions.

Using Fr. Spitzer's proven paradigm, "The Four Levels of Happiness", as our cornerstone (episode 1), we move through the remaining 6 episodes dealing with unhappiness and depression and then to evidence for our transcendent and eternal life. We examine the resurrection of Jesus Christ and finally, we learn how to properly deal with and benefit from suffering.

World Elder Abuse Awareness

“All life has inestimable value; even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor deserve the utmost reverence and respect.”

Pope Francis

Every year an estimated 5 million, or 1 in 10, older Americans are victims of elder abuse, neglect, or exploitation. And that's only part of the picture: Experts believe that for every case of elder abuse or neglect reported, as many as 23.5 cases go unreported. In 2014, the Orange County Elder and Dependent Adult Abuse Registry received over 9,000 reports of elder and dependent adult abuse. The number of abuse reports increased 74% from 2004 to 2014.

On June 15 communities in the USA and all over the world will sponsor events to highlight the growing tragic issue of elder abuse. Elder abuse can be prevented if everyone would treat older Americans with respect and care. Learning the warning signs of abuse and knowing how to report it is another great step. Adult Protective Services, the police, and the Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program are organizations that you can call on for assistance and information. You can also find more information on how to stop elder abuse by visiting the National Center on Elder Abuse's website www.ncea.aoa.gov or by calling the Eldercare Locator at 1-800-677-1116.

- Caregiver has control of elder's money but is failing to provide for elder's needs
- Vulnerable elder/adult has signed property transfers (Power of Attorney, new will, etc.) but is unable to comprehend the transaction or what it means

Psychological/Emotional Abuse

- Unexplained or uncharacteristic changes in behavior, such as withdrawal from normal activities, unexplained changes in alertness, other
- Caregiver isolates elder (doesn't let anyone into the home or speak to the elder)
- Caregiver is verbally aggressive or demeaning, controlling, overly concerned about spending money, or uncaring

Physical/Sexual Abuse

- Inadequately explained fractures, bruises, welts, cuts, sores or burns
- Unexplained sexually transmitted diseases

Neglect

- Lack of basic hygiene, adequate food, or clean and appropriate clothing
- Lack of medical aids (glasses, walker, teeth, hearing aid, medications)
- Person with dementia left unsupervised
- Person confined to bed is left without care
- Home cluttered, filthy, in disrepair, or having fire and safety hazards
- Home without adequate facilities (stove, refrigerator, heat, cooling, working plumbing, and electricity)

JUSTICE THAT WORKS

Death Penalty Initiative Qualifies for Ballot

St. Edward's parish gathered more than 562 qualified signatures last month to help qualify the Justice That Works Act of 2016 for the California ballot in November. Now the hard work to pass the initiative begins. In line with Catholic pro-life teachings, we will have the opportunity to repeal the death penalty, replacing it with life in prison without parole in California. Not only is this the right and moral action, the state will also save more than $1 billion over the next seven years while keeping the public safe. It's a good measure for the Soul and the Pocketbook!

DIOCESE of ORANGE CATHOLIC CEMETERIES

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Diocese of Orange provides a pre-need Planning Program for Catholic Families in Orange County. Family burial arrangements are among the most important and inevitable decisions a Catholic must make. Because of the many emotional and financial savings that result by planning these arrangements in advance of need, the Diocese of Orange urges all Catholic families to learn about their burial options. The apostolic and administrative work of Catholic Cemeteries truly reflects the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

For information on advance planning and the choices you have, please contact Mary Ellen Lohnes
